

Bernadine Hall News

It has been a while but yes, we girls and guts of Bernadine are here to tell you what is going on with our residence. Some of you may think Bernie Hall doesn't do much more than harbour book-worms, alcoholics and other "talented" occupants. But that isn't so!

The Residence Life Committee organized a very successful hour of skating for both Marion and Bernadine Thursday Feb.8. And to prove just how gracious a hostess we are there were cookies and hot chocolate served. Now if that doesn't impress you in the slightest you probably can't skate anyway!!

Next on our busy agenda is a Balderdash tournament. This starts Tuesday Feb.6 through to Monday Feb.12. This game will provide ones vocabulary to broaden greatly. So the next time you are at the Barn and someone is hitting on you, you can turn and tell them to take a 'y-ing FARTLEK, they won't know what you are talking about! But it will most likely get rid of them!

Keep in mind Feb 10 also my friends! This is when we have our annual sleigh ride! This will be from 7-8 pm and transportation leaves from the residences at 6:30 pm. It will cost $3.00 per person; but always keep in mind we are BACKING THE CAT!! Last year's sleigh ride proved to be a great time. And we aren't just saying that! When you think about it why would we do it again this year if it was a drag last year? So get your blankies and thermos full of hot chocolate and your best ghost story and get out there!

Now may be you aren't into the outdoors thing if you are too sophisticated and suave to be around smelly hourses, we here at residence take that into consideration also. For these people and everyone else we have the UPEI semi-formal. This will be held at the Charlottetown Ballroom on Saturday March 3rd. It will be $12.00 a couple, with Sights And Sounds providing music from 9-1 pm. We would really like to see everyone jump into their best duds and grab a date and join in. Tickets are available in Bernadine Rm 208 and 312 and Marian 213 and 200B.

Myth: The Semi-Formal aka Co-Ed is only for people in Mar-ion and Bernadine.

Fact: The Semi-Formal is for everybody at the university. And everybody is welcome!!

Last but not least, Residence Life is presently holding a WIN, LOSE or DRAW tournament. The first round results are in and it looks like this so far:

The Backwards Baseball Cap Gang from 3rd floor Marian managed to pry themselves from the Superbowl and their beer to win their first game against Melanie Carruthers, Sally "I'm going to tape your mouth shut Keren" MacPherson and Keren "Don't shoot till you see the whites of their eyes!!" Norton. Congrats Ron, Dave and Andrew!

Next winners were The Flaming Fourth Floor Trio! their victory was made easy by Louis.M. andy.f.(their recruit from Marian) and Tanya.W. Better luck in your next game. But look out Samantha, Sandi and Tiffany, the tournament is not over yet!

April 2 - Julie Canniss and David Getchell, Sr., "The Maine Islands and the maine island Trail"

April 9 - Harry Baglole, "An Island Living: Small Island Research Around the World."

"We are pleased with the ever-growing popularity of the Island Lecture Series," says Mr. Baglole. "We hope Islanders will find this series as exciting and interesting as those held in years past. We plan to hold shorter versions of the series in Summerside and Montague in April and May."

The Island Lecture Series is sponsored by the institute of Island Studies with assistance from the St. Dunstan's University Fund and the Prince Edward island Museum and Heritage Foundation.

Then the last game of the evening was close and competitive. Rick "How many words!!" Gallant, Brady "I know this!" McVarish and Tony "The, And, If, But, Or!!!" MacKenzie couldn't hold back the Hot Stuff from 2nd floor! Vetrans from last year Heather "The Picasso" Riehl; Kim "Tweedle toes" Wells and Sue "Didya get that point for us Scott?" Gallant.

Be sure to come out and watch round 2, 3 and 4 in the Ma-pus Lounge of Bernadine Hall.

So that just goes to show you, that yes the residence is more than studyholics and rumours. Congradulations are in order for 3rd floor Bernadine Hall. They are in first place for intramural points within the building; and the Bernadine girls Intramural Basketball team came in third place in the playoffs.

Come on girls (guys) let's show this campus where the real spirit is!

Tiananmen Square

The square is packed, the move is on Towards greater freedom and peace.

Tents are set up, the posters go up.

The noise makes it very hard to sleep.

"Enough already", the students yell.

Voices of the intellect.

Bold and desperate, they cry out for change

"Out with the old, in with the elect."

Emmersed in poverty, a nation's sigh

Goes out to these brave young souls.

To carry the fight, where parents gave in

To go out, firm but alone.

In peace they came, in fight they ran

Away from the bullets and blood.

Confusion was there, death too much to bare

It came swiftly as clouds over sun.

"Slaughter in the square", screamed the news everywhere

As Canada watched with surprise

"Isn't it awful? What a damn waste"

They mumble as they turn on their side.

As the threads rolled on, and bodies were crushed was it just another bloody event?

Shouldn't we be inspired, by these bold young fighters

Who stood there and faced certain death?

As wee all sit back, and munch on our chips

Let us ponder what's taken for granted.

"Freedom, democracy", are these but mere words?

Are these ideals we should indeed cherish?

Sometimes I wonder if we're really better off

Than a billion screaming Chinamen half a world away!

Institute of Island Studies

The 1990 Island Lecture Series, entitled "A Place Apart: Islands in Nature and Culture," is now underway on Monday nights at 8 pm in the Hon. George Coles Building on Richadmond Street, announced Harry Baglole, Directory of the Institute of Island Studies.

"Because of the long-standing controversy about the fixed link islands and their characteristics are very mush in the public mind," says Mr. Baglole. "The series deals with questions about islands including: What, if anything, is so special about islands? And what features do islands everywhere have in common?"

Biologist Dr. David Cairns, and Islander by birth, gave the first lecture on Monday, February 19 on "Islands in Nature's Eye." the following Monday, pat Wootton, Owner of Thomas and Herring Islands near Murray harbour, PEI, spoke about the spiritual qualities of island living in a talk entitled "No Man Can Be an Island".

Subsequent lectures will be:

March 5 - Kenzie MacNeill, "Cape Breton and Cultural metamorphosis."

March 12 - Eric Ross, "Pic-tou Island: The Rise and Fall of an Island Community."

March 19 - Wayne Wright, "The magic Island: Prince Edward island in Literature and Legend."

March 26 - Wayne Barrett, "Islands in the Gulf of St. Lawrence: An Illustrated Talk."

Crime Stoppers Successful in First Year

During it's first full year of operation, Crime Stoppers of PEI has had a significant impact on the solving of criminal offences across the province. Crime Stoppers received a total of 423 calls during the 1989 calendar year. This resulted in the recovery of nearly eleven thousand dollars worth of property, and drug seizures of over three thousand dollars The work of PEI Crime Stoppers assisted the police forces in the province in the laying of 110 charges and the solving of 57 cases. A total of $1750 was paid out in Crime Stopper tipsers awards.

Crime Stoppers of PEI was established in late 1988 with the board of directors recruited from business and community leaders across the Island. The official launching of the program took place in early January of 1989. The phones for Crime Stoppers are operated by police representatives.

The first president of Crime Stoppers of PEI is Alden O'Brien In his year end report Mr. O'Brien felt that the Crime Stoppers program as had a real impact in solving crimes on PEI. "The financial support of businesses and government had given law abiding citizens a vehicle through which to fight crime without their direct involvement" says Mr. O'Brien

Crime Stoppers of PEI offers a cash award to anyone who relays information which leads to an arrest. The Crime Stoppers phone number is 1-566-TIPS (1-566-8477).
