Chimmie Fadden on Endowed Journalism.

"When Mr. Carnegie gets his hundred poopers all running, no more will young gents go larking all over de globe—by telegraph, by telegraph, special trains, boats, and flying-machines—seeking news at de camon's mout, and pictures in de fire and crash of craters. No more will lynx-eye reporters run down and capture moiders, and have 'em drawn, hanged, and no quarters, before de police hears of de crime. Gone will be de days when de sporting extra prints de name of de winner before de last horse passes under de wire; de standing of de league clubs before de echoes of de empire's voice dies, as he calls tree strikes on de last man to bat. Never again, loidies and gents, shall we know more dan Edward Severn about de chances of a Marquis of Clevedon, alas! Opera stars and chorus galls will cease to suffer from publicity, and may pursue deir ways and lost diamonds in obscurity and peace.

"Journalism will feed in de sweet pastures of Reform. Managing editors will go dance jigs to mile stones, deir places filled by Professors of Ethics from de leading universities and de Century Club. News editors of to-day will be chained in padded cells, deir duties performed by members of de Authors Club who can prove dey has ever wrote a book. Headline builders, copy re-writers, and telegraph editors who take de pledge will be let to write essays on Japanese poetry and basic steelovens. No salaries will be paid, but every poison employed may draw as much money as he feel likes, tree times a week! No poker games is to be allowed on de editorial floor until de make-up editor has time to sit in."

"Who would read such a silly polper?" says Widdy.
"Madame," says Mr. Paul, "did anyone ever suspect Mr. Carnegie of being a fool? An advertisement for more editors will be printed in every edition of each pooper. Applications for such jobs must be written on coupons printed, also, in every edition of each pooper. De man what has filled out de most coupons gets de foist job."

"What of it?" says Widdy.
"Mr. Paul looks tautful at her a while, den he says, "De mystery of newspaper coupons is for woman's poisse, not her understanding. But dis I'll tell you: De poiper mills will never come witin a mile of supplying white poiper for Mr. Carnegie's use. I has prepared a table of figures what shows dat inside a year de only people on eat, besides Mr. Carnegie and staff, who will have de price of a meal will be a few cranks who don't want a job on a Carnegie poiper, wit privileges of de cash drawer."

"I don't tink much of de plan," says Whiskers. "If I had two hundred million I would do something more better dan dat."

The marvelous cures of Catarrhozon are being much talked about. Catarrhozon is very pleasant, safe and convenient to use. Its best recommendation is its enormous sale; try it to-day. Price $1.00, small size 25c., at Druggists

Once there were two beautiful white eggs laid side by side in a nice new nest. A great big man gathered them up with his rough hands and sold them to a grocer. And one little egg was a good little egg, and went into an angel cake, but the other little egg was a very, very bad little egg, and got mashed on an actress.

Acknowledgment!

J. K. ROSS, ESQ., Provincial Manager
North American Life Assurance Co., Charlottetown.

Dear Sir,—I have pleasure in acknowledging cheque for $1498 handed me this day by your agent here, Mr. R.H. Montgomery, being proceeds of my twenty-year Endowment policy in your company.

This result is highly satisfactory, giving me an investment of four per cent compound interest on the full premiums paid in, de sides carry ine risk of $1000 on my life during the twenty years. The other options are equally favorable, viz: a paid up insurance for $2555, or a life annuity $114.30. To young men seeking a safe and profitable investment I would recommend an Endowment Policy in this well managed Canadian company.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN D. GOSS.
