

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 9, 1884.

The Republican Candidates.

Mr. BLAINE, the Republican candidate, is a journalist; and, therefore, we would like to see him win.

Mr. Blaine is fifty-four years of age, having been born in Washington County, Pennsylvania, January 31st, 1830.

Sir Richard's Liberalism.

A FEW weeks ago, in the course of a public address, Mr. Laurier said "a Liberal must be born a Liberal."

KINGSTON, Oct. 12, 1869.

"MY DEAR SIR JOHN, I notice, with great regret, that Sir F. Hincks has been gazetted. From the tenor of my former note on the subject you will probably not be surprised to learn that I fear that I cannot support that gentleman.

regulations are the opposite of what they are. The Dominion regulations in point of fact offer the legitimate miner better protection than those of the United States.

Patriotisms.

"We wonder if the writer knows the difference between nonentity and natural wood. If he gives to our satisfaction that he does, we will give him an inch in the temple of fame."

"Our Tory friends are continually trying to persuade the people of the Dominion that we need not seek for Reciprocity, as the American nation is firmly wedded to Protection."

Four Silslys in the Town.

The Chicago Sun contained, some months ago, an elaborate account and the working of "Town of Lake No. 1" fire engine, made by the Silsby Manufacturing Company of Seneca Falls, N. Y.

Last week another engine for the Englewood District, and now another for the Car Shops District—the two latter having the nickel-plate finish—have been delivered. The Englewood machine was tested successfully, and the Car Shops machine went through the same ordeal at Dexter Park, Wednesday afternoon, and proved that she was equal to all that was claimed for her.

It Don't Pay.

It don't pay to hang one citizen because another citizen sells him liquor.

It don't pay to have one citizen in the county jail because another citizen sold him liquor.

It don't pay to have fifty workmen rigged to have one saloon-keeper dressed in broadcloth, and flush of money.

It don't pay to have ten smart, active, intelligent boys transformed into thieves to enable one man to lead an easy life by selling them liquor.

It don't pay to have fifty workmen and their families live on bone soup and half ration, in order that one saloon-keeper may flourish on roast turkey and champagne.

It don't pay to have one thousand homes blasted, ruined, defiled and turned into a hell of discord and misery, in order that one wholesale liquor dealer may amass a large fortune.

It don't pay to give one man, for $15 a quarter, a license to sell liquor; and then spend $5,000 on a trial of another man for buying that liquor and committing murder under its influence.

Our Advertisers.

G. A. Sharp wants consignees to deliver goods from cars.

Wm. Dodd holds a sale of dressed lumber at Pownal wharf, to-morrow evening.

Landrigan & Strong are expecting a cargo of coal which will be sold cheap on arrival.

G. H. Haszard, Baldwin's old stand, is selling English and American stationery at a great discount.

Carvell Bros. have fifty puns. Barbadoes molasses on hand which they will dispose of cheap.

Returns received by the Department of Agriculture show that 9,114 cattle and 652 sheep were shipped from Montreal for Great Britain last month.

Names of Sailing Vessels.

The London Nautical Magazine says:—"The name borne by the largest number of vessels is Mary. There are over 200 sailing vessels and 5 steamers named Mary, over 100 Mary Anns, and about 700 vessels in which Mary is the first word of the name."

Literary Notes.

The July Manhattan will have a humorous short story, Plain Fishing, by Frank R. Stockton, the author of that amusing sketch, The Lady or the Tiger!

A biographical and critical paper will appear in the July Manhattan, on the Earl of Dufferin, written by J. L. Whittle, the Earl's intimate friend, and one of the staff of the Lord Chancellor of England.

J. Parker Norris, of Philadelphia, so well known as a Shakespearean scholar and collector, is not likely to be lacking in reverence for Shakespeare, and yet in discussing in the July Manhattan the question, Shall we open Shakespeare's Grave? he will not hesitate to argue in favor of opening it, in spite of the anathema carved on the tombstone.

In the July Manhattan, Frank Vincent, jun., whose travels in Burma and Siam make him an authority on the subject, will have a paper on White Elephants, maintaining that a white elephant had never been allowed to leave Asia.

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

VALUABLE MEDICINE. Dr. W. H. Parmelee, Toledo, O., says: "I have prescribed the 'acid' in a large variety of diseases, and have been amply satisfied that it is a valuable addition to our list of medicinal agents."
