The P. E. Island Premier.

AND HIS RECENT MISSION TO OTTAWA.

(Montreal Herald.)

The Hon. W. W. Sullivan, Premier of Prince Edward Island, was in the city yesterday en route for the Island. Finding him at the Windsor, a representative of the Herald asked him how he and his colleague, Mr. Donald Ferguson had got on in Ottawa.

"Very well indeed," was Mr. Sullivan's reply. "Did you find the Government in an accommodating mood?"

"We did our business with the members of the Cabinet whom we went to see in a manner quite satisfactory to us."

"Does that mean that large concessions will be made to the Island Province?"

"I am not sure that I said anything about concessions."

"I hear that you went to Ottawa to get a refund of money advanced by your Province for railroad purposes. Is it true?"

"I hear a great deal about home when I go abroad that is news to me. It seems that you have heard all about my mission to Ottawa and can enlighten me on the subject."

"So then your business is a state secret and you are bound not to let the public know anything about it?"

"My dear sir, there are some things that a member of a Government cannot even divulge even to a journalist, however high his esteem he may respect the influence of the press."

"Well, I suppose you won't tell me whether your business with the Government has any reference to the subway scheme, about which so much has been said and written lately."

"The subway scheme is, I can assure you, a live enterprise. It is not a theory of mere visionaries, as many people here and elsewhere seem to think. It has been pronounced feasible by practical engineers, Mr. Walter Shanley among others."

"Is anything being done to give it a practical shape?"

"Oh, yes. The Straif has been sounded and borings have been made. All the conditions for laying the subway have been found to be favorable; so that if the scheme is in other respects practicable there are few difficulties in the way."

"Under whose authority are these soundings and borings being made?"

"Under the authority and at the cost of the Dominion Government."

"What is the estimated cost of the road at the bottom of the sea?"

"There are different estimates. They range between two and five millions."

"Do the Island people expect the Dominion Government to spend four or five millions of dollars in giving their province communication with the mainland?"

"The people of the Island expect the Dominion Government to carry out the terms of confederation in good faith. One of those terms is to provide for the Island continuous steam communication for mails and passengers with the Mainland, winter and summer. If to do this is within the range of possibility it ought to be done."

"You and Mr. Ferguson went to London to seek the intervention of the Imperial Government in the matter, did you not?"

"Yes. The Imperial Government being a party to the confederation compact, the Legislature of the Island considered that it should use its influence with the Dominion Government to have the terms of Confederation carried out with respect to continuous steam communication with the mainland."

"How were the Island delegation received at Downing street?"

"With every consideration. We met Lord Granville several times. He listened attentively to our representations and his Lordship promised to direct the attention of the Dominion Government to the non-fulfillment of the terms of confederation with the Island and to request to have them carried out as far as possible. Lord Granville also said that the subway was worthy of the consideration of the Dominion Government as a means to that end. In our communications with the Colonial office it was a great advantage to have the High Commissioner on the spot to represent the Dominion Government."

"Has anything come of your mission to London?"

"I think there has. The preliminary surveys and soundings and borings that I have spoken of are so much towards carrying out the recommendation of the Imperial Government."

"How are times on the Island?"

"Better than they have been. The crops have been very good, particularly the wheat crop. More of that grain has, I think, been raised on the Island than is required for its own use. There is a fine crop of potatoes and a good average yield of oats. Hay has been light. Agriculture you know is our mainstay."

"How are politics?"

"Dull just now. The only thing going on is the Legislative Council election, and not a great deal of interest is taken in it."

The Deaf and Dumb Institution.

EXTRACT FROM MINUTES OF COUNCIL OF 20TH SEPTEMBER, 1886.

The Honorable the Surveyor General, appointed by commission under the Great Seal, dated the 7th day of May, A. D., 1886, to investigate into the charges preferred against the conduct and management of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, at Fredericton, and report thereupon to his honor the Lieutenant Governor in Council, having come before the Committee of the Executive Council the evidence taken by him, under such commission, and reported that he finds no grounds exist, in fact, for the grave charges which have been made against the Institution, and therefore exonerates and entirely acquits the management of the said Institution therefrom.

The Committee recommended that the said report and finding of the Honorable the Surveyor General be approved, and it is ordered accordingly.

Whelan Monument Fund.

ACCORDING to notice, the meeting of the electors of the Second Electoral District of King's County was held in the Schoolhouse at Morell Point, on Tuesday, the 5th inst. The meeting was organized by appointing Martin Sinnott, Esq., Chairman, and the undersigned Secretary. The Chairman briefly stated the object of the meeting, viz. to raise a fund with the view of erecting a monument to the memory of the late Hon. Edward Whelan, who, in years gone by, had so faithfully represented them in the House of Assembly. He then called upon J. C. Underhay, Esq., the representative of the District, to address the audience.

Mr. Underhay, on rising, said that he felt proud to see so many of the electors assembled to do honor to the memory of the late Hon. Edward Whelan, and that it was but fitting that the people of St. Peter's District should be the first to move in this matter, as they largely participated in the benefits of his labors. He then alluded to the great public services which Mr. Whelan had rendered to this country, and the fearful odds he had to contend with in advocating those measures which were necessary to secure Responsible Government. He said that before we obtained responsible government, in shameful violation of the principles of national honor and justice, the representations of the people were disregarded, in consequence of the influence exercised by the proprietors who owned extensive tracts of land on the Island. Absent proprietors retained the land and kept it in a state of wilderness; but through the exertions of Hon. Edward Whelan and his associates an act was passed which imposed a rate or duty on the rent-rolls of certain rented township lands, and thus forced the proprietors to come to terms with the Government. The people of this Island owed much to him, for he greatly assisted in settling the long-pending disputes between landlord and tenant; to him the young men owed the proud privilege of voting, and he assisted in placing the inestimable boon of Free Education within the reach of all. We would, indeed, be an ungrateful people if we were not sensible of the benefits that we had mainly received from his labor, and did not express our warm appreciation of them. He felt assured that all classes would endorse the movement, and show forth their appreciation of his services by contributing to the fund.

A. C. McDonald, Esq., M. P., next addressed the meeting. He paid tribute to the memory and ability of the Hon. Edward Whelan, and said it now appeared he would not have a peer in the wide Dominion. He always defended the rights of this Province, and never sought for power or patronage at the expense of principle. His generous nature and manly sympathy, which in its breadth embraced all classes, endeared him to all. Mr. McDonald assured the audience that the movement is warmly endorsed by the masses and felt sure that it would be carried to a successful issue.

Mr. Cyrus Shaw, being called on, said that it was with very great pleasure that he heard of the noble and honorable movement of the people of this locality to erect a monument to the memory of the much lamented Edward Whelan. The public services of that truly great man deserved a lasting monument. That man has not yet lived who did more to promote the extension of civil liberty on P. E. Island than Edward Whelan. He strongly advocated the Franchise Law, the Land Purchase Act, the Free School Act, and other beneficial measures with which his name is destined to continue identified. It was through the efforts of Edward Whelan that the farmers of this Island were delivered from the galling yoke of landlordism. The paramount national good which resulted from his labors has been decidedly acknowledged by men of all classes and creeds, and felt sure that the respect and gratitude of posterity, and he sincerely hoped that all parties would cooperate in the noble work and raise a monument to eternize his memory.

Mr. A. J. McInnis next addressed the meeting. He believed that the name of Edward Whelan would live forever in the hearts of the people, and he regretted that no proper monument marked his resting place.

Mr. Robert Mooney being called on said that he could not let the opportunity pass without expressing his appreciation of the services rendered to this country by the late Hon. Edward Whelan. He spoke at considerable length of his great ability as a statesman and an orator, and it was only when questions of great magnitude called forth his vital energies of mind that he could be heard at his best. The people of the St. Peter's district owed him a deep debt of gratitude for the earnestness with which he sought to promote their interests and give effect to their wishes.

The following gentlemen were then unanimously chosen to solicit subscriptions in their respective districts:—

Senator Howland; Edward Hackett, Tignish; J. C. Underhay; Bay Fortune; John Gaffney, Summerside; A. C. McDonald, Montague; John Sinnott, St. Peter's Harbor; Lucius Kelly, Fort Augustus; Archibald J. McDonald, Georgetown; Cyrus Shaw, New Perth; William Ross, Montserrat; Richard McDonald, Henry Hughes, A. B. Warburton, J. W. Mullyally, Charlottetown; Joseph Doyle, Souris; A. J. McInnis, Murray River.

It was then moved by Mr. Wm. Sinnott, seconded by J. C. Underhay, Esq., that Hon. W. W. Sullivan act as Hon. Treasurer.

A subscription list was then opened and a handsome sum subscribed.

JAMES KANE,
Secretary.
