It's In Full Swing

THE big week is already with us and weather conditions proved great for the getaway. Promoters are keeping their fingers crossed hoping that the week can go through without interruptions.

A great crowd witnessed a terrific harness racing card last night and folks are guaranteed the same kind of entertainment right through until Saturday night. There are loads of outstanding racers and trotters ready to give racing fans the Old Home Week treatment.

THE two-programs-a day are on tap the rest of the week and race officials and pari-mutuel workers will have no dull moments until the final winner is announced Saturday night. Mind you, they're not growling about being kept on the hop. That's exactly what they expect and want for the week of the big fair.

One of the big highlights took place last night with the running of The Evening Patriot $2500 Invitational. The next and greatest moment of the entire show comes Friday with the staging of the Gold Cup and Saucer classic.

But there'll be plenty of great racing before that big moment comes. Race secretary and classifier Frank Acorn is going a mile a minute lining up programs that will provide this holiday crowd with the maximum in thrills.

Some Great Pays

THOSE slow class horses surely provided race fans with some fine racing and top notch pays on Saturday last. Seven of the eight winners grabbed new race tabs for themselves and folks lucky enough to hold tickets on the winners were well rewarded. There were numerous pays in the double figures bracket as outsiders kept romping home with a real regularity. They were tough to pick all night long and by the final dash many of the regular pari-mutul costoners were scratching their heads in bewilderment.

Perhaps they'll be easier this week of the big fair.
But we doubt it very much.

Mays, Cepeda Lead Power-Packed Club

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda, a couple of sleeping giants in a power - packed San Francisco line - up, have emerged from their deep slumber with consistent batting performances in their last 13 games.

Mays is on a 13-game hitting streak during which he's collected 23 hits in 58 times at bat, a .397 pace, and lifted his average 17 points to .291. Cepeda has hit safely in 11 of his 13 games with 22 safeties in 53 tries, a .415 pace.

The surge has enabled Cepeda to hike his average 17 points to .300. The comeback of the two sluggers has also helped San Francisco climb to within 2½ games of Los Angeles Dodgers, the National League leaders.

Cepeda is in ninth place in the circuit's batting competition. However, he is one of only 14 players with a .300 or better average among those who have compiled a minimum of 275 official times at bat.

Dick Groat of St. Louis continues to lead the National League with .343 followed by Pittsburgh's Roberto Clemente, .333. Each dropped one point in last week's games. Groat with eight hits in 24 attempts and Clemente with a 9-for-28 showing.

DAVIS THIRD

Tommy Davis remained in third place despite an eight-point loss to .319. He is followed by Vada Pinson of Cincinnati, .318, Tony Gonzalez of Philadelphia .317, Hank Aaron, Milwaukee .316, Billy Williams, Chicago .306 and Bill White, St. Louis .305. Pinson enjoyed a productive week, moving up two places on a five-point gain with 12 hits in 31 tries.

Only five American Leaguers are in the .300 batting class. They are Carl Yastrzemski, Boston .332, Al Kaline of Detroit and Rich Rollins, Minnesota, .315, Albie Pearson, Los Angeles .302, and Frank Malzone, Boston, .300. Yastrzemski climbed one point in last week's games with seven safeties in 20 at bats.

Dick Stuart of Boston slammed five home runs to take over the American League lead with 28 and moved into first place in runs batted in with 78. He had eight RBI last week.

Willie McCovey, another San Francisco slugger, continues to set the National League home run pace with 33 while Milwaukee's Aaron is the RBI leader with 96. The figures include Sunday's games.

Bob Brook Finishes First In Evening Patriot Race

Bob Brook won the Evening Patriot Invitational Pace for a purse of $2,500 at the Charlottetown Driving Park last evening.

The brown horse, owned by Donald R. MacKenzie of Glace Bay, N.S. and driven by Walter Craig finished second in the first dash but came on strong in the final heat to nip June Byrd at the wire in 2.05.2.

WINS FIRST DASH

Willie's Adios, driven by Dave Pinkey and owned by Eric and Harry Webby of Dartmouth, N.S., pulled a big surprise by capturing the first dash of the big race in 2.06.2. Bob Brook finished a hang up second with June Byrd coming under the wire in third place. Hi Jay finished fourth with Dominion Byrd fifth and Edgewood Scott bringing up the rear.

The second dash saw Edgewood Scott move into the lead right from the start and fight off all comers until the seventh-eighth pole when Bob Brook and June Byrd overtook the John Ferguson owned trotter. Both June Byrd and Bob Brook battled it out right down the stretch with Bob Brook pulling ahead at the wire. Edgewood Scott held on for a third place finish with Willie's Adios crossing under the wire in fourth position. Hi Jay finished fifth with Dominion Byrd close behind.

After the race Bill Ledwell, City Editor of The Evening Patriot presented the Evening Patriot Invitational Pace cooler to Bob Brook who won the honors with the best summary of the race.

In the other races, Landy, owned by F.L. Breau of Moncton and driven by Ruffin Barrieau captured twin victories in races one and five while Mary Leah won both ends of the $550.00 Division. Miss JoJo and Mr. Mc-Elewyn Key split the $400.00 Division honors with the Key horse getting a new record of 2.15-3 in the sixth dash.

The first double of the night, Landy and Miss JoJo returned bettors $4.60. The second double was a little better with Mary Leah and Bob Brook paying $7.60. The quinella and the exacta provided the best pays of the evening with Mary Leah and Cyclone Kelly returning $20.80 for the quinella and Mr. Mc-Elewyn Key and Miss JoJo returning $26.40 in the exactor.

Great Race Cards Are Going Today

Two bangup harness racing cards are on tap for Charlottetown Driving Park patrons today.

Eight sizzling dashes go in both afternoon and evening programs and every one of the eight dashes is chalked full of excitement.

This afternoon the free-for-all trot has five of the best high steppers in the Maritimes. They are Lady Lakeburn, Stormy Son, Avalon Worthy, Merry Note and Poplar Flash. There's a good chance that the trotting record of 2.07:1, held jointly by Fadoran and Poplar Flash will topple today when these five bearcats get down to work.

Tonight a junior free-for-all is the highlight with seven speedsters getting the word. Dave Pinkney has the rail with his Bob Lee Boy. Other hopefuls in this feature are Blue Sky Lark, Amos Frost, Killarney Boy, Sym's Best, Don Sier and Lord Dazzell. These dashes should provide some of the fastest racing of the entire week.

This afternoon's card goes at 2:30 and tonight's program commences at 8:30.

Alta. Leading Golf Team Play

By W. R. WHEATLEY

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP) — Alberta's four-man team came from behind with the most consistent golf Monday to take a two-stroke lead over British Columbia at the halfway mark of the inter-provincial team championships despite a brilliant two under par 69 by Bert Ticehurst of Vancouver.

Ticehurst walloped the dampened Riverside Club course with a four-under - par 32 on the front nine and became the pacesetter in the qualifying round for the Canadian amateur title.

The second round today will decide not only the team title and ownership of the Willingdon Cup but will trim the field of nearly 130 to the 64 low scores who will start match play Wednesday toward the amateur crown.

Led by Doug Silverberg of Calgary, who shot a classy 70, the Alberta team overcame a five-stroke deficit at the nine-hole mark to post an aggregate medal score of 291.

B.C. TOOK EARLY LEAD

British Columbia, leader after nine holes on Ticehurst's 32, finished the round in second spot with 292. Manitoba, led by Harry Critchley's 72, was next with 296. The defending Ontario team, helped by veteran Nick Weslock's 72, was fourth with 298.

In order then came the New Brunswick - Prince Edward Island combination with 308, Quebec 312, Saskatchewan 315 and Nova Scotia 316.

The American threat for the amateur title was real. Tom Draper, 49-year-old golfer from 14th.

Closest to Silverburg on the Alberta team was Joe Ferguson with 72. Don Gardner of Vancouver was second - best Royel Oak, Mich., who was runner-up last year, and H. H. Haverstick. Jr., of Lancaster, Pa., a regular entrant in the Canadian Amateur, matched Silverberg's 70 to trail Ticehurst by only one stroke.

The Riverside club had two members in close pursuit. Eugene Mealey and Bill Bishop each with 71.

WEATHER VARIED

The field played through rain showers and brief intervals of fitful sunshine. The dampness did not seem to bother Ticehurst, who shot four birdies along the front nine and never strayed from par.

He became unsteady after the turn, with a tendency to hook his shots. He missed par at the 10th, 12th and 17th but picked up a birdie at the long man for British Columbia with 73.

For Manitoba, veteran Bill Pidlaski was one stroke away with 73, from Critchley's leading 72.

Harry Cowan of Kitchener, like Weslock a former Canadian champion, was out in par 36 but took 39 coming home for a 75, matched by newcomer Bob Ptashnik of Toronto.

Bishop's 71 was low for the NB.-P.E.I. team. Harry Boychuk of Montreal had a 77 to pace Quebec and Lawrence O'Hearn was low for Nova Scotia with 74.

Slow Hope paced to victory in the second and sixth races with times of 2:10 2-5 and 2:09 1-5.

Tommie B. Counsel had the fastest time of the night, clocking the mile in 2:08 2-5 in the third dash.

Other single winners were Polonaise, Colleen's Victory, Miss Maralac, Oil Capital and Real Jerry.

Pays were small.

Fanningbrook Wins Opener

Fanningbrook defeated Central Prince All-Stars 13.5 in the opening game of their best of three intermediate B rural semi-finals at Fanningbrook Sunday afternoon.

Art Coffin pitched brilliantly for the winners striking out 13 batters. Eric Arsenault started for the losers.

Central Prince used three relief pitchers in trying to control the Fanningbrook batters. Art Coffin was also the batting star for the winners hitting four doubles and a single in five appearances. Richard Mitchell was 2 for 2 for the winners, Gerry Morrison scored two runs in a losing cause for Central Prince. The next two games if necessary will be played on Central Prince's diamond. Plate umpire was Jimmy Allen.

Toronto Runner Wins In Oslo

OSLO, Norway (Reuters)— Bill Crothers of Toronto won the 800-metre race at an international track meet at Bislet Stadium here Monday night in one minute, 47.9 seconds.

British runners took the next two places. John Boulter was second in 1:48.4 and Derek Johnson third in 1:53.6.

Bruce Kidd of Toronto finished sixth in the 3,000-metre event in eight minutes, 11.4 seconds. The winner was Arne Hammarsland of Norway in 8:08.4, second was Joseph Tomas of Czechoslovakia in 8:09.0 and third was Pat Clohessy of Australia in the same time.

Crothers, 22-year-old druggist and a member of Toronto's East York Track Club, won the 1,000-metre event at Haesselholm, Sweden, last Thursday by a handy margin.

His time, however, was a slow 2:28.1 on the rain-soaked track.

Crothers and Kidd, a 20-year-old University of Toronto student and a member of the East York club, are on a European tour and tentatively plan to return to Britain later for races in Edinburgh and London.

FADED AT FINISH

Kidd, who is suffering from an ankle injury, was in second position with only 250 metres to go but he faded before the finish.

Prior to the European tour, the distance runner had been inactive for nearly two months because of a heel injury.

Injured Rookie Rejoins Giants

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — San Francisco Giants Monday reactivated slugging third-baseman Jim Ray Hart, who has made an amazing recovery from the broken left shoulder suffered in his first major league game July 7.

The Giants optioned Joe Amalfitano to Tacoma to make room for the slugging rookie, who was hitting .313 when called up from the Pacific Coast League farm team.

Hart flew in from San Francisco Saturday, worked out two days with the team and convinced manager Alvin Dark and trainer Frank Bowman he was sufficiently recovered to help the Giants in their pennant surge.

Third-baseman Jimmy Davenport will be shifted to second base, where he has played several times in recent weeks. This will fit Hart into an infield that already has been shaken up at shortstop by putting in Ernie Bowman as replacement for the light-hitting and recently injured Jose Pagan.

Dark Thunder, a trotter owned by Donald Rankin of North Sydney, N.S., and Dorothy T., a pacer owned by Ewen Campbell of New Waterford, won the first and second dashes to set the wheels in motion for the whopping return.

The quinella combination of Waychamp and Worth A Try paid $86.

Tiger's Manager Opponent Hunting

By KEN WHITING

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — The manager of world middleweight champion Dick Tiger searched the prize fight horizon Monday for new opponents for the man who crushed Gene Fullmer.

The Nigerian's victory over the No. 1 contender was so complete, it raised the question of where suitable opposition could be found. Tiger, unmarked and eager after his first world title fight here, asked his American manager, Jersey Jones: "Have you a fight for me tonight?"

Hungary's Lazlo Papp, who is already on record as saying he would not fight Tiger in Africa, and Joe Giardello of Philadelphia are possibilities in the middleweight division. The title-holder has shown so much power that lightheavyweight champ Willy Pastrano of Miami also is discussed.

"He could give Pastrano the fight of his life," said promoter Jack Solomons.

TOOK SEVEN ROUNDS

Tiger needed just seven rounds to pound ex-champ Fullmer into bloody submission Saturday night. He was never able to knock the rugged American down, but frequently had him on the ropes.

Fullmer's manager, Marv Jensen, wanted the contest stopped in the fifth round, but his 32-year-old boxer insisted on going on. Jensen finally overruled Fullmer at the end of the seventh round to give Tiger a technical knockout.

"I was willing to let the eighth round open after warning Fullmer that the first punch that hit him meant the end of the fight," said referee Jack Hart. Hart, the only official, under British rules, called the first round even and gave the rest to Tiger. The Associated Press

Musial To Quit

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A tearful Stan Musial said Monday he would retire from St. Louis Cardinals and professional baseball at the end of this season after 22 years in the majors.

The 42-year-old symbol of sportsmanship, slugging and St. Louis chose the annual Cardinal picnic to make his announcement to teammates, their families and a small group of sports writers.

He said only last week that when baseball quits being fun and becomes a drudgery, I'll retire."

Since he broke in as a rookie in 1941, Stan had become one of the best-loved players ever to compete in the National League.

Musial's familiar batting stance, his feet close together, his back arched, and his uniform No. 6 are known to millions who recognize him instantly.

Although his batting average has dipped and his speed slowed this year, he has accumulated so many major league and National League records in his more than two decades as a Cardinal that they take up almost a full page in the baseball register.

Last year he played in 135 games, batting .330. This season, playing fewer games, his batting average Monday was .280 but he stood fourth on the club with 44 runs batted in.
