THOS. OWEN, Post Master General.

General Post Office, Oct. 25, 1852.

THE Rev. W. STEWART lately settled at Georgetown, having rented the very commodious dwelling-house formerly occupied by the Rev. Mr. PANTER, is desirous to have a select number of genteel lads to be instructed in the Classics and Mathematics.

As he expects his brother very soon to reside with him, who is competent to assist in teaching, he hopes that he may be able to do ample justice to Pupils entrusted to his care.

As he expects a Housekeeper, a member of his own family, who will take an interest in his affairs, he hopes that no attention will be wanting to render young lads boarding with him comfortable and happy.

Should persons at Charlottetown, desirous to have their sons instructed in the Classics, kindly patronize his undertaking, he hopes that he may be able to give ample satisfaction in the way of improvement.

Mr. Stewart will consider it his duty (should he succeed in getting a small number of pupils) to endeavour to advance their welfare, not only during School hours, but also in other leisure moments; by stimulating them to laudable exertion in their studies, by seasonably checking evil habits to which any of them might be addicted, also, both by precept and example, to recommend a life of virtue and piety as the best course to secure peace and comfort in this world; and happiness in that which is to come.

Terms will be moderate both for Boarding and Tuition; exceeding but very little, the amount usually paid in Academies, and Classic Seminaries.

Persons who might be disposed to send pupils, are requested to intimate their intentions as soon as may be convenient.
