

FLIGHT OFFICER J. R. AND MRS. McASKILL AND PARTY

Wed In Summerside Live In British Columbia

The Summerside Presbyterian Church was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding on Monday, Oct. 26, when Reverend J. Donald MacKay united in marriage Norma Jane Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood S. Campbell, 351 Hawthorne Ave., Summerside, and Flying Officer James Robert McAskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAskill, Port Alberni, B.C.

Miss Maida Rogerson of Charlottetown accompanied by Mrs. Cleve Whalen at the organ, she sang "O Perfect Love" before the ceremony and "Because" during the signing of the register. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of French lace with pearl trim and tulle over satin, featuring a face-fitted bodice with long fitted sleeves and Sabrina neckline and ruffles below. Chantilly lace peplum. Her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was held by a tiny coronet with matching pearl trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink Briarcliffe roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. Windsor Corney, wore a flame crystal-embroidered gown, with push-up sleeves, very full-flared skirt, long torso coming to points at front and back. She wore a matching hat with a norgay of white 'mums. Pilot Officer William Mazey was bestman, and Flying Officers Jack Doucette and Bud Daye ushered the guests to pews marked with tiny 'mums and pink and white ribbons. The reception was held at Mulberry Lodge. The bride's table was centred with a two-tier wedding cake, topped with an arch and miniature bride and groom, and encircled with roses. Mrs. Morton Lyons was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Campbell chose for her daughter's wedding tricotage beige, very full-length dress, a winter white velour plateau hat and squirrel neckpiece. For her honeymoon trip to Comox, B.C. where the groom has been posted, the bride wore a smart box-styled powder blue suit with blue and black accessories, and an orchid corsage. Out of town guests included Mrs. Belle Campbell, Boston, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson MacLeod, Mrs. Hazel Loomer, and Mrs. Lucy Campbell, all of Long River.

CONST. R. C. AND MRS. PETTITT AND PARTY

Double Ring Ceremony At Pretty Autumn Wedding

One of the prettiest weddings of the autumn season took place at Georgetown, when Anna Josephine daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Prosper of Georgetown, was united in marriage with Constable Ronald C. Pettitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pettitt of Ninette, Manitoba. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Owen Kiggins in St. James Rectory. The charming young bride wore a ballerina length gown of nylon net over satin, with a lace panel extending to the hemline of the bouffant skirt. The strapless bodice had lace inserts of the neckline and which was trimmed with Pastel pearls and sequins. The dress had a lace bolero jacket. The shoulder length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls and pastel sequins. The bride carried a cascade of American Beauty Roses and white carnations, and a white prayer book, which was a gift from the groom. Miss Sheila Delorey, as maid of honor, was gowned in an ice blue ballerina length dress of heagline with matching bolero and slippers. Her headdress was a bandeau of ice blue net and tiny white and blue flowers. She carried a nosegay of Talisman roses centered with a white carnation. Constable William Wilson, R.C.M.P., was the best man. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Prosper chose a navy and pink silk afternoon dress, and wore white accessories and a corsage of deep pink carnations. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hill Side Inn, Montague, where the bride's party received approximately 50 guests. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful four tiered wedding cake, flanked with pink tapers and pastel gladioli. Corporal S. Wannamaker, R.C.M.P., proposed the toast to the bride, which was responded to by the groom. Following the reception, Constable and Mrs. Pettitt left on a honeymoon trip to Ninette, Manitoba. For travelling the bride wore a brown tweed suit, yellow hat and brown accessories. Previous to the wedding the bride and groom were entertained at several showers and parties, in Georgetown and Montague where numerous friends gathered in their honor.

LET'S EAT

Marmalade And Nuts Fill A Fancy Omelet

BY IDA BAILEY ALLEN
Down a steep hill the Chef and I drove to a quaint house in Riverside, New York, home of our young friends Bob and Cele Kornfeld, built close to the road, against terraces hewn out of rock, now transformed into rock gardens. It was once a carriage house.

"As this is your 10th wedding anniversary," said the Chef, "we have brought a little gift."
"Oh, a pink egg beater!" exclaimed Cele. "How beautiful!" And it's decorated with golden roses and leaves and has a golden handle.

"It was created by a charming young lady, RoseMerry Gilbert of New York City, a real artist in design. See how strong it is? How fast it can work! Right now, I shall use it before your eyes to create an omelet in your honor."
Debut! Omelet Celestine (For brunch, lunch or supper): Separate 4 eggs. Beat the whites with yolks until thick. Combine, in a 7" omelet pan melt 1 1/2 tbs. butter. Add the egg mixture; slow-cook until slightly firm at the edges. Place in a moderately hot oven, 350 degrees to 375 degrees F., continue to cook about 4 min., or until firm in the center. Heat 1/4 c. peach or apricot marmalade. Pour 1 tsp. over half the omelet. Add 2 tbs. toasted chopped almonds; fold over the omelet. Put on a heated platter. Spoon the remaining marmalade over the top. Garnish with whipped cream.

Cele Kornfeld's New Orleans Dinner: Avocado halves with French chichard; grillades-fatty rice; broiled eggplant; tossed lettuce; fresh pears; groused cheese; coffee, tea or milk. All measurements are level recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6. New Orleans Grillades: Cut 1 1/2 lbs. sliced round steak into serving portions. Brown in 1 1/2 tbs. fat in a heavy frying pan. Add 1/2 c. minced onion, 2 crushed garlic sections, 1 minced green pepper with seeds, 2 tbs. minced celery, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. paprika and 1 cut-up skinned small tomato. Cover. When browned, add 1/2 c. boiling water. Simmer 45 min., or until fork-tender. Serve with gravy. Trick of the Chef: For avocados, add 1 tsp. chili sauce and 1 drop Thasso to 1/2 c. not-sweet French dressing.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

If you make the family clothes on your sewing machine, it's a real help to "press as you stitch." But remember that pressing rules vary. Synthetics and blends take a low heat; set dial for rayon, nylon or low. Natural silk requires slightly more heat than rayons. Light cottons take slightly more heat than silk. Heavy cottons and linens require the hottest iron of all. Wool should be pressed with steam. Use a press board of velvet.

The wearing of tartans was forbidden by law for 40 years after the Scottish rebellion in 1745.

Color Scheme Even Effects Level Of Voices In Room

OTTAWA (CP) — There's a trend toward the roomy kitchens of grandmother's time, says an interior decorating expert. Modern styling indicates that kitchens will again provide a centre of activity and leave the living room for formal occasions, says Mrs. Eleanor Brown of Toronto. Addressing a women's group here, Mrs. Brown also indicated that the latest trends in color decorating are toward pearl greys with red and blue shades. For accents, the modern colors are lime green and gold. For sophistication, one color with its various intensities proves popular. And color is an important consideration when it comes to decorating. Color influences emotions and sound, the decorating expert explained. For instance, reds can make one jumpy and excited. Or blues can make you feel chilly. Mrs. Brown suggested that individuals surround themselves with the colors they like. But she recommended that rooms be decorated with two colors, using a third as an accessory. Light colors—easily kept clean—can be used for kitchen floors. Combining colors of the "same family" give small, low-ceilinged apartments a more spacious appearance. She said colors influence sound because in light rooms persons tend to raise their voices, while speaking more softly in dark rooms.

CAC Head Says Stamp Plan Raises Cost To Consumer

TORONTO (CP) — Madame Henri Vautelet of Montreal, head of the Canadian Association of Consumers, says the stamp trading plan "is bound to increase the cost of selling and the cost to the consumer." She was commenting on the movement toward the issuance of trading stamps with purchases in Canada. Trading stamps have swept the United States in the last two years and recently have started to appear in Canada. They are being offered in many independent stores across the country. Mme. Vautelet said: "Once the people climb on the give-away tiger, they have to offer bigger and bigger bids."

Consumers, she says ruefully, seem to respond to the more expensive methods of selling. The CACA has been protesting for years, without results, about soap coupons and premiums in packages, she said. But while the CAC thinks its own members disapprove of giveaways, she thinks enough people like them to make them worthwhile to the manufacturer and the retailer. The trading stamp method—usually one stamp for every 10 cents of purchase—is a complicated way of giving premiums. Mme. Vautelet says that personally she isn't going to use premiums until somebody offers an ocean-going yacht.

Hand Grenades Are Among Things He Could Bring Home

METZ, France (CP) — Your child ever come home from school carrying a hand grenade? Both these things have occurred during a soccer game? Ever kicked an unexploded shell at RCAF Air Division headquarters here. The armament officer is one of the busiest—and most jittery—men on the station. The Canadian married quarters and school at Metz are located next door to an old fort fought over for nearly the last 100 years by the German and the French and their allies. NO SERIOUS ACCIDENT Canadian children at play often come across unexploded hand grenades and 75- and 88-millimetre shells. It says volumes for the work of Wing Cmdr. Ted Atherton, station commander, that there has never been a serious accident. In fact, there has been only one accident. A hand grenade was raked into a fire by a man burning leaves and when it exploded a small piece of shrapnel went through his son's leg. The shell which was kicked during a pick-up soccer game in a pasture did not explode. The nearly 400 children of Canadian sirmen here have been taught never to touch a hand grenade or shell when they see one. They relay the word to the armament officer and he has it detonated. Wing Cmdr. Atherton formed what he calls a "bomb patrol squad" among the older children. They see that the younger ones stay well clear of any discovered shells. Parents, of course, have dined into their children the dangers of grenades and shells. Some parents naturally worry about what their children may pick up in and around the fort but most of them by this time have managed to take this aspect of their lives in stride. Newly-arrived parents, of course, do the most worrying.
