Mayor Stresses Tourist Potential

ALBERTON BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN

The tourist industry holds tremendous potential and will surpass all other Prince Edward Island industries in years to come, Charlottetown Mayor A. Walthe Gaudet told the Alberton and West Prince Board of Trade at its annual banquet last night.

The terrific increase in traffic at Wood Islands was cited by the speaker as more than sufficient encouragement for inauguration of the proposed West Point ferry service to the mainland.

Noting the obvious lack of tourist development in West Prince he commended those responsible for the new West-

Sum-Hi Theatrical Project Is Greeted By Packed House

SUMMERSIDE — What was the most ambitious theatrical project attempted in Summerside in a good many years proved a smashing success last night at Civic Auditorium when the Summerside High School Theatre Guild, under the direction of Lionel Dixon, teacher at the high school, presented the musical comedy "A Broadway Bit of Some Years Ago, 'Oklahoma'."

Last night the second presentation of this delightful comedy saw a large number of people coming back for a second look—the highest praise a production can hope to get. Capacity houses greeted each performance.

More than 70 high school students participated in the production. The choruses were particularly pleasing, the boys' and girls' choruses bringing out with surprising effectiveness the lively rhythms of the Rodgers and Hammerstein songs. The costumes were striking, and the dance routines, under the direction of Mrs. Mark Ferguson, had to be seen to be believed, coming from high school students of so little experience.

Isabel Darby as Laurie, and Alan Savidant as Curly played the leads expertly and sang old favorites as "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning" and "Man of the New Day" with confidence and charm. Marilyn MacLeod and Ralph Crossman, comedy leads, convulsed the audience with their humorous songs and madcap antics.

Boppe Elpp made an ideal Aunt Eller and Bill MacDougall was outstanding in the role of

Mr. Dixon, the director, is a native of England, and joined the high school staff this school year.

Others in the cast were Harold Milton, Wilfred Gallant, Malcolm Matheson, Ralph Crossman, Larry Hardy, Claudia Sears, Paul Mullin, Art Bingham; Kaye Green; Barbara Hunter.

Hard working committee chairmen and members were elected at the March meeting and those heading up the committees are, membership, Truman Jeffery; angling, Reg Thompson; game, B. J. Rayner; publicity, Lowell Huestis; education, Preston MacDonald and program, Earl Hayes.

Councillors elected were: Benny Grady, Hugh Daley and Preston MacDonald.

E. Prince Group Wants Ross Corner Causeway

A recommendation that a causeway be built at Ross' Corner where the Trans Canada Highway was washed away was passed during a meeting of the East Prince Fish and Game Association, held last night at the court house in Summerside with more than 50 members present.

Howard Walte presiding. Many members felt that such a project would not only beautify the area and provide better fishing, but would act as a natural nesting place for wildfowl.

It was pointed out that now is the ideal time to bring such a matter before the provincial association and the government as it could be gone ahead with, instead of the intended new bridge.

A letter is being sent immediately by the local association to the provincial body on this matter and also including suggestions for a fishing dam above the upper Dunk River, probably either just above the hatchery bridge or near Wall's Bridge.

Ass'n Dormant Six Months, Reactivated in East Prince

The East Prince branch of the P.E.I. Fish and Game Protective Association was reactivated last month after a six-month period of inactivity, at an enthusiastic and largely attended meeting held at the Summerside court house.

Howard Walte was elected president and immediately the organization started to roll with the bag limit. It is felt that many hunters will throw away one or two of these smaller ducks if they get a chance at the more prized black ducks, rather than get caught with more than the limit. If separate limits were imposed, this problem would be largely solved, it was stated.

Complaints about inadequate coverage by fish and game wardens were also voiced at the meeting and a recommendation asking that a civilian warden be appointed to work with the RCMP wardens in Prince County, was passed unanimously.

The group also decided to look into the possibility of taking care of the fish and game display at this summer's lobster carnival and livestock exhibition in Summerside and a committee was formed for this purpose.

A decision on whether to approve the stocking of a pond to be built by the Seabrook frozen food plant, on the Clairmont stream, was deferred until pollution tests can be run on the new pond.

The next meeting of the association will be held on May 17, at the court house.
