In Memoriam

ANDERSON—In loving memory of William Anderson, who passed away, May 26th, 1954.

In the grave just safely sleeping Close beside a country road Lies the one we loved so dearly Gone from us to his abode.

Lovingly remembered by Wife and Jackie.

WAITE—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Frank Waite, who passed away May 27, 1952. And while she lies in peaceful sleep Her memory we shall always keep. Ever remembered by husband, Frank and family.

WAITE—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Frank Waite, who passed away May 27, 1952. Looking back with memories Upon the path you trod We bless the years we had with you.

And leave the rest with God. Sadly missed by daughter Lilly, son Francis, and daughter-in-law Loretta.

SMITH—In loving memory of our dear husband and father Joseph A. Smith, who passed away May 27, 1952.

Today is the day of remembrance With many sad regrets. A day we shall always remember When the rest of the world forgets.

Lovingly remembered by wife and family.

Mrs. Joseph Smith.

CREED—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Mrs. Maurice Creed, who passed away, May 26th, 1955.

One year has passed since that sad day. When one we loved, was called away. The blow was great, the shock severe. We little thought her death so near.

Only those who lost can tell The sorrow of parting without farewell.

Ever remembered and sadly missed by Husband and family.

Mackenzie—In loving memory of the late Mackenzie of Summerside and Mount Stewart, whose tragic death occurred May 27, 1955.

Kindly remembered by Schurman's Staff Association.

FANNING—In loving memory of our father Solomon Fanning who departed this life May 27, 1951.

He is waiting by the river, Just across the silent stream, Where sweet flowers are ever blooming. And the banks are ever green. Ever remembered, Helen, Clarence, Cecelia and Charles.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank Dr. Pierce and Dr. Laidlaw, supervisor, nurses, and staff of the P. E. I. Hospital, also Reverend W. H. Brown, Reverend Mr. Evans, and all others who sent flowers and cards and visited me while I was a patient there.

S. B. French.

I wish to thank Dr. Laidlaw, and Dr. MacMillan, nurses and staff of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, for their kindness to me while I was a patient there; also a special "thank-you" to Mrs. Jennie Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. John Bulman, and all those who visited me, sent cards, letters, treats and other gifts. Thank you all sincerely.

LOIS MacNEILL, North Rustico, P.E.I.

Stowaway Is 27 Days Old

NEW YORK (AP)—The littlest "stowaway" ever to reach New York arrived Thursday aboard the liner Independence—Giuseppe Fabozzi, 27 days old.

Small as he is, he set off a full-sized uproar over the question of whether he really was or was not a stowaway.

Little Joe was born after his Italian parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saverio Fabozzi, received a visa to come to the United States.

They didn't know exactly what to do, so they just bundled him aboard ship without telling anybody. Ship's pursers, taking a nose count of passengers, soon spotted him.

Immigration people went into a long huddle on the stowaway question as soon as the ship docked. Finally they decided that a child born after its mother receives a visa may travel on hers.

That settles the ship people themselves had something to say: If Little Joe wasn't a stowaway, then he was a regular passenger. Passengers, even tiny babies, must pay.

Little Joe's dad happily dug down and forked over the necessary $10. Happily, though.

UPTON

Clarence McLennan and Layde McKinnon and Doug McMaster left recently for Ashland, Me., where they will be employed for the summer months.

William McLennan of Upton is spending some time in Southport, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Layde McCallum.

Cathlyn and Margaret Livingstone are visiting with their sister, Mrs. Neil Bass, Fortune.

Mrs. Neil Bass visited in Upton, Sunday, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Livingstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan McSwain were Sunday visitors in Cardigan guests of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Docherty, Cardigan.

Faye Taylor and Phyllis Clay of Montague spent the past weekend at the respective homes in Dun-
