

POETRY.

BURNS AND BEECHER.

The Scotchman and the American... receives the following verses written sixteen years ago by an old Scotch lady Mrs. J. Webb...

I learn the task has fa' to you... To give the bard o' Ayre his due... He kept sweet charity in view...

Then dinn see me a' a' d'aw... But o'er his fan's a' mantle thrav... And leave the rest...

A century hence and what can tell... What may befall your cannie self... Somebody's p'acher...

I ha'e nae doubt ye'd like to ken... Wha's ta'k us o' the auld kull pen... To write this rhyme...

But when a lassie, young and fair... We wandered a' by bonnie Ayre... Ere Fate's stern mandate sent me forth...

Still Scotia's hills, and Scotia's plains... Her poets and her poet's strains... To me are dear...

A daisy-sprig within my heart... They claim a tear.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Is there any man in this town named Afternoon? Inquire of the postman...

What is the difference between a tube and a foolish Dutchman? One is a hollow cylinder, and the other is a silly Hollander.

It is time to stop talking about the softening influence of women. A Massachusetts man who has been sent to the penitentiary for stealing horses...

Hi! where did you get them trousers? asked an Irishman of a man who happened to be passing with a pair of remarkably short trousers on...

A case of sickening cruelty on the part of the sheriff of St. Antonio, Texas, toward a prisoner confined in jail...

David Crockett, after returning home from his first trip to New York, gave his backwoods audience his idea of the first gentleman in the metropolis...

An old fashioned couple who were waiting at the Central Depot recently to continue their journey westward...

The Leonard Scott Publishing Co., 31 Barclay Street, New York, have just published the Edinburgh Review...

1. Mill's Essays on Theism. 2. Lord Ellenborough's Indian Administration. 3. Lucio Piazzi and Las Vegas Tenants.

4. The Agricultural Laborers of England. 5. Memoirs of Archibald Constable. 6. The Progress of Law Reform in England.

7. The Heart of Africa and the Slave Trade. 8. Cox's History of Greece. 9. Theodore Martin's Life of the Prisoner.

The first article takes up Mr. Mill's last work, which was reviewed with great praise by a writer in the Westminster Review...

Those who know Leonardo da Vinci only as an artist will be surprised to find that he was equally, if not more eminent as a physiologist, engineer and mathematician...

There is a very interesting article on 'The Heart of Africa and the Slave Trade,' in which we have a short account of the two late expeditions under Dr. Schweinfurth and Sir Samuel Baker...

The periodicals published by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., (31 Barclay Street, N. Y.), are as follows: The London Quarterly, Edinburgh, Westminster and British Quarterly, and Blackwood's Magazine.

The London Quarterly Review (known abroad as the Quarterly) for January, has just been republished by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., 31 Barclay Street, New York.

The Western States, which retarded the steamers, have been the cause of the delay in its publication here.

The Quarterly Review, has been received with such universal favor, that we experience quite a new sensation on reading a really critical review of them.

It has been colder in Sweden this winter than in any other of the country. In Finland the thermometer marked sixty degrees below zero.

The son of the poets Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning, it is said, gives promises of becoming a line artist.

John Ruskin has devoted one-tenth of his substance, £7,000, to the purchase of a piece of land in England, to be inhabited and cultivated after a fashion in union with his own sentiments.

The information concerning the Manual of Moral Theology, The Life of Prince Consort, in another work which is receiving high praise from all quarters.

The difficulties Mr. Martin has had to encounter, and the happy manner in which he has succeeded in overcoming them, besides an interesting summary of the Prince's character.

The English Bar and Inns of Court, is a short account of the origin of the Inns of Court, which is a very interesting study of the law.

The Judicial Investigation of Truth, is a dissertation on the serious defects of English law, with suggestions for a new and improved system.

The Rev. Don Pasquale de Francisca, contains a brief account of the Italian Government, of the position of the Pontiff, and the circumstances that have called forth his discourses.

The number contains two more interesting essays, one on 'Fanny's life of Christ,' the other on 'Friendly Society.'

A WANT SUPPLIED.

The subjects of health and disease—how to preserve the one and prevent the other—are of paramount importance to every individual.

The American mind is active. It has given to the world the most valuable health-trusts, and the most valuable health-trusts, and the most valuable health-trusts, and the most valuable health-trusts...

The author has received some advance sample pages of a work devoted to this subject. It is entitled 'The People's English and Medical Dictionary, in Plain and Simple Language, and promises to be a book eminently adapted to the wants and tastes of the people.
