HOPE.

What meaning's in this word so often breathed
By young and old, by woman, man, and boy,
What lovely visions does, and has it wreathed,
For those who are of Fortune but the toy!
What has it quelled, what raised, what lulled to rest
Within the throbbing, anxious, loving, breast.

Hope! 'tis, oh what! alas, a luring gleam,
Which dazzles, pleases, quickly fades away,
And leaves us helpless in a troubled dream,
Where doubt, despair, around us sport and play.
Thus on thro' life at intervals' 'twill cheer,
And is but constant when Death! hovers near.

Tho' Hope's a beacon reared on shifting sand,
A light which grows, and lessens, lures, beguiles,
At times a bursting Bark to rocky strand,
Still do we follow, love its mystic smiles,
Sigh when it leaves us, watch with eager eye
Its rays returning in our sunless sky.

Hope then's the "ignis-fatuus" of life,
'T beams o'er our cradle, and our riper years,
Adds to prosperity, assuages strife,
Struggles with sorrow, adversity cheers.
Death takes us hence, but marble breathes this word,
O'er our cold ashes, in, "Here lies interred."

VARIETIES.

TOUCHING DELICACY.

There were many little occurences which suggested to me, with great consolation. how natural it is to gentle hearts to be considerate and delicate towards any inferiority. One of these particularly touched me. I happened to stroll into the little church when a marriage was just concluded, and the young couple had to sign the register. The bridegroom, to whom the pen was handed first, made a rude cross for his mark; the bride, who came next, did the same.

Now, I had known the bride when I was last there, not only as the prettiest girl in the place, but as having quite distinguished herself in the school; and I could not help looking at her with some surprise. She came aside and whispered to me, while tears of honest love and admiration stood in her bright eyes:

"He's a dear good fellow, Miss; but can't write yet; he's going to learn of me—and I wouldn't shame him for the world!"

Why, what had I to fear, I thought, when there was this nobility in the soul of a laboring man's daughter!—Bleak House.

THE POET'S DOG.

The manner in which Pope, the great English poet, was perserved by the uncommon sagacity of his dog is truly remarkable. This animal, which was called Marquis, could not agree with a favourite servant of this illustrious writer; he constantly growled when near him, and would even show his teeth when this servant approached. Although the English poet was singularly attatched to this dog, (which was a spaniel of the largest species), yet on account of extreme neatness which he pushed almost to excess, he would never allow him to remain in his chamber. Nevertheless, in spite of the most positive orders, the spaniel would frequently sneak towards evening into the apartment, of his master, and would not be driven from it without the greatest difficulty. One evening, having slipped in very softly without being perceived, the animal placed himself under the bed of his master, and remained there scarcely breathing. Towards morning, the servant rushed hastily into the chamber of Pope. At this moment the faithful dog suddenly left his post and leaped on the villain who was armed with a pistol. The poet started from his sleep he threw open the window to call for assistance, and beheld three highwaymen, who had been introduced by his servant into the garden, of his villa for the purpose of robbing him of his most valuable possessions after having assissinated him. Disconcerted by this unforeseen accident. the robbers hesitated a moment, and then took flight. The servant thus betrayed by the watchful dog was sentenced to forfeit his life. How powerful must have been the instinct of this faithful animal, by whose astonishing sagacity was thus preserved the life of a man of whose fame England may justly be proud.

The same dog, shortly after this singular event, exhibited another proof of his remarkable instinct. Pope, reposing one afternoon in a little wood about three leagues distant from his house, lost a watch of great value. On returning home, the poet wished to know the hour, and found the watch was not in his pocket. Two or three hours had elapsed, and a voilent storm was just commencing. The poet called his dog, and making a sign which Marquis well understood, he said "I have lost my watch —go look for it." At these words Marquis departed, quick as the flash which lighted his steps, and repaired, no doubt, to every spot at which his master had stopped. It so happened that the poor animal was so long occupied in the search as to create great anxiety, for midnight had arrived and he had not yet returned. What was the astonishment of Pope, when on rising in the morning, he opened his door; and there beheld his faithful messenger lying quietly and holding in his mouth the splended jewel which he had returned perfectly uninjured, and which was the more highly valued by the poet, as it had been presented to him by the Queen of England.

A noble lord, not over courageous, was once so far engaged in an affair of honor, as to be drawn to Hyde Park to fight a duel; but just as he came to the porter's lodge, an empty hearse came by, on which his lordship's antagonist, who was a droll officer, well known, called out to the driver—"Stop here, my good fellow, a few minutes, and I'll send you a fare" This operated so strongly on his lordship's nerves that he begged the officer's pardon, and returned home in a whole skin.

Never Failing Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS —AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG.

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully,

(Signed) WALKER & Co.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—
