THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 3, 1878.

A YEAR and a half have rolled away; and the DAILY EXAMINER still lives.

Indeed it may now be truly said that the DAILY EXAMINER is one of the "institutions" of the Province.

An appetite for a daily paper has been formed; and, judging by the increasing sales of the DAILY EXAMINER in the city, along the line of railway, and in the various towns throughout the Province, it is doubtful if the people could live without their daily paper.

Hard though the times and dark the prospect of the coming winter, it is our intention to continue the publication of the DAILY EXAMINER, so that the popular demand may be supplied.

Throughout the winter we intend to supply to the public, by means of the DAILY EXAMINER, a daily telegram containing news of all the notable events which shall transpire throughout the world in this great crisis of its history.

Through the DAILY EXAMINER the people of the Island shall—from day to day—and, independently of the Northern Light or Muttart and Irving—be informed of what is transpiring in Afghanistan, in Russia, in Germany, in the neighboring Republic, and most important of all—in the mother country.

We shall, if possible, send a special correspondent to report for the DAILY EXAMINER the Parliamentary proceedings at Ottawa, with special reference to those which most directly and most deeply interest the people of this Island.

The local news shall be given through the DAILY EXAMINER promptly, truly and as full as possible.

For the large means required to carry out this work we look to the people whose wants the DAILY EXAMINER will supply, and whose varied interests we shall assiduously endeavor to promote.

The original subscribers of the DAILY EXAMINER will, in the course of a few days, be called upon for a renewal of their favors.

The beginning of another term is a good time to subscribe; and persons who have not hitherto taken the DAILY EXAMINER would do well to subscribe now.

In connection with the DAILY EXAMINER the WEEKLY EXAMINER will be issued, at the unprecedentedly low subscription price of ONE DOLLAR a year—payment to be made in advance.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.

A London special says the result of Schouvaloff's interview with the Marquis of Salisbury is reported as follows:—"The Marquis stated explicitly to the Russian Ambassador that Great Britain would not permit, on any account, the slightest infringement of or deviation from the Berlin Treaty, nor any prolongation of time of the Russian occupation of Bulgaria. For any intermediary interference in the Afghanistan affairs, he further expresses his surprise that so able a statesman as Schouvaloff should be engaged in such a useless endeavor. Schouvaloff, seeing his mission has entirely failed, will probably leave London at an early day."

LAHORE, Nov. 30.

A signalling party, under Major Pearson, were attacked by the Afreedies, one of the hill tribes, opposite the Khyber Pass, and two men of Pearson's troop-of-horse were killed and one wounded. The Khyber Pass is blocked, and several convoys have returned. A company of the Ninth Regt. and Forty-fifth Sikhs have been sent to the scene of action, whence firing has been heard, but the result is unknown. Continued heavy firing has also been heard near Ali Musjid since yesterday. The trouble with Afreedies is not serious, as only one tribe is hostile.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

Schouvaloff's mission is creating uneasiness merely because nobody seems to know what is going on.

PESHAWAR, Friday Evening, }
via London, Nov. 30. }

Gen. Brown's communication is temporarily cut. The hostile highlanders, estimated at 4,000 in number, are collected in the hills below Ali Musjid. They cut off stragglers and fire on armed parties. The section of the Pass between Jumrood and Ali Musjid has been closed altogether for the present. A strongly escorted convoy failed to force its way to-day. The situation is serious and strong measures are inevitable.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

The London correspondent of the "Journal des Debates" contradicts the statement that England has demanded from Russia explanations concerning General Kaufman's speech on the occasion of his delivery of sword from the Czar to Mirdsha Mohamed.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

A dispatch to the Observer from Vienna says General Kauffmann has been recalled to St. Petersburg.

The Observer's dispatch from Lahore dated Saturday, says Major Canagnari officially reports that all is quiet in the upper part of Khyber Pass, and he hopes to soon disperse the band collected in the lower parts. Many members of the band have already left.

A Reuter's telegram from Lahore reports that another strongly escorted convoy has been attacked. Its assailants were, however, driven back, and it is believed the convoy has arrived at Ali Musjid.

It was reported that the Ameer had considerably reinforced troops at Jellalabad. The Viceroy, however, telegraphs the report that treasure and ammunition have been withdrawn from that city.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 1.

Prince Lebanoff has reassured Safvet Pasha concerning the execution of the Treaty of Berlin by Russia, and stated he had arranged with Gen. Todleben in regard to the settlement of pending difficulties. He particularly referred to the restoration of Mussulman refugees to their homes.

PESTH, Dec. 1.

In Budget Committee of the Austrian delegation, Count Andrássy in reply to question, said, "The occupation of Bordia and Herzegovina would cease when its object was accomplished, and when Turkey had reimbursed the outlay which was incurred, and guaranteed future orderly Government of the Provinces. Austria's mission should only be altered by the unanimous decision of the powers. The Committee thereupon adopted the estimates of the Foreign Office, thus closing the conflict between the Government and the delegation."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 1.

Prince Lebanoff has informed Safvet Pasha that the Russians will evacuate Bulgaria and Roumania conformable with the treaty of Berlin, but she will continue to hold Adrianople and Thrace, pending the Porte's acceptance of the definitive Treaty.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

The Standard's despatch from Thull says:—"The Afghans have got their guns upon Peiver Pass, and have established a battery on the summit. The Afghan troops swarm on the ridges. Three regiments failed to turn the enemy's position Saturday, and retired on discovering their strength. One man was killed and twelve were wounded. The withdrawal of the battery and camp of the remainder of the force was rendered necessary by the accuracy of the Afghan artillery fire. The British will attack the Pass on Monday, after the troops have a day's rest. They are confident of a good result, although the Pass is 7,000 feet high. The fighting will certainly be severe."

A despatch from Suphar says:—"News from the Quetta column is discouraging in consequence of the loss of camels. It is universally believed that the advance on Candihar will be delayed until spring."

A despatch to the "Daily News" from Peshawar, Saturday night, says:—"General Appleyard, who was sent to clear Keyber Pass has been heavily engaged. Reinforcements have been sent from Jamrood. It seems positively necessary to order up a reserve division to maintain communication as Peshawar is almost denied of garrison."

LONDON, Nov. 30.

The shot has been extracted from Gye's side, and he feels much relieved.

The Hatterly Iron Company have refused an offer of 900 workmen to resume work at a reduction of 5 per cent. on their wages, and is resolved to make a reduction at 10 per cent. The distress among the workmen is keen, and extensive discharges in that neighborhood are impending.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent says:—"It is stated that the forthcoming session of Parliament will be dissolved and a general election held in January next."

MADRID, Nov. 30.

A despatch contradicts the statement of the Journal des Debates concerning Alfonso's intent to ask the hand of the Princess Christine in marriage.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

A Vienna despatch says that the Opposition to the Government in the Budget Committee are being more personal and obstructive. The conduct of the Opposition leaders is alienating even their own supporters. It is thought that the affair will make a reconstruction of both the Austrian and Hungarian Cabinets immediately necessary, as the Opposition are probably willing to grant supplies to a definitive Cabinet.

PARIS, Nov. 30.

The Journal des Debates states that Alfonso, King of Spain, has determined to ask the hand of Princess Christina, sister of the late Queen Mercedes, in marriage. The statement requires confirmation.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 30.

The marriage of the Princess Thyra of Denmark, with the Duke of Cumberland, will be solemnized on the 21st or 22nd December.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

A Belgrade despatch says that the Bohemian Slaves are enquiring upon what conditions they would be allowed to settle in New Serbia, instead of immigrating to the United States. It is believed that the Serbian Government will offer all possible facilities.

MADRID, Dec. 1.

The Council of Ministers have decided to expel all foreigners belonging to the International Society from Spain.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

At a meeting of operatives in Oldham, on Saturday, over 3,000 were present. It was unanimously resolved not to submit to a reduction.

At a meeting of the masters on Friday it was equally determined. There are now 15,000 persons idle.

Local and Other Items.

HALIFAX claims to have one of the most efficient police forces in America. How about Charlottetown?

It is understood that twelve extra officials of the Post Office Department at Ottawa will be dismissed this week.

The revenue of the Dominion for October, from all sources, was $2,041,124.83, and the expenditure $1,525,288.65.

The survey of the Cape Tormentine Railway was commenced on Wednesday last. This latest attempt to find a route makes Amherst the objective point.

AMONGST the victims of the pocket-picking fraternity at Halifax last week, says the Moncton Times, was our genial friend Mappin from Derby, Miramichi. For the moment Mappin was napping he contributed $73 to the support of the pocket-picking brotherhood.

R. B. CURRY, a well-known and respected shipbuilder, of West Dublin, LaHave, Nova Scotia, fell over Smith's Wharf, Halifax, on Friday night, and was drowned. Mrs. Elizabeth Collins, of Halifax, was mysteriously drowned in the Charles River, Boston, on Saturday last.

The monthly police inspection took place in the Council Chamber, before the Stipendiary Magistrate, on Monday morning. The officers were well lectured by His Honor, who laid down a long programme of their next month's work, which, if carried out to a full extent, will result in a handsome revenue to the city on the one hand, and a large addition to the criminal list of Queen's County Jail on the other.

At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court, on Monday, Donald McKinnon (farmer), drunk and incapable, was fined $2 and costs, or 8 days; Francis Began, drunk and disorderly, was fined $4 and costs, or 20 days; Francis McKenna, drunk and incapable, was fined $2 and costs, or 8 days; Augustus Coombs, for selling liquor without license, was fined $32 and costs. The assault case of Susan Connolly vs. Michael McCarthy was adjourned for witnesses until to-day.

The first conviction under the new License By-law was made yesterday morning, when Augustus Coombs was, under it, fined $32 for selling liquor without license on Upper Queen Street. It seems that the by-law regulating the sale of liquors did not come into effect till the present time, owing to its not having been duly published. But now since it is really law, the authorities are taking steps to have its provisions carried out to the fullest extent. Beware!

At the regular annual meeting of the Caledonia Club, held on St. Andrew's Night, the following gentlemen were installed office-bearers for the ensuing year:—
