

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

From far away Azusa, California, we received by airmail yesterday a letter from Dr. David MacKenzie, well known surgeon who spends his summers on the Island. Enclosed is a copy of Trotting Time, drawing attention to the Santa Anita meeting which opened there yesterday. Dr. Dave has been a friend of the writer since his college days at P.W.C., and that is quite a long time ago. Trotting Time gives a good play-up for the race meeting which will run for 40 days, with racing from Tuesday through Saturday until May 10. There will be eight races daily with the exception of Saturday when nine will be held. This is the 7th annual meeting promoted by Bernard Kearney under the auspices of the Western Harness Racing Association since the time he first brought America's greatest trotters and pacers west of the Rockies in 1946 and it will officially open the 1952 harness racing season in the U.S.A.

A rich program of stakes is being presented, this year's schedule of early closing events being highlighted by the $25,000 added money Golden West Trot on April 26th and the $25,000 added money Golden West Pace on May 3rd. Santa Anita Park will be at its very finest for this harness meeting. The swank club is being opened to the public this spring and the beautiful grounds will be maintained in the same excellent shape as during the thoroughbred racing season. It is one of the finest racing plants in the world and in one of the most perfect settings.

The 1951 meeting was held at Hollywood Park last fall from October 5 through to December 1st, and the 40 days racing attracted over 300,000 fans. Highlight of the meeting was the track and Western harness record of 1:58 1/4 by the pacer Dudley Hanover. It stands as the fifth fastest race mile in pacing history. On the trotting side Fronto Don, the 1951 horse of the year, was unbeaten in four starts there, turning in a mile in 1:59 1/4 for a new track and Western harness race record for a mile race. He also won a 1 1/4 mile race in 2:30 1/4 which is a world mark for that distance. Joe O'Brien and Benny Schue shared driving honors at the meeting. O'Brien scored with 18 wins for his second straight Western harness crown in this division. Benny Schue was the leading money winning driver with $48,981 to his credit.

The nominations for the 1952 Golden West Trot, purse $25,000, added, to be raced April 26 at a distance of 1 1/4 miles, number 17. Among them are Pronto Don, Mainliner, Lord Stewart, Frontiersman, Anderson Hanover, Royal Scot, Scotch Rhythm and Brewer's Gallon, owned by B. C. Cruikshank, Halifax, N.S. Nominations for the 1952 Golden West Pace, purse $25,000 added money, to be raced May 3, with the distance 1 1/4 miles, include Brother Harmony, Direct Rhythm, Dudley Hanover, Ebblinta, Rush Hour, Richard D. Grattan, Prince Jay, Irish Hal, Good Time, Patchen Axworthy, Express Hal and Golden Broom, which will be driven by Joe O'Brien.

The annual meeting of the United States Trotting Association will be held at the Huntington Hotel in Pasadena, Calif., on March 23-24. This marks the first time in history that the U.S.T.A. has met in California. The invitation to go west for the annual conclave was extended by Bernard Kearney, general manager of Western Harness Racing Association and a director of the U.S.T.A. for the Western States. U.S.T.A. president Lawrence B. Shepard and the other members of the official party will arrive on Saturday morning, March 22 and will attend the conclave during the coming trotting meet. The audiences will be treated to the best of announcing talent.

Carl MacKenzie, Race Secretary of Truro Raceway, Ltd., has sent us his 1952 program with racing dates commencing May 24 through Thanksgiving Day. The estimated purse distribution will be $60,000 and they are featuring the following early closing events: No. 1, Free For All Trot and Pace, purse $1,500, three dashes at one mile each, to be raced July 10th. No. 2, Two Year Old Trot and Pace (foaled in Canada) purse $800, two dashes at one mile each, to be raced August 23rd. No. 3, Free For All Trot and Pace, purse $1,500, three dashes at one mile each, to be raced Labor Day. No. 4, Free For All Trot and Pace, purse $1,500, three dashes at one mile each, to be raced August 23rd. No. 5, Free For All Trot and Pace, purse $1,500, three dashes at one mile each, to be raced Labor Day. No. 6, Free For All Trot and Pace, purse $1,500, three dashes at one mile each, to be raced August 23rd.

with Tom Hanlon carrying the commentary and Roy Shudt calling the races in his distinctive manner.

The Yonkers Trot News is a really little publication published by Yonkers Raceway, Yonkers, N. Y. Referring to Guy Crippen, the man that unexpectedly won the Hambletonian, richest harness horse stake in the world last August at Goshen, N. Y., he states: "Crying Tom" Guy Crippen really does not weep. He got the nickname from his pessimistic—and usually wrong—pre-race predictions. Actually he is one of the cheeriest chaps in the sport. Last year, of course, he had special reasons. He won the Hambletonian and a flock of other purses bringing his total to $131,000, of which he got the usual 10 per cent. That was above the weekly fees he collected for handling his various charges. Crippen is a man of many interests. Next to racing he likes fishing most, and he is also keen on hunting—and doing with which he has a remarkable way. Last winter at Azalea Park in Florida he had four with whom he constituted the Crippen Singing Quintette, that entertained the horsemen in their leisure moments. Besides Mainliner, last year's Hambletonian winner, Crippen has other stars in his stable belonging to Ralph Kroning of Milwaukee, Wis. They include Lord Stewart and Highland Ellen. For the 1952 Hambletonian he is preparing Beau Brummel, half brother to Mainliner.

Johnny Simpson, who was top driver in America last season with earnings of over $300,000 raced a stable of upwards of 50 horses and as they were entered in various places he had to use the quickest means of getting around that could be obtained. Last fall his young daughter was asked, with other students in her class, "What Daddy Did." Remembering his heavy schedule of plane trips to drive in big stake races around the country, she said, "My father flies round and round and every once in a while comes home."

The top poor man's horse of recent years is the pacer Red O'Brien 2:03 1/4. Four years ago Oscar Underberg bought him for $200 and after developing him a bit tried to sell him for $1,000. Since then he has gone on to arrange the fortune. Last year his winnings were over $26,000 and his all time takings ran over $45,000.

Nils Bengtsson, one of the largest tomato and carnation growers of Sweden, is visiting in the United States and hopes to complete arrangements for bringing his three-year-old trotter Bulwark, to the United States to race at Yonkers and Roosevelt. He raced once in Sweden as a two-year-old and was a winner. Mr. Bengtsson has 25 racing Standard Breds, 30 brood mares and two stallions at his 300 acre farm in Malmo, Sweden.

There is great interest taken in harness racing in Sweden and prior to World War Two Swedish horses raced at German tracks in Berlin and elsewhere. Notwithstanding the difficult situation in Austria harness racing is carried on quite extensively, also in Italy. Rich Italians frequently buy some of the best trotting prospects in the U.S.A. France also goes in for harness racing and French trotters make quite a good showing under the conditions prevailing there. This year they won the biggest purse, the Prix d'Amerique, at Vincennes near Paris.

THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN

MARCH 15, 1952

The Islanders came close to clinching second place last night and also to winning their first game on Saint John ice this season. They appeared well on their way to victory at the end of the first period but the steady grind of five games in as many nights probably told the difference in the last two sessions. Its a lot to expect the Islanders to win in Halifax tonight considering that they have played every night this week while the Saints have been rested since Wednesday but nevertheless the game should be a close one and the Islanders may have the pleasure of eliminating the Saints on Halifax ice from any chance of climbing into second place.

The Saints have proved good drawing cards since Christmas and one of the reasons is that they usually always have a new face or two in the lineup. Another player is on the way to Halifax but it is not known here if he will arrive in time for tonight's game. He is a right winger by the name of Ford who comes from Syracuse Chiefs in the A. H. L. Ford is a 22-year-old player who saw service with Springfield last year and accounted for 17 goals and 17 assists for 34 points. He is small, weighing only 154 pounds and reputed to be very fast. He comes to Halifax as a replacement for Frank Bergeron who was called to Buffalo.

Surely there must be a deadline for exchanging players. If not there's going to be a few changes in the Halifax lineup, especially if the Islanders take the Saints tonight. There are certain players on the Saints lineup who could not be exchanged such as Johnny Morrow because they are not the property of any pro club but there are still enough exchangeable players to give the Saints a power-packed club. So far the Saints have been exchanging the players and getting away with it under the statements that the Halifax players were being recalled but such can not be the case from here to the end.

Down in Sydney Aubrey Keizer reports that the Millionaires are protesting to the C. A. H. A. about the points which the Islanders won while using Paul Salndon. The Islanders, it will be remembered won two games, one against Sydney and tied one while Salndon was here. To Keizer this appears to be the hockey atrocity of the year. What he does not consider is the fact that the Islanders had the permission of the M. A. H. A. to use the player on the grounds that he was ineligible. Now it appears the Millionaires wish the C. A. H. A. the parent hockey body, to punish the Islanders for abiding by a ruling of the hockey authority in this area. In addition the Millionaires failed to make a proper protest of the case at the time that Salndon played. They were supposed to make a protest within twenty-four hours after the game was played and to post a cheque of $100 with the protest, neither of which was done.

An important game in Glace Bay tonight may determine which Cape Breton team will make the playoffs. The Millionaires, by virtue of their win over the Hawks last night are out of the cellar for the first time this season and are only five points behind the Miners. The two teams play tonight and a Mills will put them within three points of fourth place. Next week the Miners are slated to play the Beavers twice in Saint John while the Mills are playing the Islanders. Next to the Islanders the Mills are probably the hottest team in the league. "Bud" Polie wasn't fooling a month ago when he stated that he feared the Millionaires not the Hawks.

"Had" MacInnis and C. Kydd returned from Winnipeg Wednesday where they, along with Frank Hawk and Dr. Chris Gallant represented the Islanders in the Dominion Curling Championships. "Had" reports that curling is now the number one winter game in Winnipeg. Crowds of five thousand watched the Manitoba play-offs, he told us, and large crowds were on hand for the Dominion Championships. "Had" watched the Winnipeg Monarchs practise. He stated they were all extremely big boys, very fast, with terrific slap shots. During a short tour around Win-

Beavers Halt Islanders Unbeaten Streak; Win 4-3 In Wild Third

SAINT JOHN, N. B., March 14 (CP)—Saint John Beavers edged Charlottetown Islanders 4-3 tonight in a Maritime Major Hockey League fixture featured by another rhubarb involving Referee Frank Elliott.

Paid attendance was 2,623—the best since the start of the year. The three Charlottetown goals, all in the first period, were scored by Don Bellringer, Willie Marshall and Bucks Trainor. Pete Langelle counted twice for Saint John once in the first session and again in the second. Mill McCracken equalized in the third and assisted Doug Hevey's winner.

Islanders lost a chance to clinch second place behind Beavers, who cannot be overtaken in first place, when Elliott, who aroused displeasure of the fans here Tuesday night, was booed for minutes before play started. In contrast with the previous game, no whistle blowing occurred tonight during the first eight minutes. Only two minor penalties were called in the first period and none in the second.

The rhubarb broke at 14:14 of the third after a slashing penalty to Saint John's Jack Meldrum. Fans who thought the punishment deserved littered the ice with peanuts, bottles and other ammunition while Elliott, arms folded, stood alone at centre ice. Then, as players milled around, Johnny Ubrico of Saint John received a 10-minute misconduct for showing Elliott. Coach Leo Lamoureux of Charlottetown went out to protest against broken glass on the ice. The game had to be delayed for sweeping work.

As play resumed, the Saints and several other Islanders became involved in a scuffle with fans. Lamoureux intervened and the incident ended with no apparently serious effects. Cha-lottetown's three first period goals were well earned. Bellringer scored on the game's first shot at Hal Gordon. The Islanders' second tally came after they caught Beavers up the ice. Three men bored in on Gordon, protected only by defenceman Lee, and Marshall shot an easy marker.

Late in the period Trainor took the puck behind his own net and scored the link length. Despite an opponent on each arm, he scored from about 10 feet out. Langelle made good on a passout from Nicolle after Bellringer's goal.

Saint John's second tally—the only one in the second period—resulted from the same combination. Langelle batted in Nicolle's cross shot. Late in the final session, after goalie Ray Frederick was yanked in an Island attempt to knot the count, Beavers missed two scoring chances.

Both teams set a hot pace throughout, although it was their really hot game with each other in as many nights. Frederick gave an able performance, especially in the second period when he stopped 18 against four by Gordon. The speedy Langelle starred for Saint John.

Charlottetown: Goal, Frederick; defence, Travis, Dutchak, Vitale, McLagan; forwards, Gray, Trainor, Favero, Smith, Marshall, Bellringer, Whitlock, Bonhomme, MacKenzie.

Queen Square Defeats Prince Street 2-1

Queen Square School came from behind in the final period last night to eke out a 2-1 win over Prince Street in the City Inter-Scholastic League.

Davey of Queen Square fired the tying goal assisted by Carroll and George MacGuigan. T. Shepherd scored the winner on a play with Hughes. Dave MacLeod opened the scoring in the first period after taking a pass from Whitehead to account for the only P.S.S. goal.

The game was clearly played with only two penalties being handed out both in the second period. Lineups: Q.S.S.—Goal, R. Rossiter; defence, G. MacGuigan, F. Smith, J. Farley, G. MacDonalid. MacLeod; forwards, C. Carroll, P. Davey, B. MacGuigan, D. Sheehan, E. Praught, R. Hughes, T. Shepherd, J. MacDonalid.

P.S.S.—Goal, Somers; defence, Miller, Biggar, Watson, Williams, Alsworth, MacLaren; forwards, Whitehead, MacLeod, Don MacLeod, Jones, Cudmore, Tanton, MacKay, Ross, Allan.

Summary: First Period—1—P.S.S.—Dave MacLeod (Whitehead). Penalties—None. Second Period—Scoring—None. Penalties—B. MacGuigan and R. Whitehead. Third Period—2—Q.S.S.—Davey (Carroll, G. MacGuigan). 3—Q.S.S.—T. Shepherd (Hughes). Penalties—None.

Richard Will Play Tonight

MONTREAL, March 14 (CP)—Maurice (Rocket) Richard of the National Hockey League Canadiens, out of action with a groin injury since Feb. 4, will return to the line-up for the game against Boston Bruins here tomorrow night, coach Dick Irvin announced tonight.

Richard worked out for 45 minutes with his team mates today. "It's the best I've felt in a long time," he said. "There's still a little pain but I feel much better."

HUNTERS' CORNER

The absence of snowstorms for the past ten days, or better, has given our hard pressed wildlife a much needed breather. Up until the severe blizzard on Thursday morning, February 28th, the Hun coveys were standing up well considering the hardship they had been through. Up until that date coveys observed appeared vigorous and full fleshed and reports received from interested observers bore out this observation. However, this Thursday storm was followed up by the dadday of them all on Sunday morning which took several days to blow itself out. At times of writing, due to lack of information, the present status of the partridge will not be commented on.

The Prince County Branch Game Association have reported that weather conditions, foxes and owls have taken their toll but the birds remaining are hardy. When a period of severe winter weather sets in and continues for a protracted period its the old and weak members of a covey go first. They also purchased a half ton of wheat and barley. This has been mixed with shore sand and distributed within a 10 mile radius of Summerside. The Secretary reported that he and several other Association members watched a farmer put out some of their feed on a bare patch of ploughed land approximately 40 yards from his house. In less than an hour seven pheasants (4 cocks and 3 hens) and a covey of 12 Huns were busy filling their crops.

It is the consensus of opinion among game observers that if this winter's snowfall had fallen on the level and became crusty over the mortality among our upland game birds would have been heavy. As it was the storms were accompanied by winds of gale force and some sections of ground were left bare. The bulk of the snow lies in the woods and on sheltered sections of our highways. The pheasants are able to withstand a period of deep snow better than the Huns. If needs be they can subsist on a diet of buds for a lengthy period and can get by with a minimum of grit. Huns definitely require more grit then do pheasants and depend chiefly upon a diet of grains, weed seeds and grass to carry them through the winter.

The Huns visit grain stacks and manure piles regularly if grain is available and will hole up for weeks around a boggy section where a series of springs keeps the snow steamed away. About 15 years ago, during a mid winter period of deep snow, I was puzzled over the behaviour of a covey of 18 Huns that continually frequented a dense alder swamp. They were in splendid condition and I wondered at their source of food supply. In late February I picked up a member of this covey that had killed itself by striking a telephone wire on the Murray Harbour line and the mystery was solved... its crop was filled to the bursting point with green grass. Later on I located their feed station.

Pheasants love grain but will seek a substitute if their favourite

Sydney Moves Out Of Cellar With 6-3 Win; Lockhart Stops 50 Shots

SYDNEY, N.S., March 14—(CP) Sydney Millionaires exchanged cellar position with Moncton Hawks when they rapped the visitors 6-3 before 1,600 fans here tonight in a Maritime Major Hockey League game, their second victory over Moncton on consecutive nights.

The brilliance of Hawk goalkeeper Don Lockhart was the outstanding feature, drawing waves of applause from the crowd. He blocked 50 shots in all, 27 in the third alone a season record, better than the 23 he stopped against Glace Bay Miners two nights ago.

The win left Millionaires, staging a terrific comeback, only five points behind Miners, fourth place team, in playoff range. Millionaires got a 2-0 lead in the first period on a rebound goal by Joe Levandowski and Cliff Roach's blistering wing shot. Ronnie Rowe countered for Hawks on a high backhand off the post in the second but Roach re-established a two-goal advantage from point-blank range.

Laurie May's shot missed the Sydney nets but caromed off the back boards to the uncovered George Scholes at 11:29 to move Hawks back to within a goal but less than two minutes later Ron Matthews scored again for Sydney.

Sam Kennedy was credited with Hawks' third and final goal—Millionaires claiming he violated the crease. Frank Bathgate tipped Don McRae's shot at 3:12 of the third to end the scoring. Millionaires swarmed through until the end of the game but the steadfast Lockhart barred the way with a tremendous display of goal-tending.

Moncton—Goal, Lockhart; defence, Roach, Olsen, May, Wine-mester; forwards, Burman, Kennedy, Clements, Scholes, Rowe, Robinson, Fillion, Marshall. Sydney—Goal, Hicks; defence, Dinning, Levandowski, McRae, Matthews; forwards, Rohmer, Roach, Medynski, Brukow, Gallagher, Hildebrand, Bathgate, Robertson, MacIntyre.

Officials—Heffering, MacIntyre

Saints Defeat Trenton 10-7

HALIFAX, March 14—(CP)—Halifax Junior St. Mary's tonight captured their seventh consecutive Maritime Crown, defeating Trenton Scotias 10-7 in the second game of a best-of-three series. Saints took the opener 7-3 earlier this week.

The game was a wild, rough, free swinging contest with tempers coming to a head halfway through the third period. Halifax now meets the winner of the Ottawa district at Ottawa March 19 in the Memorial Cup Easter Quarter Final.

Trenton fought down to the wire, refusing to admit defeat. They matched a Halifax goal in the first

Bert Steele May Join Sydney

TRURO, N. S., March 14—(CP)—Lou Medynski, with Truro Bearcats of the A. P. C. Senior League this season, left today to join Sydney Millionaires of the Maritime Major Hockey circuit. Medynski was on the Sydney lineup tonight but did not figure in the scoring against Moncton Hawks. He played with Sydney in other years.

Bert Steele, another old timer with Truro, said he is also considering joining Mills. Coach Frank Grabowski intended to leave this morning to join Sydney but became ill and will remain here for a few days. Truro was eliminated in A. P. C. play.

St. F. X. Even Hockey Series

ANTIGONISH, N. S., March 14—(CP)—St. F. X. varsity threw New Glasgow Rangers 5-4 tonight, evening their best best-of-seven series for the Maritime Senior Hockey Crown at two games each. Bill Dixon scored the winning tally for Xaverians, breaking a 4-4 tie in the third period while play raced at a furious pace.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14—(AP)—An obviously slowed-up Sugar Ray Robinson, still possessed of his middleweight title after last night's hard fight with Carl (Bobo) Olson, looked forward today to two scheduled spring bouts—but not much more, thank you.

Robinson, although getting the unanimous nod after 15 rounds with the Honolulu challenger, missed often. And his blows lacked the old authority when he connected. period, were down one at the end of the second and came on in the opening minutes of the finale to take the lead.

Lorne Hennessey paced Saints with three goals, Jim Warner and Bill Bailey collecting doubles and Orin Carver, Dough McPhee and Donald Hopkins singling.
