IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ELIZABETH LANG

There passed peacefully away after a lengthy illness at her home North Tryon on February 22, Mrs. Elizabeth Lang, wife of the late Frank Lang in her 77th year.

Mrs. Lang was a faithful member of the North Tryon Presbyterian Church. A superintendent in the Sunday School for many years, also organist and choir director. A chartered member of the Ladies' Aid, and a faithful member in the W.M.S.

Her kindness and friendly disposition endeared her to many, her staunch support to the church, and every worthy cause in the community. She will be greatly missed.

Her funeral was held Feb. 24, from the North Tryon Presbyterian Church, and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Miss Mary A. MacKenzie, Deaconess, assisted by the Rev. Donald McKay of Summerdale, and Rev. Ernest Barras of the Baptist Church, Tryon. The choir was composed of members of the different churches and under the direction of Mrs. Clayton Thomas, and Dr. Peter MacDonald. Two numbers, favorites of the deceased, were rendered beautifully: "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown," by the choir, and a solo by Mr. Clayton Morrison, "I shall know Him."

Funeral services were held at St. Ann's Church, Hope River, on Dec. 18, where Requiem High Mass was sung by the Pastor, Rev. E. Dalton. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. C. Pitre.

St. Columba And Vicinity

St. Columba And Vicinity

Miss Margaret Jarvis, who has spent the past months in Rothesay, N. B. has returned to the home of her parents at St. Columba.

Mr. John S. Jarvis and son Bernard were week-end visitors to Charlotte-town, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis Campbell.

Mr. D. L. Cheverie was a recent visitor to East Baltic, guest of Mr. J. A. MacPhee.

A card party was held on Feb. 24, at the home of Mr. John MacPhee. The usual players were present and a good sum was realized. A special prize was won by Mr. Paul Fisher.

On March 1, the last card party of the season was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caren. A special prize was won by Mr. Francis Murphy, and all went home feeling they had spent an enjoyable evening. Much credit is due this group who cooperated so well and made the parties a real success.

Mr. Leroy Miller motored to Charlottetown the week-end of February 26.

Mr. John R. Gallant who has been cutting pulp with Leroy Miller, is now at his home in Charlottetown.

Mr. Robert Whalen, Halifax, is now spending some time with his uncle, Henry in East Baltic.

The heavy sleet of last week played havoc with the trees especially the younger ones. They were so heavily laden that they broke in many places. The telephone wires too were on the ground in a good many places. On March 4, a group from Island Telephone Co. passed through, picking up lines and fastening them to the poles again. That particular sleet storm was the worst in the recollection of most people.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my Mother, MRS. ARTHUR HARPER who died March 7th, 1930. Years go by, but memories stay As near and dear as yesterday. Always Remembered Harold and Doris

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of MRS. THOMAS E. BURDETT, who departed this life March 7th, 1933. Death only comes to let us know We love more deeply than we know. Be love in death should let us see What love in life should always be. We are lonesome here without you, Mother We miss you more each day Somehow life does not seem the same Since Death called you away. Our hearts still ache with sadness Our eyes shed many a tear God knows how we miss you, Mother As it ends one and lonely year. Lovingly Remembered and Sadly Missed by Husband and Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. Daniel Mooney, of Souris, who died March 6th, 1933. Dearest Mother we are thinking Of one year ago today When God's Angel came to call you Though we wanted you to stay. Gone we know, yet precious memories Fill our hearts as day by day The echo of your voice still lingering. Guides us still, though far away. Inserted by the Family.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. Annie Warren, who passed away March 4th, 1929. Gone from us but leaving memories Death can never take away Memories that will always linger While upon this earth we stay. The years will pass dear Mother, But still on memories page The loving thought you left behind Will never, never fade. Lovingly Remembered by her Family.
