CRICKET.—At the Zion Church Picnic tomorrow there is to be a cricket match between Tories and Grits. The contest will no doubt be very exciting; but we hope to see the Tories come off victorious—as usual.

It has been decided to hold a regatta in Summerside harbor on the 18th August next, to consist of two sailing races and races for row boats as follows: 4-oared race, 2-oared race, single scull, double scull, boys' 4-oared race and canoe race.

B. E. TYLER, of New York, was greeted by an increased audience, to whom he discoursed in an entertaining and instructive manner about "The Honest Doubter," whose type he found in John the Baptist. His subject this evening will be: "What must I do to be Saved?" The hour of meeting is 7.30; place, Upper Great George Street Christian Church.

SMALL VENGE.—The old grey mare owned and driven by the Rev. S. G. Lawson, was shorn and shaven last night, both tail and mane being closely clipped. This is a small and mean piece of business, but just what might be expected from the authors of the Orange circulars. They well deserve to be kept in the cool shades of opposition twelve years longer!

A JUDGE in Iowa has just entered a decision that a fellow is bound to tell his wife where he spends his evenings when he is away from home. It may be the cause of a good deal of lying, but it will result in good. If a wife spent her evenings away from home, and half the time could not find the key-hole when she returned, the old man would likely inquire: "Where have you been?"

MR. CHAS. D. McALPINE, one of the well known publishers of Directories in the Maritime Provinces, is now in town for the purpose of publishing a Directory and plan of Charlottetown. We have not had a complete Directory of the city for a number of years. This will be a boon to professional and business men, and we need hardly say that the support of all is needed for the completion of this work.

MR. THOMAS CARON, a commercial traveller, attempted suicide on the afternoon of the 19th at a brewery on Simcoe Street, Toronto, by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. He was taken to the hospital where the wound is not considered fatal. Caron travelled in the Lower Provinces for an oil firm and for the brewery company and had been indulging in a prolonged spree. He expressed his regret that the shot was not fatal. He was a married man and about 50 years of age.

ANOTHER accident to a circus train occurred at Danielsville, Conn., on Saturday. As the train was drawing out from the station a platform car loaded with empty animal vans jumped the track, wrecking several vans and instantly killing an employe named Wiley. The top was ripped completely off a cage containing some eight or ten monkeys—the entire menagerie and the monkeys escaped. One of the monkeys made a break for a hotel near by, and after drawing a mirror made its escape through a window. Robbins estimates his loss at $15,000.

No doubt many will take advantage of the drive, and also help at the same time a good cause. There will be a supply of choice sweets, temperance drinks, etc. Efforts will be made to give visitors a pleasant afternoon and evening.

The Portland Press of Friday last reports: "In Montana the mercury stands at one hundred and ten in the shade; in Maine an unclouded sun has dried up the fields; and in New Hampshire a frost has killed beans and potatoes. There seems to be grief for the farmers all over the country."

An American paper has applied for a copyright on a new word, "abscond." It is far better than abscond, and conveys a clearer meaning. A bank president may go off on a leave of absence and drift away to foreign shores with great deliberation, and, his accounts being short, be termed an absconder. But the cashier who jumps aboard the lightning express and strikes for Canada is an absconder, from scoot, to slide out; ab, from.

The general verdict of the smokers of the Myrtle Navy is that it is the finest tobacco they have ever used. There can be no mistake upon this point for it is proved by this tangible evidence. The large demand for this tobacco shows it to be true, and the character of the demand gives further proof. It has never been of the spasmodic kind, up one month and down the next. It has been a sustained and constantly increasing demand. The unsurpassed quality of the tobacco accounts for this.

How TO SAVE MONEY, and we might also say—time and pain as well, in our advice to good housekeepers and ladies generally. The great necessity existing always to have a perfectly safe remedy convenient for the relief and prompt cure of the ailments peculiar to women—functional irregularity, constant pains, and all the symptoms attendant upon uterine disorders—induces us to recommend strongly and unqualifiedly Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—woman's best friend. It will save money.

We understand that advices have been received from the Dominion Government that an order in Council has been passed recommending that in view of the decision recently given by the Privy Council in England in the Exchange Bank case, it would not be in the public interest to press to the full extent the claim of the Government against the Bank of Prince Edward Island, but that instead the Government rank as an ordinary creditor. This action of the Government will enable the Liquidators to close the affairs of the Bank without much further delay and they can pay the depositors about 10 per cent. more than if the Government had insisted on payment of its claim in full—a right which the Supreme Court of Canada decided it had. The decision in the Exchange Bank case was decided in the law of Quebec and in no way touched on the Government's right to payment in full from the Island Bank, but the Government evidently thought it would be unfair to act differently in the two cases, even although the law enabled it to do so.

Minister Bowell's Determination.

Enforcing the Laws.

PORTLAND, July 21. W. S. Jordan & Co., owners of the schr. Harrington, who wrote to the Canadian Minister of Customs, a few days ago, asking for the remission of the $400 fine recently imposed upon their vessel for a trivial violation of the Dominion customs laws, have received a reply in which Minister Bowell writes:—

"The laws are rigidly enforced against our own vessels and cannot therefore be relaxed in favor of those of foreign countries. It is true that much leniency was allowed during the existence of the Washington Treaty, but that was, as I understand it, by mutual consent on both sides of the line, but since the repeal of that treaty the law has had to be enforced."

Mr. Burleigh, of Willard & Co., said to-day that the draft which the Captain of the schooner J. L. Kennedy had given for lighthouse dues when in a Canadian port was presented for payment to-day, but his firm declined to pay it as they did not believe that the Canadian authorities had a right to demand it.

THE FIREMENS TOURNAMENT. Active but Unfortunate Practice.

HALIFAX, July 21. McGuire, a member of one of the hose reel teams which are to take part in the Firemen's Tournament, fell and broke his collar bone, while running in a race at a picnic yesterday.

Gentles, a member of the Dartmouth hose reel team, fell under the wheels of the hose reel on the polo ground last night, whilst practicing and had his arm broken. Both are considered to be about the best men of their respective teams.

The Dilke-Crawford Scandal.

LONDON, July 21. The Crawford-Dilke case is still on. The courtroom was again crowded yesterday. The evidence presented was decidedly the most interesting yet given in the trial. Mrs. Crawford testified that she disliked her husband because he was too old; that she loved Foster because he was handsome and of pleasing manners; that she hated Dilke and committed adultery with him for the sole purpose of obtaining a divorce from her husband, and that she spared Foster because he was about to marry. Under a strict cross-examination she confessed that she had committed adultery only with Sir Charles Dilke and Foster, and exculpated two other society men who had been previously incriminated. A remarkable feature was when Mrs. Crawford was asked some questions, for instance, with regard to the French vice of adultery, etc., she answered with the utmost calmness, "Yes," and even smiled, thus showing that she was an utterly abandoned woman who gloried in her shame.
