

Hymeneal.

Under the usual heading this morning will be found the announcement of the nuptials of a well known Halifax young man and one of Amherst's fair daughters. The ceremony took place in St. Bridget's church, at Acadia Mines, Londonderry, on the 8th inst., and was witnessed by a large number of the friends of the contracting parties. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Wm Hamilton, brother of the bride, and Rev. Father Cummane and Donnelly. A nuptial mass was celebrated upon the occasion, and the church was beautifully decorated. After the ceremony had concluded, the wedding party, accompanied by a number of guests sat down to a sumptuous breakfast, after which the happy couple took their departure on the train for an extended wedding tour through Canada and the United States. They were accompanied to the station by a large concourse of friends, and the usual quantity of rice and number of slippers assailed the car wherein they were seated. The wedding presents received by the bride, were numerous and costly. The groom, Edward A. Walsh, is a son of a school commissioner Michael Walsh, of this city, and is well known and highly respected throughout the province for his well known business ability, integrity and sterling good qualities. He is manager of Messrs. T. & E. Kenney's establishment at the mines, agent of the Merchants' bank and postmaster, which multifarious duties are performed to the satisfaction of all concerned. The bride, Julia Hamilton, is the second daughter of William Hamilton proprietor of the Intercolonial restaurant at Amherst, and a highly esteemed young lady. The young couple have the best wishes of their numerous friends in Halifax for their future. —Halifax Herald.

Plain Words From A Friend.

"Americans speak to me," says Mr. James Redpath in his weekly paper, which is devoted to Irish interests, "about Irishmen and Irish politics as they do not speak to any man who is of Irish birth. I can see songs ahead from this position that others do not see; and unless all signs fail which did not fail thirty years ago, there will soon be an outburst of American feeling on the Irish question. Let it once be clearly proven that life and property in any part of the British Islands are destroyed by the plans of men living in this country, and their will be an outburst of indignation that will effectively teach them that, however much they may be allowed to frustrate the plans of the trusted leaders of their people at home, they shall not be permitted to utilize America as a fortress from which to wage a safe war against American interests abroad. There are many sad serious indications of the awakening of such a spirit, and the wild talk that was once laughed at by all parties, because it was believed to be mere bait to catch contributions or votes is arousing a sentiment of stern indignation, which will soon become a fierce storm if it is seen that the threateners are in earnest. It will not be the dynamites alone or chiefly who will suffer from such a revival of Know-Nothingism. It will be the Irish cause." —Chicago Tribune.

Clippings.

"You must love you work, and not be always looking over the edge of it, wanting your play to begin." —George Elliot.

Student (reciting): "And—er—then he—er—went—er—and—er—" The class laugh, Professor: "Don't laugh, gentlemen. To err is human."

"I see the path of moral responsibility before me, and shall by the blessing of God, adhere to the line of rectitude and duty." —Wm. Chambers in 1820—died May, 1883.

During the examination of a witness as to the locality of stairs in a house, the counsel asked him, "Which way do the stairs run?" The witness very innocently replied, "One way they run up stairs." The learned counsel winked both eyes, and then took a look at the ceiling.

A concentrated solution of bichromate of potash and glue makes an excellent cement for repairing articles of broken glass. After covering the fractured surfaces with the solution, they are brought together and exposed to the action of the sun. This cement resists boiling water. —Gaceta Industrial.

Enthusiastic professor of physics, discussing the organic and inorganic kingdoms: "Now, if I shut my eyes—so—and drop my head—so—and should not move, you would say I was a clod! But I move, I leap, I run; then what do you call me?" Voice from the rear: "A clodhopper!" Class is dismissed. —Vassar Miscellany.

A witty nobleman once asked a clerical gentleman at the bottom of the table why the goose, when there was one, was always placed next to the parson. "Really, my Lord," said the clergyman, "your question is somewhat difficult to answer, and so remarkably odd that I vow I shall never see a goose again without being reminded of your Lordship."

Fort McLeod N. W. T. Gazette:—A cow boy, who is riding the southern part of the cattle ranges in the interest of several owners, recently came across a large band of elk which had been enticed down from the mountains by fine weather. He gave chase and herded them along, cattle fashion, finally steering them down a neck of land around which the river curves. As the river was open in the middle, with thin ice on either shore, he did not think they would face the river, and leaving them there for a few minutes returned to the cabin. Armed with a rifle, and accompanied by a policeman, he returned to where he had left them. The two advanced to within about fifty yards of the game, but thinking they would not cross the river, attempted to get nearer. At this the whole band made a rush, jumped into the river, and got to the other side, when they quickly disappeared. The boys were rather disappointed at missing the opportunity of getting one of them.

A NEW TREATMENT

For Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Headache, Debility, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all Chronic and Nervous Disorders.

A CARD.

WE, the undersigned, having received great and permanent benefit from the use of 'COMPOUND OXYGEN,' prepared and administered by Drs. STARKEY & PALEN, of Philadelphia, and being satisfied that it is a new discovery in medical science, and all that is claimed for it, consider it a 'duty' which we owe to the many thousands who are suffering from chronic and so-called 'incurable' diseases to do all that we can to make its virtues known and to inspire the public with confidence.

We have personal knowledge of Drs. Starkey & Palen. They are educated, intelligent, and conscientious physicians who will not, we are sure, make any statement which they do not know or believe to be true, nor publish any testimonials or reports of cases which are not genuine.

WM. D. KELLEY, Member of Congress from Philadelphia. T. S. ARTHUR, Editor and Publisher of 'Arthur's Home Magazine,' Philadelphia. V. L. CONRAD, Editor of 'Lutheran Observer,' Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 1, 1872.

In order to meet a natural inquiry in regard to our professional and personal standing, and to give increased confidence in our statements and in the genuineness of our testimonials and reports of cases, we print the above card from gentlemen well and widely known and of the highest personal character.

Our 'Treatise on Compound Oxygen,' containing a history of the discovery of and mode of action of this remarkable curative agent, and a large record of surprising cures in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., and a wide range of chronic diseases, will be sent free.

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E. 54th St., New York, May 16, 1882. MESSRS. J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen: Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may be of benefit to others.

Yours respectfully, Z. P. WILDS."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; price $1, six bottles for $5.
