Obituary.

On Friday morning, the 10th inst., the people of Souris were called to mourn the loss of an esteemed and respected citizen, Adolphus R. Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs.
James O. Morrow, who was summoned from time to eternity at the early age of nineteen years.

About a year ago he was stricken with that fell disease, consumption, and although that with medical aid, kindness and attention could do, was done, he gradually sunk, till death beckoned him away to his eternal home.

He bore his illness with fortitude and patience, and supported by that cheerfulness and vivacity for which he was noted, he stubbornly resisted the encroachments of the destroyer, yet calmly and submissively bowed to the "Will of Him who doeth all things well."

In his life, from his youth up, he exhibited all the qualities of a Christian—truthfulness, sobriety and integrity; and his manliness and intelligence attracted the attention of every person who was counted among the number of his acquaintances.

Generous and open hearted, frank, in-offensive and honourable, he endeared himself to all with whom he associated; and long will his name live in the memories of all who knew his honourable disposition and true worth.

As his end approached, it was evident that his thoughts were not of this world, but that his mind was occupied with the higher and nobler things of eternity, and the happy and glorious prospect of a home and rest beyond the grave. To his friends and relatives we tender our heartfelt sympathy; but more particularly would we remember his parents, whose hope and joy he was, in this, the hour of their sorrowful visitation; and pray that He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb may soothe their sorrows with the comforting assurance of a happy and glorious meeting beyond the tomb. His remains were conveyed to their last resting place, at South Lake Cemetery, on Monday, the 13th inst., and the concurrence of citizens who assembled to pay their last tribute of respect, bore sufficient testimony to the esteem in which he was held. He was buried with Oddfellows' honors, and as he was the first of his members buried in this section of the Island, the day will be long remembered.

When we consider the early age at which he was cut off, we are forcibly reminded of the Scriptural passage, "What is life? It is even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away."

Land League Meeting at Monaghan Road.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the residents of Monaghan Road and adjacent settlements was held in Monaghan Road School-house, on Wednesday evening, 1st March, instant, for the purpose of organizing a Branch of the Irish National Land League, Messrs P. D. Cox and Richard Walsh, of Charlottetown, two well known gentlemen in connection with the Land League movement, were present. Patrick Mooney, Esq., was elected to the chair, and the undersigned secretary. The necessary preliminary business having been gone through, the chairman made some very appropriate remarks in connection with the object of the meeting.

Mr. P. D. Cox was then called upon, and delivered a pathetic and convincing address. He dwelt at considerable length on the unjust and tyrannical manner in which the Irish people were deprived of their native soil by the detested Landlord system, and showed that the distressed condition of that country was mainly due to its blighting and baneful effects. He exhorted the large audience present to give their hearty support to this grand organization which is destined to hurl oppression from Ireland and place her high among the nations of the world.

Mr. Richard Walsh was then introduced, and gave an eloquent and stirring address.
He ably reviewed the history of Ireland and the Irish land agitation, and placed before the audience a vivid picture of the past condition and present situation of the Irish farmer. He also explained the practical use and efficacy of the Land League in stimulating and ennobling the Irish tenants in this their final ordeal. He concluded by offering some timely and valuable suggestions regarding the method of organization and general management.

Mr. James Davis was then called upon, and delivered a really excellent address on "Ireland and the Irish."

Mr. L. O. Kelly gave a complete and concise expression of his sympathy with the Land League.

The following officers were then elected: President—James Lynn.
1st Vice President—Alex. MacDonald, (cashier)

2nd d. do.—Lucius Owen Kelly.
Secretary—Michael Laverty.
Treasurers—James Wisner, Patrick Loughran.

Executive Committee—Patrick Mooney, Patrick Trainor, James J. Kelly, James J.
Trainor and Peter Heron.

The name chosen for the organization was "The Fort Augustus Branch of the Irish National Land League."

The following resolution, moved by Mr.
Patrick Trainor and seconded by Lucius O.
Kelly, was put to the meeting and unanimously carried:—

"Whereas, The people of Ireland are now in the midst of a crisis which demands the best minded and courage any people can be capable of,

Whereas, The British Government is now more than usually exerting its power in favor of the Land Monopolists and against the best interests of the Irish people; and

Whereas, The Tenant Farmers of this Island were for many years compelled to undergo the hardships and privations incident to Landlordism, and during those trying and dreary years sustained incessant agitation, which has happily resulted in a successful issue; Landlordism becoming a thing of the past.

Resolved, That this is a time, for every pat-rist, every friend of humanity, every lover of law enacted by the will of the people whom it is to govern, every true friend of liberty, of every nationality, to rally to the assistance of Ireland's struggling people.

Therefore Resolved, That we, "The Fort Augustus Branch of the Irish National Land League" tender our heartfelt sympathy to our oppressed and down-trodden brethren in Ireland, and we pledge our individual support to aid by all legal means and every assistance the people of Ireland, until the evils of Landlordism are abolished, and they secure to themselves their natural and political rights.

A list was then opened, and a large number of members enrolled.
A vote of thanks was then tendered Messrs. Cox and Walsh, to which they suitably responded.

A resolution was carried that a report of the proceedings be forwarded to THE EX-AMINER, New Era and King's County Advertiser.

The meeting then adjourned

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Sir,—It was with pleasure I went out to Mr. Nathaniel Gay's lay pressing establishment, and saw the way in which he had the loose material put into such a small space. I have seen many ways for packing hay; but this seems to me the most complete that I have ever seen, both for compactness and neatness of the bale.

This machine is run by a four horse railway p. w. attached to the press by a belt, and continually running, with the hay fed to the machine with a fork, something like a thrashing machine. The loose hay was going into the building, two and three loads at a time, then passed through the press, coming out in small neat bales.
Then Mr. Webb, who has the contract of storing, has teams hauling and storing down town, convenient for spring's shipping. It seemed quite evident to me, by the way everything was managed, that Mr.
Gay understands his business. Wishing him every success, I remain,

Yours, etc.,

A CITIZEN.

Ch'town, March 8, 1882.

New London Notes.

The bridge at Clifton is undergoing repairs.

The County Court rose yesterday. There were eighty cases tried at this sitting.

After the stormy weather of last month, March brought a more genial state of the atmosphere, and farmers are really making up for lost time, as will be seen by the scores of teams employed in hauling the rich fertilizer from the river beds.

The young men at Park Corner, in the early part of winter, organized themselves into a Society, having for its object mutual improvement and the moral elevation of its members. It continues to meet weekly, and the members seem to take a lively interest in the discussions.

Notwithstanding the stormy weather, during the greater part of the winter, New London had its share of lectures. Rev. T.
B. Reagh, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, has been delivering a series of lectures for the last few weeks. The "New London Literary and Debating Club" has lectures delivered under its auspices at regular intervals. His Honor Judge Alley delivered a lecture at Clifton some time ago—Subject: Old Times in New London. We understand that the learned Judge has consented to favor the Club at Park Corner with a literary banquet at an early date.

March 10th, 1882.

R. S. Scudder has been arrested in Furlington, Iowa for practising fraud through the mails. Scudder's suit circulars calling for money to be used in the defence of Guiteau. He claimed that Guiteau was but a tool in the hands of a political ring, and if money enough were forthcoming this fact could be proved and would lead to the downfall of the party in possession of the Government. The money received was appropriated by Scudder to his own use.

Indictments have been found against eight persons charged with having contributed by their negligence to the catastrophe at the King Theatre, in Vienna. The number of witnesses Thompson is 236. The trial will begin on the second of May, and will probably last three weeks. Among the accused are Dr. Newall, the ex-Burgomaster of Vienna, Herr Janer, the manager of the theatre; and Herr Land-steiner, the Chief Commissary of Police, who was on duty at the theatre on the night of the fire.

The Indian Budget for 1882-83 contains the views of the Anti Opium Society. The Government will not abandon the Bengal monopoly. The salt duty is to be reduced to two rupees per maund, except in British Burmah and in the trans-India district of Punjab.
The Budget says there is no reason why the benefit of free trade should be withheld from India. Therefore a import duties are aborhed except those on wine, beer, spirits, ammunition salt, and opium.

The Monoton refinery people appear to be doing all they can to promote trade with southern laitudes. They have already taken advantage of the new Brazilian line, and have made a large importation by the "Lancaster-ville," which reached Halifax Sunday night.
Before many years Monoton will be as well known for its trade with foreign countries as it now is for its manufacturing enterprise.—

"TWENTY-FOUR YEARS' EXPERIENCE," says an eminent physician, "convince me that the only way to cure nervous exhaustion, and weakness of the sexual organs is to pair the weakness by giving brain and nerve foods, and of all the remedies compounded, Mack's Magnetic Medicine is the best. Sold in Charlottetown by Apothecaries' Hall Co."
