

Ont. Minister Tells N. London Laymen Of Seaway Changes

KENSINGTON — Rev. Harry Hobbs of Long Sault, Ont., was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the New London Parish Laymen's Association held in St. Hall's church here.

Mr. Hobbs told of the $2.1 million changes caused by the St. Lawrence Seaway, when whole villages were moved. The speaker said that the church in his own parish was moved as well as the headstones and the contents of the graveyard. A new cemetery was made in the new location, and he stated that a minister was required to be at hand at all times while the change was being made.

The president, John Pillman, presided and opened the meeting with prayer. Elmer Payner, Everett Sudebury and John Bennett were appointed as the new sick room committee. The parish wardens, John Pillman and Everett Sudebury were appointed to attend a meeting sponsored by the Kensington Area Board of Trade, to study the possibility of locating a home for senior citizens in the town. They will report at the next laymen's meeting.

Mr. Pillman reported on a church service which he attended at Camp Medley, in the West. He reported that the service was very moving and that the people there were very happy.
