MRS. ROBERT (MAE) DALZIEL Inherited by the family. There's an open gate at the end of the road. Through which each must go alone. And there is a light we cannot see. Our father claims his own. Beyond the gate our loved one finds happiness and rest. And there is a comfort in the thought. That a loving God knows best. The death occurred suddenly at the P.E.I. Hospital on May 1, 1965 of Mrs. Robert (Mae) Dalziel, 109 Upper Queen Street, in her 62nd year, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murphy. She leaves to mourn her husband, Robert, two sons Albert and Lloyd and one daughter Doris (Mrs. Edwin Sanford of New York), one granddaughter, Cheryl Mae Sanford. Two brothers, Harry and Albert Murphy, three sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Collier, Mrs. David Erwin, St. John, N.B., Mrs. Basil Malley, Chatham, N.B. The funeral which was largely attended was held on May 3, 1965 from Spring Park United Church, conducted by Rev. Clayton Lewis. Hymns sung by the church choir were The Lord's My Shepherd and Abide With Me. Pallbearers were Ernest Perry, Michael Pasher, William Doiron, Alex Ford, Harold Huggan and Earl Riggs. Interment was in Floral Hills Memorial Gardens.

CATTLE DISPLAY Opened By Hays. (OTTAWA CP) - Agriculture Minister Harry Hays has opened a permanent government dairy cattle display aimed at boosting export sales of breeding stock. The department paid $31,725 for the 40 head in the display to be housed at the federal government's central experimental farm. Mr. Hays led a cow off a truck in the opening ceremony. He said the display - dubbed the Canadian Livestock Showcase - will provide a handy, central place for visitors and potential buyers to see what Canada has to offer in the way of dairy cattle.

BALTIC Mrs. Edith Bruce, Charlottetown, and former resident of Red Point is now convalescing with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Mac Montgomery, Charlottetown, following her stage of illness of four months in the P.E.I.
