HORSESHOEING.

HAVING secured the services of MR. WILLIAM TUCKER, a native of this Island, who has had some years' experience as a horse-shoer in the United States, I am prepared to supply a long-felt want in this line. Mr. Tucker has reduced horse-shoeing to a science, and is prepared to perform all classes of work in a common-sense and scientific manner. I need not inform the intelligent horse-owner that the gait of the horse and condition of the feet must be understood to weight a horse properly and to successfully operate thereon. Numerous patrons already admit the merits of the work performed, and recommend his system of shoeing.
Customers can always depend on prompt attention and entire satisfaction.

Random Notes.

So we are to have Davies and Welsh, are we? Not a bit of it. Queen's County will forbid the bans next election and sustain the Government. She will do so if she is wise.

Horse flesh is rising in value. Not so long ago, as many are aware, Mr. Donald Campbell, of Johnson's River, sold his trotter, sired by Abdallah Messenger, for the handsome sum of $500. Another Abdallah, in the shape of a beautiful chestnut colt, five months' old, owned by Mr. John McQuaid, of Dromore, brought an offer of $100. This does not seem to be a bad price for a youngster, but something higher is looked for.

While the four-footed animals are of such value, what has become of the old Grit war horse, "ex-Governor," for latterly he seems to be out of the race altogether. He is not even trotted out. Echo simply says "out." That's it. He is out; out of the race, hardly even allowed to jockey, and yet this "impossible candidate" is, after all, worth the other two (who seem to be the favorites) hammered into one. But if Grits won't believe it, what is the use of Conservatives trying to prove it? However mistaken he may be, politically, the Hon. David Laird has more parliamentary force in him than could be found in Davies and Welsh combined; but—his friends say otherwise.

"Truth bids us look on men as autumn leaves,
And all they bleed for as the summer's dust
Driven by the whirlwind."

And the Hon. David Laird has experienced the whirlwind in his own camp. The Indians of the Northwest may appreciate him, but his white brethren at home say "non possumus." Why?

Next. People want to know now if Charlottetown really has a Stipendiary Magistrate. That "prohibition" is a curious thing. At the same time it is just as well for the people in general, and lawyer-dealers in particular, to bear in mind that the Scott Act is not affected by "one great" liquor dealer say "the Scott Act is burst again, but we must take it for granted "the wish is father to the thought." The idea that Mr. Fitzgerald, as Stipendiary Magistrate—owing to the nature of his commission—has no jurisdiction in Scott Act cases, because that Act is a Dominion law, is sheer nonsense. He either is actually a Stipendiary Magistrate, or he is not. If he is, the Act provides that cases can be tried before him as such. But then, what's the odds? If the Stipendiary Magistrate cannot try, or legally hear a case, or pronounce judgment upon it, two Justices of the Peace can. At the same time it is as plain as daylight, that a Stipendiary Magistrate has full, complete, and final powers in Scott Act cases. He is there to see that the law is faithfully administered, sustained and carried out. No quibble of being both "prosecutor and judge"—he is, strictly speaking, neither the one nor the other—can abolish the strict and well defined line of duty. The law is clear and effective enough, if men wish to see it so, and if rendered in our courts with all its own natural force, it should be more effective in this Province than in any other Edward whole Dominion, because Prince Edward Island is entirely and completely under its jurisdiction. In this Province the duties of the Scott Act commence at our very public wharves, and the men who should be most closely watched are the rich wholesale dealers—a class of men who break the law every week of the month, every day of the week, and almost every hour of the day. Some of the licensed vendors are worth looking after, too. Depend upon it, the Scott Act is workable, if men will work it. The fault is not so much in the law as in the way it is put in force—or, rather, not put in force. The writer, however, may add that he has no sympathy whatever with much of the attack being made upon the present Stipendiary Magistrate, neither has he any desire to discuss the question as to whether Mr. Fitzgerald is in sympathy with the Act or not? There has been entirely too much said about it, and one journal at least, which bears a religious name would have displayed a great deal more of the spirit of "the Master," had there been less of spleen in its compositions. So-called religious journals, sometimes become public nuisances, and there is nothing kills a good cause quicker than fanatical and unwise advocacy. To put the whole thing in a nut shell—the Scott Act is there, and it is capable of proper administration. It is therefore clearly the duty of our Government, our law officers and the electors who chose the Act, to see that it is put in force. Proper authority should administer the law properly.

Free Trade.

The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefited the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufacturers. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boeck's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size.

The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and afflicted, in every town and village in civilized countries. Sample bottles for 10 cents remain the same size.

Sir Edward Cecil Guinness's bounties to the assistants who aided him in building up the greatness of his firm have been unprecedented. It is stated that Mr. Pursar, the manager of the brewery for many years has received a cheque for $1,000,000.

O'Donovan Rossa Denounced as a Fraud and Traitor.

PUBLIC STATEMENT BY THE GENERAL COUNCIL—ROSSA'S INDICTMENT BY THE REVOLUTIONARY DIRECTORY—FOUND GUILTY OF FRAUD, TREACHERY, TREASON AND EMBEZZLEMENT.

At a meeting held in New York on the 7th inst., by the General Council of the Fenian Brotherhood, it was decided, in view of the erroneous statements made by O'Donovan Rossa regarding the severance of his official connection with the brotherhood, to make a statement to the public giving the reasons which rendered, as they say, the removal of Rossa "an absolute necessity." The documents recite at great length Rossa's unsuccessful attempt to pack the recent convention of the brotherhood; refers to which were condoned by the Council, and the leniency then shown towards him he interpreted as weakness on the part of the Council, and made him think the brotherhood was his personal property. Rossa is charged with having persistently displayed all the clauses of the constitution which relate to financial affairs, which obstructed obedience elicited from the revolutionary directory the following declaration, a copy of which was served upon him:—

DECLARATION OF THE REVOLUTIONARY DIRECTORY.
"HEADQUARTERS FENIAN BROTHERHOOD, New York, Nov. 2, 1886."

"We, the Revolutionary Directory of the Fenian Brotherhood, hereby declare that Jeremiah O'Donovan Rossa, Chief Executive, holds money in his possession belonging to the Brotherhood in violation of the constitution and in defiance of this body, who are the guardians of the funds of this organization. That we, together with the treasurer, have repeatedly demanded this money of the brotherhood from him, and he has persistently refused to pay it over to the treasurer." (Signed by the Revolutionary Directory).

"O'Donovan Rossa," the document goes on to say, "knows in his soul that

HE ACTS FAULTILY AND DECEITFULLY when he endeavors to make it appear that the United Irishmen Society did all the skimming work that has been done during the last six years. He knows that there has not been a club, circle or camp of the United Irishmen's Society in existence within the last five years. That body was born in Philadelphia in 1880, and it died inside of a year. How much O'Donovan Rossa's conduct as "Executive Secretary" had to do with the death, there are those no doubt who know. His attempt to now

RESURRECT THE CORPSE of this poor body so as to make it appear that he has an "organization" at his back, can be well and correctly understood when taken in connection with his present appeal for a new skimming fund."

Further on it says:—"O'Donovan Rossa says he will still work with good men of the Fenian Brotherhood. The only bad men who ever got into the secrets of the Brotherhood since the days of that trio of wretches, Corydon, Massey and Nagle, were his (O'Donovan Rossa's) special friends,

"RED JIM" McDERMOTT AND PHELAN, of Kansas City. Neither of these men belonged to the organization, but he fraternized with them unknown to the council. To McDermott, who would not be allowed in the brotherhood, he gave, unknown to the council, credit virtually making him an agent of the brotherhood. The result was the life-long imprisonment of Featherstone and others, and the driving of men from their comfortable homes into cold and cheerless exile. Against the express command of the council he took Phelan to his heart of hearts, and made arrangements whereby Phelan could meet skimming agents within the jurisdiction of English law. No misfortune has befallen the brotherhood of late years for which O'Donovan Rossa is not personally responsible."

ROSSA'S "RESIGNATION."
Regarding his proffered resignation to the Council, it says:—"The resignation was not entertained for the reason that the Council could not conscientiously allow him to escape the consequences of his acts in any such manner. They preferred not to allow the matter to go to the convention, and there, where he could charge no clique or conspiracy, let his return be dealt with. The convention did so. An investigating committee of five, on which were four of his personal friends, unanimously found him

GUILTY OF FRAUD, TREACHERY, TREASON, persistent violation of the constitution in financial matters, and gross indiscretion. The convention unanimously adopted this report. The report, which was signed by each member of the committee, says:—"We find the foregoing charges sustained by the evidence, and we respectfully submit the same, to be used by the Council only in defending the brotherhood from any attack that may be made upon it."

The document says in conclusion:—"Rossa has refused to give up the keys of the post office box rented and paid for by the brotherhood since 1865, and he has informed a committee of our organization that he would retain all moneys coming to said box or letters or cards intended for the brotherhood."

How pale you and is frequently the exclamation of one lady to another. The fact is not a pleasant one to have mention, but still the fact might be a kindly one, for it sets the one addressed to thinking, appraises her of the fact that she is not in good health, and leads her to seek a reason therefor. Pallor is almost always attendant upon the first stages of consumption. The system is enfeebled, and the blood is impoverished. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will act as a tonic upon the system, will enrich the impoverished blood, and restore roses to the cheeks. f & w
