BOERS LEAVING THE TRANSVAAL.

The Journal and Advertiser has the following special despatch from Lorenzo Marquez: "Hundreds of Boers, with their families, are fleeing from the country of their birth to begin life again in some other country. Most of these have America as their ultimate destination. The refugees are not paupers in any sense. They are taking passage in French and German ships, and are willing to pay for the best accommodations. Special trains are engaged to meet the ships of Marseilles, which is their first stopping place in their search for new fortunes. Two German ships left Lorenzo Marquez last week, carrying 1,200 Boers. They were closely followed by two French ships with 950 souls from the Transvaal, mostly women and children. All of these belonged to the better class of Boers, and all were bound for Holland. They do not say where they will go afterward. 'We do not know,' they say of the matter, 'but we think we should be happier in America than elsewhere, and we may establish our homes there.'

According to La Presse of Paris, the French Government is being consulted on the subject of ex-President Kruger's landing at Marseilles and passing through Paris, en route to Holland. The probability of the Boer President's visit to France has, adds La Presse, aroused great opposition on the part of Delcasse.

"We all remember the enthusiastic welcome given the Boer delegates. What would it be if the old hero of Pretoria were to come in person, and present himself before the acclamation of the French nation? Every French peasant knows Oom Paul's face, and he is admired throughout the country as much as he is in the Netherlands; but the

A DAUGHTER OF WITCHES.

By Joanna E. Wood, author of "The Untempered Wind," and Other Stories. W. J. Gage & Co., (Limited), Toronto. Paper, 50c; Cloth, $1.00

Throughout these pages we have lively gossip and "clever dialogue by a rising Canadian author, who has already attracted a considerable circle of readers. After a very successful run in the Canadian Magazine, her story is now issued in book form, in Canada and England.

The scene lies in New England. Sidney Martin, from Boston, goes on a visit to the Lansing farm, where he finds two very charming maidens.

With her well developed physical beauty and strong personality, the queenly Vassini takes Sidney by storm, and at first sight, accepts his attentions and ultimate proposal to marry him; and she also influences him to enter on a course of training for the ministry. Accordingly this "Daughter of Witches" becomes Mrs. Sidney Martin. Sidney becomes minister of the village, and is greatly beloved by the people; but all the time his wife is slowly and steadily gaining hypnotic control over him. She hypnotizes him one Sunday—brings on the catastrophe of the tale and her own punishment.

This book places Miss Wood in the first rank of Canadian writers of fiction.

The following was published in the British brigade orders:

"Count von Walderssee assumed chief command of the troops in Chi Li Province, September 27, and expressed the following sentiments:

"Well-knowing that I am entrusted with a difficult task, I have, nevertheless, a firm conviction that I shall succeed quickly and surely with the help of these proved troops, in attaining the object placed before me, now that they are combined under a single leader."

THE EXODUS

Sir,—The exodus which Sir Louis and Sir Richard stopped was never so great as during the past year. Free Trade, Reciprocity, Prohibition, and "business business" Administration has kept the young people at home. Perhaps Sir Leo will now blame the terrible Tories who have been leading the government from behind for all this

OBSERVER.

—The St. John Sun reports that as soon as Mr Blair was nominated for the city and had announced his acceptance, the chairman of the Liberal-Conservative Association sent the following telegram to Hon. G. E. Foster, who was to have been one of the speakers at a meeting in Amherst:

To Hon. Geo. E. Foster, Amherst: Hon. Mr. Blair nominated by liberals tonight for city, and accepted. (Signed) J. R. ARMSTRONG, Chairman.

At ten o'clock Colonel Armstrong received this brief message from Mr Foster: "I will accept nomination."

—As the Moncton Times remarks: The statement of LeDuc's, a French Sunday paper in Montreal, that the Tories made an effort to buy up its political opinions, need surprise no one. One of the first acts of the New Liberals, after they reached power, was to purchase for thirty thousand dollars La Patrie newspaper and present it as a free gift to the sons of the Minister of Public Works to be run as the particular organ of the government in Montreal; and we may finally conclude that there are more like it. It may even be true that several of the newspapers now urging the people to re-elect Mr. Tarte and his followers (including Sir Louis) have been bought in some way. We have heard of two newspapers which rejected the corrupt offers with scorn. But we have not heard of those which accepted them.

"Go West,"

Ranch it and rough it and you'll soon get rid of that weak chest and that hacking cough." That is what the doctor said to a young married man with a wife and child to care for and a modest salary to support them on. He couldn't go West. Love and duty tied him to his desk in the city.

People don't have to travel to cure coughs or strengthen weak lungs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, weakness, emaciation and other forms of disease which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate fatally in consumption.

"I will write you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has done for me," says George H. Belcher, Esq., of Dorton, Pike County, Ky. "Thirteen years ago I was wounded by a ball passing through my lung. I have had a bad cough almost ever since, with shortness of breath, and it was very easy to take cold; the slightest change of weather would cause the cough to be so bad I would have to sit up in bed all night. Could not eat or sleep at times; was all run down; could not work at all. A few months ago I began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Have not used more than two bottles, and now can eat, sleep, and work, and I feel like a new man. I cannot find words to sufficiently recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or tell the good it has done me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. The book has 1008 pages. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Sir Louis Davies and the Secrecy of the Ballot.

This section of the Dominion Election Act was in the bill as it was introduced by the Government of which Sir Louis is a member; and the Patriot declares that it "practically destroys the secrecy of the ballot."

Quai d'Orsay does not wish to cause any trouble with England. The demonstration that would meet Kruger would have the effect of displeasing Chamberlain. If the decision rests with Delcasse alone, we may be sure that the hero of the South African war will be asked to go elsewhere."

The following is not a war story, but it is a good one: A lady in Dublin on getting up one morning, heard a most peculiar noise in the pantry. She was astonished to find that a snake had its head and part of its body through the handle of a chira jug. Both sides of the snake—that is the portion on each side of the handle—were bulging out. Then she discerned what had happened. Some eggs had been lying on the shelf, and the snake, after having swallowed one, had crawled partly through the handle of the jug—that is as far as the swallowed eggs would allow—in order to get at another which it had swallowed. Naturally enough it could not then go either forward or backward through the handle! The lady was just going to call her husband, when the reptile gave a desperate wriggle, and in doing so fell on the floor with a bang, handle and all. But the fall broke both the eggs in its inside, and, taking advantage of its release from the handle, it was out in the garden before you could say "Ware!"
