

BRISTOL

Mrs. Walter O'Brien leaves week by air for Covington, La., U.S.A., where she will visit her daughter Sister Mary Gerard, OSB, and be a guest at the sisters' new priory completed last summer, for a week. Mrs. O'Brien, and one of the sisters from Mount St. Mary's in Charlottetown, were invited to the ceremonies on Sunday and will fly direct to New Orleans where they will be met by the sisters and drive the sixty odd miles to the priory near the Louisiana lakes. Sister Mary Gerard, OSB, was Theresa O'Brien, and graduated from NDA, in Charlottetown some years ago before going down south to join the sisters. The invitation to the ceremony came from Sister Mary Jude, OSB, who was Mary Cheverie from Souris, when she left for the south. Sister Jude will make the trip home with them for her vacation and they will stop over in New York City and Boston for a few days. This order is the world's largest order of sisters and has more than fifty thousand sisters in many parts of the world with Sister Patricia as superior.

Norma Sinnott, has arrived home from Western Canada for her annual summer vacation. A teacher in Alberta, for a number of years, Miss Sinnott will vacation with her mother around the old Bristol home and also with her sisters in other parts before flying back to the west.

Mrs. James A. O'Brien, here tells us when her sisters went to Boston, some eighty years ago, their father took them to Charlottetown, in a two wheel cart at a walk speed that took all day and they went on to Boston by steamer for $5. The trip from here to Charlottetown in the cart was through the woods as it was the only route then and there was lots of woods. Mrs. O'Brien, who is well along in the twilight years now, recalls many of these old days of travel.

We learn with regret of the passing of George Compton, in Camp Hill Hospital last week. He resided here for a number of years in retirement.

Herb McDermott, was in the city on Friday on business. He was a road superintendent for a number of years.
