WE understand that H. R. H. the Princess of Wales has been pleased to accept a copy of Professor Sheldon's work on "Dairy Farming," recently published by Messrs. Cassell, Petter, Galpin & Co. This will form a handsome addition to the ornaments which decorate the cosy boudoir used by the Princess when she visits the dairy at Sandringham.

BIG BAZAAR RECEIPTS AT NYLD.—At a bazaar held in St. John, Nfld., for the purpose of raising funds in aid of a school for the Christian Brothers, the extraordinary sum of $18,000 (eighteen thousand dollars) was realized. At one table alone, that presided over by the lady of Robert Kent, M. H. A., the magnificent amount of $5,000 (five thousand dollars) were realized.

THE weather in England during the past few weeks, seems to have been wonderfully mild and genial. In the South of England ripe white raspberries have been picked in the open air, and private letters from Warwickshire, in the centre of England, state that strawberries, gooseberries, and other small fruit trees, are in full bloom. In the neighborhood of Birmingham a black bird's nest with three eggs in it had been found. A great amount of sickness, however, prevails, which would seem to endorse the old saying—"A green Christmas makes a fat Kirk yard."

WE are pleased to state that the benefit concert to be given on the 2nd of January to Mr. Vinicombe, (teacher of Orchestra) promises to be a grand affair. When it is announced that such vocal talent as that of Miss Palmer, Miss DesBrisay, Mrs. Strickland, Miss Bonrke, Miss Rankin, Prof. Caven and Mr. Hermans, has already been secured, the public may know what to expect. Mr. Hermans who has taken no part in concerts of late, has been induced to appear on this occasion, but this will positively be his last appearance on the stage. The programme will be issued next week, and the concert bids fair to be the next of the season.

FRASER & REDDIN have just opened a large and superior assortment of Hair Brushes, Ivory Back Hand Mirrors, Combs, Perfumes, etc., suitable for Xmas Presents. d15

WAS IT AN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.—On Queen's Wharf, last evening, a watchman on one of the vessels perceived a woman walking to and fro. In her arms she carried a child snugly rapped up in a shawl. Her movements excited his suspicion, and in the darkness he drew near in order to detect her intentions. Once she walked to one side of the wharf and looked over, thence she crossed to the opposite side and examined the waters below. Again turning she walked to the head and leaned over it a few moments apparently contemplating suicide, or the drowning of her child. The watchman called to and then approached her. She did not speak but a few indistinct words. He, thinking she was unsafe alone, gave her in charge of the police. Her name is Davis. She came from Boston last summer, and has since been tramping through the country, depending on the charity of the people. Having no friends in the city, or no money, she could not get shelter or food, and she wandered to the wharf in a melancholy frame of mind, with, if we may judge, serious intentions. Her child—fifteen months old—was taken in charge by Mr. Merchant, watchman, and the Magistrate will endeavor to have her admitted to the Government Poor House.
