LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

To Correspondents.—We have no spare space for "Prudentia's" letter.

Crowded Out.—An article anent the leader in the last Summerside Progress, is crowded out of this issue of the Examiner.

The Carnival.—We need hardly remind our Charlottetown readers, that the second Carnival at the "Citizen's Skating Rink," takes place to-morrow evening.

Election.—Writs are out for the election of a Legislative Councillor for the first electoral district of Prince County. Nomination day is on the 8th and election day on the 15th of March.

Business Change.—F. T. Newbery, Esq., has taken R. A. Nicholson, Esq., into partnership. The new firm, which has our best wishes, will be known by the name of "F. T. Newbery & Co."

National Insurance Co.—By advertizement in another column, it will be seen that the "National Insurance Company," of Montreal, has established an agency in Charlottetown. James DesBrisay, Esq., is its Agent for this Island.

'A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever.'—Hyacinths, jonquils, tulips, snowdrops, roses, lillies, etc., etc., in full bloom at the Conservatory, Euston Street, near the St. Peter's Road, cheap for cash.—2i [feb. 21

All parties not settling their accounts due to Chas. Otto Winkler immediately, will be sued without distinction of persons.

Just received, a car-load of Narrows Oysters, at the Union House. 2in

Zion Church.—The Tea and Entertainment to be provided by the ladies of this Church, in Market Hall, on Thursday evening, for the purpose of paying off the the Church's debt, will doubtless be second to none given this season.' We hope to see it well patronized.

Picture on Tam O'Shanter.—We have much pleasure in announcing that Professor Caven has consented to deliver a lecture under the auspices of the Charlottetown Debating Club. We anticipate a rare literary and intellectual treat. The lecture will, we understand, be delivered on or about the 17th March.

A Stormy Passage.—Cookhaven, Feb. 7—The G. W., brigantine, Hogan, (oats), from Prince Edward Island, has arrived here for orders, and the captain reports that on the 21st, 22d, 25th, 28th and 29th of January, the vessel experienced strong gales from S. E. to N. N. W., in which one man was washed overboard; mainsail, bulwarks, binnacles and compass carried away; vessel makes considerable quantity of water.

Temperance.—The people of Graham's Road and Clifton, N. L were last week visited by a Deputation of Sons of Temperance from Charlottetown. The Deputation consisted of C. F. Harris, Esq., G. C., G. W. Millner, Esq., G. C. P. W. Ps. Full, and Hayden, G. Conductor Chappell, and G. Treasurer Jury. On Wednesday evening the 16th inst., a large public meeting was addressed by the members of the Deputation; and by Messrs. Found, Mallett, Campbell and others.

Fancy Ball.—The Fancy Ball at Rideau Hall, on the evening of 23rd inst., was attended by nearly six hundred guests. The costume of Vice Regal party was superb; but it was equalled in some cases by dresses worn by private citizens. The Premier appeared in Highland costume, and Mrs. MacKenzie as the Duches of Buchan. Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Dufferin and staff and household represented the Court of King James, Fifth, Viscount Clandeboye and Lady Helen Blackwood, personating characters of Lord Darnley and Princess Mary.

Newspaper Decisions.—1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office—whether directed to his name or another's, or whether he has subscribed or not is responsible for the payment. 2. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not. 3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

A Dastardly Act.—One evening last week, a tramp, hailing from Truro, Nova Scotia, who calls himself 'William McRae,' craved charity at the hands of a respectable farmer residing at North River. As his feet were frozen, and as he appeared in every respect an object of charity, he was taken in and made comfortable. Two or three mornings afterwards the farmer was awakened by the noise of a scuffle in his daughter's bedroom; and upon repairing thither he was somewhat astonished to find the 'tramp' there. The tramp is now lying in Queen's County jail, on the charge of 'assault with intent to rape.'

Earle's Variety Concert.—Those who went to Mr. Earle's Variety Concert on the exceedingly stormy evening of Friday last, enjoyed a rich treat. Our best amateur performers took part. Messrs. Earle, Vinnicombe, Worth and W. H. Bremner, supplied instrumental music of a very high character; while Mrs. Nicholson, Miss Palmer, Messrs. Hermans, Beer, Fraser, Bolton, Henderson and Harris, contributed to the vocal department music of a superior order. A special feature of the entertainment was the performance of the "Charlottetown Amateur Minstrels." No troupe of professionals ever visited Charlottetown to compare with them in style of acting or in musical ability. The "tamborine player" and "bones," are both accomplished artists in their way. We regret that the night was so stormy and cold that the audience was necessarily small.

Grand Lodge F. & A. M.—The annual communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons at Prince Edward Island was held in Charlottetown, commensing on Wednesday, the 10th February. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Hon. John Yeo, M. W. Grand Master,
Thomas A. McLean, R. W. Dep'y G'd Master,
William T. Hunt, R. W. Sen'r Grand Warden,
George A. Aitken, R. W. Jun'r Grand Warden,

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Railway Mismanagement.—We hear many bitter complaints respecting the management of the Railway. There has been little or no communication during the past week.

Well Laid Plan to Rob the Bank of Rustico.—On Saturday night the Bank of Rustico was broken into; but as the robber had mistaken the whereabouts of the cash, no money was taken. As soon as the bootless attempt was discovered, on Sunday morning, a messenger set off for Charlottetown. On the road, the messenger passed a suspicions looking customer, but said nothing and passed on. Arrived in this city, he obtained a warrant from the Mayor and the services of Policeman Shea, and started to return. A short distance beyond the Three Mile Run, the suspicious looking character before alluded to was met and taken in charge. A small valise which he carried, contained the following articles: 1 candle, 2 coal chisels, 1 mortizing chisel, 1 flask containing powder, 3 fuses, and last, but not least, 1 bag to hold the money. On his person was one half cent in cash. He gave his name as Archibald Kelly, and says he is from Halifax County, Nova Scotia. He will be examined to-morrow.

Wide Awake for February is a noticeable number of this rapidly-growing magazine for the children and young folks. The engravings are unusually fine. The magazine opens with an excellent picture by Miss C. A. Northam, illustrating a charming Valentine story by Mrs. Mary E. Bradley. 'How They Made it Up.' Of the two serials, 'The Cooking Club,' by Ella Farman, the editor, is full of deeper wisdom than commonly goes to the making of a juvenile story, while 'Young Rick,' by Miss Eastman, has few equals. Fanny Roper Feudge, the accomplished traveller, furnishes an entertaining paper, "Among the Parsees.' But the two distinguishing features of Wide Awake this month are the long letter in the 'Poets Homes' series, relative to Mrs. J. D. T. Whitney, and the initial paper of the 'Behaving' series. The latter is prepared by the author of The Ugly Girl Papers.' It is not made up of stale injunctions and Chesterfieldian maxims, but is thoroughly live and modern like Wide Awake itself. None of our young people can afford to be without the magazine while these articles upon etiquette are being published. The remaining contents are varied, story, poem, and paper, with several admirably sustained departments. Dr. Tourjee's musicial page contains a hint of infinite value to every person who teaches music to children. Only $2.00 per annum. D. Lothrop & Co., Boston.

Success in Study.—The reason one gets a lesson so much quicker than another is, we think, because he controls his thoughts and centres them for a time intensely upon his lesson, to the exclusion of all other matters. When Dr. Johnson studied he lost all consciousness of external surroundings, and became completely buried in the subject before him; and thus it was that he could repeat whole poems of whole chapters out of the book, after reading them once. Hence we say if we judiciously employ our time, intensely apply ourselves when we study, we may have leisure. And, indeed, if we did not care for leisure, yet it is much better for the mind to be worked intensely, while it is worked, than carelessly or loosely.

PARLIAMENTRY.

To Reading Room and Examiner.

Ottawa, Feb. 24.—Mr. Cartwright's budget speech to-morrow keeps all sections of politicians on the tip-toe of expectation. It is known that he favors an increased tariff to meet the deficits of over a million which must occur in spite of the reduction of expenditure approaching six millions. Those opposed to an increased tariff advise the issue of a million or more Dominion notes redeemable in a certain time. The majority of the Maritime Province Members, strongly oppose any change in the existing tariff. They informed the Premier of their views through Mr. Church, to-day.

It was acknowledged by the guests from all parts of the United States and Canada, that nothing to equal the Ball in magnificence has ever been seen on the Continent.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—The Finance Minister enlarged very fully on the state of the country in his budget speech last evening, and his utterances, owing to peculiar circumstances of the year, excited an unusual degree of interest. There is no alteration made in the tariff, and the Government look to make both ends meet by a reduction in expenditure.

Dr. Tupper criticised the speech, and policy of Mr. Cartwright, blaming the Government for having made an increase on every item of expenditure since coming into power, and otherwise animadverting on the government policy.

New York, Feb. 25.—General Babcock was acquitted at St. Louis yesterday, of complications in the whiskey fraud at that place.

CORRESPONDENCE.

A MARINE BOARD.

Mr. Editor:—I observe, in your last issue, a letter signed 'Main-brace,' bearing upon the subject of the proposed Marine Board; and whilst agreeing to a great extent with the remarks of your correspondent, I think he is somewhat hard upon 'ye ancient mariners.'

There is no doubt last year's losses to our shipping were unusually great; but, I think, if 'Main-brace' will take the trouble to ascertain, he will discover that this Province fared no worse than its neighbors in that respect, and considering the extremely tempestuous weather these latitudes experienced towards the close of the season, it was not to be wondered at. I might here say that nearly all the losses that occured happened to vessels commanded by men of well-known ability and experience as seamen, and cannot, nor should not be attributed to any other cause than the weather, over which they had no control.

The Marine Board will be a boon to this Island, especially to our young seamen, giving them an opportunity to qualify as masters and mates, without being subjected to the loss of time and expense which they are necessarily put to at present in repairing to Halifax or some other port, where a Board of Examiners exists.

My old friend, 'Skipper Foley,' remarked to me the other day, that 'he hoped the government would see that they appointed competent men on this Board, or he feared the next thing they would have to do would be to advertise for tenders to build a board fence from here to the Gut, as he believed there were a good many paper-collared gentry now holding certificates of competency, who, if left to themselves, would not find their way that distance without some such guide,'—and I am of opinion that my nautical friend is not far astray in his remark.

It is, doubtless, a matter of some importance, and if conducted by incompetent persons may bring discredit, not only upon themselves, but the whole Province,—which has hitherto enjoyed a fair share of merit for producing men not only able to navigate the globe, but also of transacting the business (often of a complicated nature) which necessarily falls to their care, with credit to themselves and profit to their owners.

Concurring with 'Main-brace' in the hope that the government may lose no time in appointing a competent Board,

I am, sir, yours, etc.,
Ben Backstay.
