CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

By Lynn Hope Sander

MONTREAL, Oct. 24th — "Where are you, mother? I'm hungry!" A lovely greeting for any woman who has planned good food for her homecoming. I can't recommend LIPTON'S GREEN PEAS SOUP as a special favourite these chilly days. I don't think you could find a better Green Pea Soup than Lipton's. Mix the contents of the package with cold water, as directed, and heat. That's all. Taste it. It's so good that it will make you say, "See that delicate green colour—sniff that tantalizing aroma! It's the best-tasting White Swan Serviettes I've seen. I'm sure you'll like them, too. It's wonderfully good!"

AMONG MANY THERE'S ALWAYS A BEST! I thought especially about paper napkins. . . . Yes, go modern and use one-ply napkins and white serviettes. . . . They're fabric-soft and cling to your lap instead of slithering to the floor. They're wonderfully absorbent and the washing is easy. But do make sure you get the best-tasting White Swan Serviettes. They're made of quality and price. The easy-draw White Swan packages contain 25 sturdy, yet softer and more absorbent napkins at a low price. Do start using economical White Swan Serviettes! You'll save.

GET A BUDGIE . . . IF YOU WANT BEAUTY, GARDEN and fun in your home. And a budgie is a wonderful gift for a shut-in or an older person. It's so easy to keep budgies in top-health with BROCK'S BUDGIE SEED — one of Brock's Kitchen Biscuit Products.

I BOUGHT MY DREAM'S KITCHEN YESTERDAY . . . at the BANK OF MONTREAL with a low rate of 3 1/2% Home Improvement Loan is going to pay for everything — a roomier kitchen, a new refrigerator, new wiring and lighting . . . and every bit of the work the carpenters, plumbers, electricians and painters are going to put in. Yes, my dreams of kitchen comfort and convenience are becoming true at last—thanks to a B of M Home Improvement Loan. H.I.L.'s are inexpensive, too—they're made up of monthly payments and you repay in monthly installments. So take my advice—if you're planning to transform your house into a more up-to-date and more valuable home, do consult the manager of your nearest B of M branch today. I know you'll find me as helpful as I did.

"UP AND AT 'EM!" That's what you'll feel on a crisp October morning with school work at office or out with a nourishing and tempting breakfast. DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION DOG FOOD is so delicately flavored with its blending of cracked wheat, eye and flax. So satisfying. So easy to prepare. Inexpensive, too! Costs only about five cents a serving. Red River Cereal has become more popular than ever—good for youngsters in their active life — and for sedentary workers, too, and older people, as it guards against indigestion and constipation.

IF YOUR PET COULD TALK, I know he would demand the dog food that offers him nutrition and variety in his diet. DR. BALLARD'S CHAMPION DOG FOOD. He would ask for the three flavors he enjoys most, Chicken, Liver and Regular. You'll notice how happy and active he is, too. And the reason is simply this: Dr. Ballard's Champion Dog Food contains the known nutrients your dog needs — protein, vitamins, minerals and carbohydrates. It's a natural animal nutrition specialist's scientifically balanced food formula to provide a complete diet for your dog and protect him against diet deficiency.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, BELIEVE ME, that's what I feel if you want to say the FARMER'S WIFE people who have created their new Prepared Formula for babies. This triumph of modern science is always sterile—always the same—easy to prepare it's done in a jiffy. It's flexible, too—can be adjusted to the exact needs of your own darling. Convenient, Economical, Modern. Partly Skimmed Milk, now so sure and ask your doctor about the new Farmers' Wife Prepared Formula!

MR. AND MRS. L. D. MCGINN & ATTENDANTS

Wed In P. E. I., Couple Will Reside In Halifax

At the Church of the Holy Family, Kensington, on Saturday September 22nd at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Joyce McNeil only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. McNeil, also formerly the heiress Mullally, Kensington was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony with Louis Daniel McGinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McGinn, North Wiltshire.

White and yellow gladioli and white and yellow dahlias adorned the altar. The organist was Miss Dorothy MacDonald, and soloists were Mrs. Annes Callaghan and the groom, and Mr. Reggie Pendergast, Chorus. The bride wore a traditional white gown with long sleeves and a full skirt. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white shirt and a white bow tie. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. Fr. J. J. Callaghan, who read the opening prayer and the nuptial Mass. The bride and groom were accompanied by their bridesmaids and groomsmen. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a buffet supper was served. The happy young couple left for their honeymoon trip through the Maritime provinces.

Mr. Leo McQuaid capably presided over the ceremony, and the ushers were Mr. Dean White and Mr. Brendan McGinn, brother of the groom. Mrs. Mullally chose for her daughter's wedding a charcoal grey suit with light blue accessories, while Mrs. McGinn, mother of the groom wore a dress of crepe and lace in dusty rose with white and black accessories. Both wore bouquets of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception and dinner was held at the Queen Hotel in Charlottetown for 100 guests when the decorations were baskets of mixed flowers. Mr. Frank Zakem, a former classmate of the groom acted as Master of Ceremonies. Grace was said by Rev. Louis P. Callaghan. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. C. McCarthy and responded to by the groom who also proposed a toast to the attendants. This was responded to by the groomsmen. Mr. McQuaid, other speakers were Rev. L. P. Callaghan, Mr. James Saunders, a friend of the bride's family, Mr. C. Morrison and Mr. Frank Zakem both former classmates of the groom.

At the conclusion of the dinner the beautifully decorated liner

Announcing!

KING SIZE MONARCH CAKE MIXES with LOCKER-IN FRESHNESS and FLAVOUR.

Look for this all-new Monarch package. In it you'll find a totally new idea in cake mix from Monarch's famed research division. In fact this mix is so deliciously different . . . so much better in every way . . . that we say until you've tried this new mix you haven't baked your best cake!

1 Who's different? Ordinary cake mix flavour tends to fade and dry out. But in new Monarch, flavour is sealed in tiny crystals. When you mix and bake you release the full freshness and flavour—giving you the kind of fresh homemade goodness you want in your cake.

2 See how full it is! The new Monarch cake in King size completely fills a standard Bunch tin. The fact that this new cake neatly fills the pan makes a big difference in baking results. It rises evenly . . . browns evenly—with a uniform crust and texture throughout.

3 Big luscious layer cakes too! In fact, in any shape . . . for any occasion . . . you can bake a new Monarch cake so moist and light you'll be proud to serve it. Stays fresh too! The new Monarch soon! Your grocer now has 4 kinds—each with freshness and flavour locked in!

ELLEN'S DIARY

Not Sorry That The Harvesting Near An End

Our line of assault, strengthened by the addition of another brawny helper on a day which felt every assistance to such work, our man-harvesting was ended by dusk.

"No," James agreed. "But they're great to have. And he nodded. "We could have handled another dozen loads or so, easily."

"We'll have another dozen loads and more to handle tomorrow," another commented with a young laugh. "By the time we're done of them we'll have had plenty of man-harvesting to do us for the year!"

"Supper in the autumn lamp-light! How good it was. And pleasant with the wishing star of moon to be seen above a hill beyond the open door. And the velvet dusk coming up from the low of the valley and down from his shadowy rim.

James would have a taste of the material. "I'm not from dinner," one brought us by our former fisherman of years, who also brought us a large tin of his harbor-village, as well as odds and ends of chatting.

"Yes, a nice Queen-sun. And beautiful! I saw her on TV. And clever! That speech from the Throne in our two languages opening parliament will look some courage to face too!" But she did it and it was too! "Yes, she's a great lady!"

And the business. "Yes, you will find it fresh, Missie, and good to have the young girls look. But others preferred ends of the dinner-raft of beef, for in tin salted water until tender. About 30 min. Drain. Add 1/2 cup salt, 1/2 cup sugar and 1/2 cup vinegar. Mix 1/2 light cream or undiluted evaporated milk with 1 egg yolk. Stir into cooking milk until the sauce is slightly thickened. Chill; serve on lettuce. See front cover for Ice Cream Macaroni. To 1/2 fruit juice drained from any canned fruit, add 1/2 c. sliced fruit

Set 1/2 c. butter or margarine until creamy with 1/2 c. milk. Turn into a well-oiled 8-in. tuba cake pan. Bake 30 min., or until done. In a preheated oven, 350° F. Cool 10 min. Turn from the pan onto a wire rack.

When coated with a confecturer's sugar design. If desired, the material may be used over the cake a round lace paper doily of the same diameter. Lift over confecturer's sugar. Carefully lift the doily up and set to have a lace design.
