Odds and Ends.

A colored servant sweeping out a bachelor's room found a sixpence on the carpet, which he carried to the owner.

"You may keep it for your honesty," said he.

A short time after he missed his gold pencil case and inquired of his servant if he had seen it.

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"And what did you do with it?"

"Kept it for my honesty sir!"

A Sunday school teacher asked a little girl who was the first man. She answered that she did know. The question was then put to an Irish girl, who answered, "Adam sir," with apparent satisfaction. "La!" said the first child, "you needn't feel so grand about it---he wasn't an Irishman!"

Innocence—the pet lamb that strayed away off, years ago, from the rest of the flock, and hasn't been heard from since.

We see, said Swift, in one of his most sarcastic moods, what God thinks of riches by the people He gives them to.

Struggles in life are wont to bring us out; unless indeed, it be with a policeman, in which cases it may take us still further in.

"Why, Hans, you have the most feminine case of countenance I have ever seen." "Oh yah," replied Hans; "the reason of dat is because my mother was a woomans."

It pays to advertise, even in Honolulu. A lady advertised the loss of her canary bird in the Pacific Commercial Advertiser and in a day or two the little warbler came back and entered its cage.

PHILOLOGICAL.—There is an old fancy that the word devil is wholly composed of what is inimical to man; as thus:—Devil—Evil—Vil(e)—Il(l)—L(hell).

On a certain occasion of an eclipse in Virginia a colored individual became greatly elated. "Bress de lord," said he "de nigger's time have come at last, and now we's gwine to hab a black sun."

"Westward, ho!" exclaims a western exchange. We should say a fellow might as well hoe eastward as westward, since he had got to dig for a living wherever he may be.

"Do you seek consolation for your sorrows in drink?" asked a pious old lady of an intemperate fellow, who was something of wag. "Yes, in a horn," was the laconic and witty reply.

"I say, ma," exclaimed a little minx of thirteen, "do you know what the pyrotechnical remedy is for a crying infant?" "Gracious goodness, me, no; I never heard of such a thing!" "Well, ma, it's rocket."

It was an old bachelor who said, "if you meet a young lady who is not very shy, you had better be a little shy yourself.

Why is a baby like wheat? Ans.—Because it is first cradled, than thrashed, and finally becomes the flower of the family.

"My dear sir," said a candidate, accosting a sturdy wag on the day of election, "I am very glad to see you." "You needn't—I've voted," replied the wag.

Some one, wishing to be witty on a gentleman with a large mouth, asked him if he had a long lease of that mouth of his, when he was good-humoredly answered, "No, I have it only from year to year.

A countryman stated in a conference meeting lately that if men were not born totally depraved they became so "pretty middlin' early.

Didn't you say, sir, that this horse wouldn't shy before the fire of an enemy?"

"No more he won't—it isn't till after the fire he shies."

A pedagogue was about to flog a pupil for having said he was a fool, when the boy cried out:

"O, don't! don't! I won't call you so any more! I'll never say what I think again in all the days of my life."

A dandy, strutting about a tavern, took up a pair of green spectacles which lay on the table, put them on his nose, and, turning to the looking-glass, said:

"Landlord, how do these become me? Don't you think they improve my looks?"

"I think they do," replied the landlord, "they hide part of your face."

The Irish judge, Day, was a remarkable tall man, and an intimate friend of Sir Arthur Clarke, who was almost a dwarf. It was a standing joke with the wags of Dublin to liken the colossal judge and his diminutive companion to the twenty-first of June, inasmuch as they jointly constituted the longest Day and the shortest Knight.

A little girl, after returning from church where she saw a collection taken up for the first time, related what took place, and among other things, she said, with all her childish innocence. "That a man passed a round a plate that had some money on it, but I didn't take any."

"It's a good thing to have a handsome penman for a beau," said Mary, as she glanced over a billet-doux. "Yes," replied Julia, "if the penman is only handsome, I don't care how ugly the penmanship is."

A schoolmaster asked one of his scholars in the winter time what was the Latin for cold. "Oh, sir," answered the lad, "I forget at this moment, although I have it at my finger's ends."

Sir Boyle Roche once said, in reference to several persons, all relations to each other, but who happened to have no descendants, that "it seemed to be hereditary in their family to have no children."

A lady's cheek is described as the poetical abode of the rose; but we are not told what kind of a rose. When an ardent lover steals a kiss, we suppose it is a "cabbage rose."

A young lady must make a hit if she dislike to be a miss.

When you pass a door after nine o'clock at night, and see a young man and woman, and hear a smack, you may bet your bottom dollar that the young man don't live there.

NEW YORK

LIFE INUSRANCE COMPANY.

Assets, January 1st, 1868,

Over Ten Million Dollars

PRESIDENT:
MORRIS FRANKLIN, ESQ.,
Vice President and Actuary:
WILLIAM H. BEERS, JR.
HEAD OFFICE 112 & 114 Broadway, N.Y.
General Agent for the Dominion of Canada:
WALTER BURKE, Esq.,
Herald Buildings, Montreal.

The New York Life Insurance Company

OLDEST INSTITUTIONS

Of the kind in America, having been chartered in the year 1841, and commenced business in May, 1845. During the twenty-three years of its existence it has issued policies upon the lives of more than Fifty Thousand Persons.

and has paid in losses $5,000,000 to the families and representatives of those who have deceased while members of the Company.

Annual Income
EXCEEDS Four Million Dollars.

A SAFE INVESTMENT.

The instances are many within the experience of every Life Insurance Company, in which the proceeds of a Policy has saved from poverty the survivors of those who have thus made provision for their wants in times of prosperity and health. A wife may insure the life of her husband for her own benefit, and should she survive him, the amount of the insurance will be payable to her free from any claims against his estate; and in case of the death of the wife before that of the husband, the amount of the insurance may be made payable to her children.

THE COMPANY DECLARES ANNUAL CASH DIVIDENDS,
which are available in payment of each Annual Premium. All the insured in this Company receive dividends which can be used in part of the second and each subsequent Annual Premium thereafter; or the dividend may be allowed to accumulate, and subsequently used in whole or in part in the payment of Premiums. The business of the Company being PURELY MUTUAL, each member pays only the average cost of insurance, all surplus being annually returned to the Policy holders. (Companies having a Stock Capital usually retain a large portion for the Stockholders.) The Dividends paid to Policy holders exceed $3,000,000.

Endowment Assurance Policies.

These Policies are coming into general request As a sure and profitable investment for one's declining years, they deserve the attention of all. The sum secured by an ordinary life policy becomes available upon the death of the assured; on the Endowment plan the amount is received by the assured himself upon his attaining a specified age, while full provision is made for death occurring prior thereto.

THE NON-FORFEITURE PLAN.

This company originated and introduced the valuable feature known as the Non-Forfeiture Plan which is rapidly superseding the old system of life long payments, and has revolutionized the system of Life Insurance in the United States, and which has been adopted (generally in a less favorable form) by all Life Companies. A party, by this table, after the second year, cannot forfeit any part of what has been paid in.

INK. INK. INK.

CARTER'S
Combined Writing & Copying INK!

THIS COMBINATION INK has been awarded the highest premiums over all others in the United States, and pronounced by the most celebrated Chemists the best ink ever offered to the public.

It is used by many of the largest commercial houses, Banks, Railroads, and other Corporations, and gives perfect satisfaction.

The Advantages of this over other Inks, are:

FIRST.—It flows freely from the pen, and does not thicken by exposure to the air.

SECOND.—It will give a perfect and instantaneous copy.

THIRD—It will not mould.

FOURTH—Being equally as good for copying as for Book-keeping, it entirely does away with the use of two kinds of ink.

FIFTH—It is more permanent than common Inks.

SIXTH—The color, when first written, is a beautiful dark green, but in a remarkably short time it changes to a brilliant jet black—not a brownish black.

SEVENTH—It is admirably adapted to the most delicate writing, and always 'makes its mark.'

The Ink is warranted to flow as freely as any other writing fluid now in use; to give as perfect a copy as any copying Ink; and not to mould.

This Ink is for sale at HARVIE'S BOOKSTORE.

THE CHURCH UNION.

THIS Paper has been recently enlarged to mammoth proportions. IT IS THE LARGEST RELIGIOUS PAPER IN THE WORLD. Is the leading organ of the Union Movement, and opposes ritualism, close communion, exclusiveness and church caste. It is the only paper that publishes HENRY WARD BEECHER'S Sermons, which it does every week, just as they are delivered,—without qualification or correction by him. It advocates universal suffrage; a union of christians at the polls; and the rights of labor. It has the best Agricultural Department of any paper in the world; publishes stories for the family, and for the destruction of social evils. It editorial management is impersonal; its writers and editors are from every branch of the church, and from every grade of society. It has been aptly termed the freest organ of thought in the world.

Such a paper, offering premiums of Sewing Machines, Dictionaries, Appleton's Cyclopedia, Pianos, Organs for Churches, etc., makes one of the best papers for canvassers in the world.

Every congregation may obtain a Communion Service, an Organ, a Melodeon, a Bible, or a Life Insurance Policy for its Pastor, or almost any other needful thing, by a club of subscribers.

Send for a copy, enclosing 10 cents, to
