SAD DROWNING ACCIDENT.—The schooner "Nine Brothers," of Nfld., just arrived from a fishing trip to the Labrador, reports:—When finished loading, the master, Samuel Halfyard, and son, with two shoremen, were drowned by the capsizing of a boat off Strawberry Harbor.—Hx. Reporter.

FINE WHEAT.—We hear of some remarkably fine wheat fields about Sussex. A friend is informed that Col. THE American papers contain the following despatch from Halifax: "There is much excitement in Queen's County, Prince Edward Island, over a gold discovery fifteen miles from Milton.
