Cardinals Down Giants In Slugfest 9-2 And Senators Defeat Cleveland Again

Stars, Vs. Flyers Tonight In Baseball Encounter

Tom MacFarlane's Stars, who only Tuesday night got back in the win column after a bad losing streak, will take on Jimmy MacDonald's Flyers tonight at Memorial Field.

The Flyers and the stars have each played two games less than the Dodgers, who are tied with the airmen for first place, and the two will probably tangle in the next two games to make everything even-steven in games played.

If the Stars make a sweep a three way deadlock for top spot will result.

Tom MacFarlane will be sending Earl MacKinnon to the mound to ground the Flyers and Fiddler will likely go along with his ace Donnie MacLean.

Game Time is 6.15

NEW YORK, (AP)—Righthander Tom Poholsky hurled a 10-hitter and slammed three of his team's 15 hits Wednesday as St. Louis Cardinals defeated New York Giants 9-2.

Stan Musial hit his 21st homer and rookies Bob Stephenson and Ken Boyer also got three hits apiece in the Cards attack against four Giant pitchers—Johnny Antonelli, Ramon Monzant, Hoyt Wilhelm and Paul Giel.

* * *

Wes Westrum and Bobby Hofman hit successive homers in the seventh to spoil Poholsky's shutout.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Willie Jones' 12th homer — a leadoff bases-empty blast in the fourth inning — was all the margin curt Simmons and the Philadelphia Phillies needed Wednesday night to beat Cincinnati 4-2 in the second game of a twi-night twin bill, extending their current win streak to nine.

The Phils took the opener 6-0 on Saul Rogovin's five-hitter and Andy Seminick's 11th homer after Del Ennis and Jones walked in the fourth inning.

Simmons got credit for his sixth win against the same number of defeats.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eddie Yost's two-run homer plus a four-run, third inning rally Wednesday night gave the Washington Nationals a 6-4 victory over Cleveland's Indians. It was Washington's fifth victory in a row.

Both starting pitchers were chased. Cleveland's Early Wynn went out of the game after 2 2-3 innings in which he gave up six runs and seven hits in his third attempt to win his 12th victory. Washington's Chuck Stobbs left in the fourth after he had given up four hits and three Cleveland runs had scored.

Reliefer Pedro Ramos got credit for the victory.

Al Rosen and Larry Doby accounted for the first two tribe runs in the second on homers. Rosen led off with his 14th and Doby, next up, hit his 16th.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — After Preston Ward hit a three - run pinch homer to tie the game in the seventh inning the Pittsburgh Pirates pushed across another run in the ninth Wednesday night to edge the Milwaukee Braves 4-3.

The winning marker came on a bases-loaded single by pinch-hitter Jack Shepard with one out.

The win was credited to relief pitcher Dick Littlefield. Starter Masx Surkont was relieved for Ward in the seventh.

The Braves got away to a two-run lead in the sixth inning on a double by Logan and Ed Mathews' 24th homer. In the seventh they made it 3-0, Chuck Tanner singling Bobby Thomson home after Thomson led off with a single.

Barry's Beat Navy 7-5 In City Softball Game

Barry's roaring Lions staged a four run rally in the top of the seventh inning to grab a 7-5 win from the Navy in last night's only city softball activity.

Orin Carver started the rally with a homer to lead off the inning and the Lions added three more before the third out.

Spud Chandler pitched brilliant 1-hit ball for the Lions but some sloppy fielding by his mates accounted for the Navy's five runs.

Glen Matheson got the only hit off Chandler, a double.

Dick Doyle allowed 9-hits in taking the loss. Besides his homer Carver clipped a pair of singles for a perfect night at the plate and Tiger Bradley and Merle Longaphie hit triples for the Lions.

Bradley for the Lions and Clapton for the Navy turned in outstanding games afield.

Indians Dump Yanks 7-3

Research Board Tagging Trout

"Anglers in this province have nothing to fear in regard to the quantity and quality of trout still available in the streams which are seen on every hand," Dr. M. W. Smith, Director of the Fisheries Research Board with headquarters at the Fisheries Biological Station, St. Andrew's, N.B. said yesterday.

Dr. Smith, assisted by his associates had just completed an amazing demonstration on the stream at Covehead, where Wilf Saunders, Claude Hayes and Harold Ross of the Ellerslie Station had set up the electrofishing apparatus which proved the truth of his assertion. As Mr. Saunders stepped into the shallow stream, which gave no indication of trout activity, a preliminary thrust of his no-less-than-magic wand under overhanging bushes brought dozens of fish to the surface. These were quickly netted and placed in a floating cage to be later examined for previous tagging, or tagged for release.

With monotonous regularity, a wave of the electrofisher along the shore line, just under water, brought the speckled beauties in all sizes out into the open. The extremity reached in this respect was a trout measuring 17 ½ in. long and weighing three pounds one ounce, and several young salmon measuring under three inches long. These figures are official but not for prize winning purposes.

Questioned further regarding the work of the Fisheries Research Board, Dr. Smith said that their chief activity here was to determine the need or otherwise, of re-stocking the streams, adding that the numerous tests made this year and on previous occasions indicated a liberal and sustained run of fish in all areas. He also pointed out the interesting fact that the Electrofishing apparatus is not effective in salt water.

SITUATION IDEAL

Two American officials Dr. D. A. Webster of Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., Professor of Fishing Biology and Dr. W. H. Everhart State of Maine Inland Fish and Game Department who accompany Dr. Smith, were deeply interested in the work as demonstrated here. "We find the situation ideal in various streams and the experiments are working perfectly", Dr. Webster said." This method is not new to us but is much better than seining to determine the trout or salmon population of a given stream." This is the first trip of the American officials to the Island which they are enjoying very much.

Hon. Dougald MacKinnon, Minister of Natural Resources who witnessed the demonstration for the first time, was amazed at what had been proven and pleased to learn that anglers continue to have ample scope for their endeavours. The Minister was accompanied by the Deputy Minister, P. A. Murnaghan and others from the Department including Tom Lothian, biologist, J. S. Jenkins, Provincial fish and game officer, and B. Graham Rogers, F. K. MacNutt, president of the P. E. Island Fish and Game Association and representatives of the press were also present on invitation.

Midget Matmen Feature Wrestling Card Tonight

The wrestlers are in town and the Island's followers of the matmen will again get a chance to see them in action in the third mat card of the season at the Forum tonight.

Four fierce midgets will headline the card and a pair of heavyweights will meet in a three fall match with no time limit in the curtain raiser.

Little Beaver and Tiny Tim will be partners in a tag team match against Fuzzy Cupid and the ferocious Major Tom Thumb when the little men go at each other in the main event.

All four are somewhat of T. V. celebrities and are no strangers to American televiewers appeared in many telecast bouts all over the U. S. They are currently, making a tour of the maritimes and reports from Halifax and Truro say that they really put on a great crowd — pleasing show.

Len Hughes will need no introduction to local fans having appeared here many times before and has always been a great favorite. His bouts will have an international flavor as his opponent is a gentleman from Turkey, although according to his reputation he is no "gentleman". The Terrible Turk, Ali Pasha decked out in red fez and long beard, is said to be the possessor of a terrifying hold called the "cobraslock" that can render an opponent insensible in a matter of seconds.

Len will have to dig deep into his bag of tricks if he is to emerge with a win over this opponent.

The first match will get underway at 9 p.m. daylight time.
