

S'ide Raceway Holds Spotlight

Summer's Raceway presents another attractive race program tonight.

Race secretary Glyn Williams has lined up a crowd-pleasing eight dash card that has the appearance of an interesting race.

Races one and five have eight starters, dashes two, three, six and seven go with seven and the feature class has an even half dozen hopefuls.

These six pacers should certainly provide great excitement for the patrons with Art Burbine taking Boomtown away on the rail. Art will have to have Boomtown in high gear all the way to beat out the other contenders, Edward M. Santiago, Calle Hal, Ellen Joyce and Progress Brand. Both of these dashes have action marked all over them.

That trot, dashes two and six, will have mutual bettors scratching their heads trying to pick a winner. Rio Grande will

Ball Practices Called Tonight

Two baseball practices have been called for this evening at 6 o'clock.

Forbie Kennedy's Flyers will hold a workout at Memorial Field and the Flyer boss is a full turnout.

Paul MacKinnon will put his Dodgers through a practice on the field across from Memorial Field and he also urges a full turnout.

probably leave as favorite but the Art Burbine driver trainer will need to be at peak form.

The other four dashes promise action in abundance as a full patronous surely will have their fill of excitement at the western oval tonight.

First dash goes promptly at 8 o'clock.

Fanning Brook Captures Contest

Fanningbrook edged Johnston's River 6-5 in a regular Southern Quebec Baseball League game at Johnston's River, Sunday.

J. P. Hendricks struck out 6 batters, walked 3 and allowed 9 hits in going the distance for the winners.

Bill MacFarlane hurled a fine game for the losers.

Sias Affleck played a standout game behind the plate for Fanningbrook.

R. Shea scored two runs for Johnston's River while E. Rogerson scored the winner for Fanningbrook.

Next Sunday Fanningbrook travels to Vernon River.

Rovers Down Comets 9-5

Rovers defeated Canadian Tire Comets 9-5 in Commercial Softball League action last evening at Queen Charlotte diamond.

Just Gary Grabs Honors In Feature Stake At CDP

Just Gary, a five-year-old brown gelding owned by F. B. MacLaine of Charlottetown, captured top honors in a feature 2:15 Stake at the Charlottetown Driving Park last night.

The stake was broken up into two divisions and the four top finishers in each division competed in a raceoff with the other finishers in each division taking part in another raceoff.

Just Gary, trained by Claude O'Brien, came first in his division with a mile of 2:15.4 and then captured the raceoff.

Just Gary, trained by Mike O'Brien, captured her division race, but finished in sixth place in the raceoff.

A four-year-old, Sunny King, owned by Ray Stewart of Murray Harbour, captured the second raceoff in fine fashion, taking a new mark of 2:14.1. He had finished sixth in his first outing.

The Henderson and Willis captured bay horse Ted Genesee owned by both ends of feature AA and A trot. He went around the oval in 2:13.4 in his first trip and his second mile was in 2:10.3, the fastest time of the night, shared jointly with Miss Cool Eyes, double dash winner in the AA and A pace.

Co-owner Jack Pound retired the Miss Cool Eyes mare to the actor $13.60.

2:10.3 mile in the first outing and the second dash was in 2:11.1. Homestretch Lady, from the Maple Stables of Summerside, was second both trips.

Lorraine's Watchim returned the biggest single pay of 1.8¢ night, paying lucky ticket holders $36.10 for a $2 win wager in the first dash of the night.

Deceiver paid $20.20 to place in the second race.

A place ticket on Lorraine's Watchim in the first dash returned $12, and a ticket on runner-up Captain Chief in the same race paid $14.40.

The biggest pay of the night was the first double on races 1, 2 and 3 which returned $81.40. The second double paid $12.30, the quintella $12.50 and the six-
