BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE AND THE BRITISH REVIEWS. L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:— 1. THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Consecrative). 2. THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig). 3. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church). 4. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal). 5. BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

The present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the lowly written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rhapsody of the daily Journal, and the ponderous Tomes of the further journals, written after the living interest and excitement of our last political events of the time shall have passed away. These Periodicals, that readers must look for the only member of the British press, which has a history of events, and as such, observation to their well-established literary, scientific, and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.
