Open House At L. Bedeque School

A large number of the residents of Lower Bedeque gathered at the school on the evening of March 21st to hear the first of a series of public debates to be presented by the pupils under the direction of their teacher, Gordon D. MacKenzie.

The debate was originally scheduled for March 4th in coordination with Education Week but due to road conditions it was impossible to hold it at that time.

The subject for debate was "Resolved that country life is better than city life." Upholding the arguments of the 'pro' were Eric Jeffery, Ralph MacCallum, and Ronald Wright, while those supporting the 'con' were Harold Leard, Robert Montgomery and Alan Collett.

After each speaker had delivered his speech a variety program was presented as follows: Song: Red Wing—Velda Arsenault. Song: Green Sleeves—Anne Leard. Duet: Peter Cottontail—Ruby and Velda Arsenault. Song: Lobster Quadrille—Velda Arsenault. Boys' Quartet: Old Black Joe. Reading: Yesterday In Oxford Street—Kathryn Jeffery. Duet: There's A Lonely Little Robin—Shirley Arsenault and Anne Leard. Song: You Are My Sunshine—Shirley Arsenault. Duet: Home On The Range—Janet Waugh and Shirley Arsenault. Girls' Quartet: Clementine. Following the intermission, the leaders of the debating teams presented their rebuttal. The judges
