OBITUARY

Inserted by relatives and friends as a tribute to the deceased.

MRS. GEORGE CARVER

The death occurred at the home of her grandson in Charlottetown on January 12 of Mrs. George Carver, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Carver, who was in her 99th year, was one of eleven children born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gay all of whom have passed away except one brother James of Alexandra. She was united in marriage to George Carver of Pownal who predeceased her in 1937. They conducted a hotel known as the Forrester House, a grocery store for seventy years also the telephone exchange for a period of seventy-two years. During her illness she was ever cheerful and uncomplaining. She leaves to mourn her daughter Pearl, Mrs. John P. Hermann, who lovingly cared for her, also four grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and six great great grandchildren.

She had the rare privilege of having lived to be the head of a five generation family, and greatly enjoyed the visits of her six great great grandchildren.

Mrs. Carver took a keen interest in the community, acting as a good Samaritan in times of stress in the capacity of mid-wife and doctor. She was a living link between the present time and the old days when Pownal Village was in the hayday of prosperity and she retained in memory many incidents of that time up to the time of her death. One cherished companion which remained with her for the long period of fifty years was a bright plumaged parrot, who could converse fluently. The writer distinctly remembers him singing the National Anthem along with his mistress. Aunt Venie as she was generally known among her friends was a king neighbor, helpful and understanding, a friend to all. She has passed along, but a fond memory will ever remain in the minds and hearts of her many friends and relatives for the grand old lady of Pownal.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. T. R. Goudge in Pownal Church and was largely attended. The flower bearers were Robert Brown, Edgar Judson, Alfred Weatherbie, Reaney Gay. Pallbearers were her three grandsons, 1 great grandson and two nephews, Roy Hermann, Louis Hermann, John Hermann, Gordon Hermann, George Lawton, Wilfred Lawton. Interment was in the Church Cemetery.
