DURING the summer months the "Y's" Flower Mission Committee will meet on Saturday afternoon. As they are about commencing their work among the sailors they will be glad to receive at their room, Grafton Street, papers, magazines, or any kind of good reading matter, also flowers for the sick. Will friends kindly make a note of this and send in their donations as early as possible.

SEAM OF COAL FOUND.—Mr. M. Vanbuskirk thinks that a valuable find of coal has been made on his farm on the McLaughlin road, about two and a half miles from town. Last week Mr. Vanbuskirk engaged a man to bore for water on his place. After the man had bored a foot, Mr. Vanbuskirk says, he struck two feet of red fire clay, then about a four foot seam of coal. Mr. Vanbuskirk has communicated with the mining authorities at Fredericton and leased an area of five miles adjoining his farm. Already two prominent Monctonians have offered to go shares with Mr. Vanbuskirk, but the latter has declined. He and his father, Mr. Jacob Vanbuskirk, will form a partnership and will prospect for coal on their own hook.—Moncton Times.

THE BOSTON STEAMER.—The Halifax arrived from Boston last evening and left on return this afternoon. Her inward passengers were: P. M. Her outward passengers were: Mrs. Thomas Eaman, John Stetson, Ambrose Callaghan, John Kelly, Emily Campbell, Mrs. A. McGregor, Miss Gaffney, Maggie Beattie, Ida Marshall and Lawrence Murphy.

THE JOSIE MILLS COMPANY.

The Josie Mills company opened their second week at the academy last night in the beautiful domestic comedy "Dad's Girl," to a good-sized audience. It can safely be said that the performance was the best given by a repertoire company here for some time. The costuming of the ladies was a very pretty feature. Indeed, few companies visiting Halifax dressed as elaborately as the ladies of this company did last evening. Miss Mills, in the double role of Mercy Baxter and Lucy Ashow, gave a polished performance. This talented lady is winning her way into the good graces of the Halifax theatre-goers more and more and can now be classed as a Halifax favorite. She appeared to great advantage last evening and her work was highly appreciated. The other members of the cast acquitted themselves well. The specialties were well received.—Halifax Herald.

This excellent dramatic company will commence a week's engagement at the Opera House on Monday evening presenting some great plays. The opening play will be Sim's & Petti's great English melodrama, Master and Man. Miss Mills has established a new idea in dramatic productions this season by not having any waits between the acts. As soon as the acts are over a specialty is introduced thus making this a continuous performance.

Lonjumeau, near Paris, has erected a monument to Adolphe Adam, who made the little town famous by writing Le Postillon de Longjumeau, the opera in which Wachtel, the tenor and former postboy, made his reputation. The professional manner in which Wachtel snapped his whip was almost as effective as his high C.

Nansen's discovery of deep water in the Arctic ocean leads M. de Apparent to infer that the Antarctic continent is of equal extent and has on it mountains of a height corresponding to Nansen's ocean soundings. From this he goes on to deduce the theory that the earth is top-shaped and spins, with the South Pole for its point.

A SHIPPER'S MISTAKE.—We've just opened a handsome line of Frilled Muslin Curtains and Curtain Muslins, plain and fancy, white and colored, the very latest novelties. By mistake these were shipped too late so we'll clear them at 25 per cent. discount. Moore and McLeod.

Of Interest to Cyclists.

After a spin you get thirsty and tired. Put up your wheel in one of our bicycle stands and come in and have a glass of our delicious Soda Water.

It's quite the style now for ladies, when asked to have a glass of Soda, to say, "yes," if you mean Johnson's.

HOW TO LOSE A CLOTHING REPUTATION

The customer who buys any or every merchant's clothing takes his reputation in his hand, is a mighty easy thing to go wrong in if the dealer has little or nothing at stake.

READYMADE CLOTHING

The only proper way to buy readymade clothing is to get it of a merchant who has a reputation to lose if it proves to be shoddy. We have been in the clothing business for 16 years. In that time we think we may say we have built up a reputation for scrupulously fair dealing. Our reputation is our best asset.

It's this condition that makes the selling of Clothing just as risky to us as to you. We have fully as much if not more to lose if the clothing is bad. Suppose we sell; it goes to pieces or does not turn out as you expect; you immediately blame us, and smash goes the work of 16 years. We can't afford to take chances on the clothing we sell, neither can you or those you buy from.

We are selling Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing this spring upon which we are willing to stake our past, present or future reputation.

Our goods are all guaranteed the best, our assortment is guaranteed the largest, our prices are guaranteed the lowest.

With our past reputation and a large assortment to choose from, what more do you want?
