Crisp December weather has revived, inspiring the usual round of social events. News of coffee parties, afternoon teas, bridge and other house calling are only a few of the interludes the Guardian Evening Patriot women are well known to publish free of charge. Do you have visitors? Perhaps a former student who has returned would like to contact.

If you are planning a holiday party, a shower or entertaining your club, phone 4-8506 and help make the social column inter-esting.

Executives of Girl Guides Hold Meeting At Montague

The regular monthly Executive meeting of the P.E.I. Council Girl Guides of Canada was held on Thursday evening, Dec. 10 in the Elementary School, Montague.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. P. M. Avard, provincial commissioner.

Two of the Girl Guides from Kings County who had attended Heritage Camp during the past summer were guests. These girls were Carol Ferguson of the 1st Montague Company, who took part in the P.E.I. Camp at Brassey Beach, and Donna Macaulay of the 1st Souris Company who journeyed to Newfoundland as part of the Heritage Camp at Beachy Cove, near St. John's. Both girls entertained the executive with their accounts of camp life and various points of interest they had visited.

Mary Haworth Self Conscious Woman Should Move Up Socially

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Instead of trying this plea for enlightenment, I am sending it in my own handwriting.

Does it look like the writing of a show off who needs cutting down to size at times? Or a masochist who enjoys being humiliated in public? The minute a female is as pretentious to asking: "What is it about me that makes me a target for sarcastic witticisms, female variety?"

I am 33, as average looking as Helen Hayes, high school education, income in the $7,500 bracket, on which I have put my son within reach of his Ph.D.

Why is it that I can carry on a friendly interesting conversation with certain intelligent articulate females as long as there are only two of us present? The minute a third party is present (male or female), the other woman is "on stage" and I am, too, as Old Stupid, the straight man for such cracks as "Read up or shut up," or "If you ever stop talking long enough to think, you would know the answer," etc.—samples from two different conversations.

Holiday Wassail Bowl

Reward Christmas tree - trim with Mrs. A. J. Carol singers with a luscious steaming wassail bowl of Florida orange and grapefruit juices, sweet cider and aromatic spices.

The tradition of wassailing comes from England, where it is a custom to sing and play a horn to the guests with the words "wassail" and "hal," meaning literally "be well" and a hot fruit punch.

This recipe is especially appropriate for the season as it is served from the plump juicy Florida oranges and apples at their peak of flavor.

Wassail Bowl

12 whole cloves
12 whole pieces stick cinnamon
1/2 cup Florida orange juice
1/2 cup Florida grapefruit juice
1/2 quart sweet cider
1 Florida orange
Combine sugar, water, and spices in a deep saucepan; simmer 10 minutes; strain. Add orange juice, grapefruit juice and cider. Reheat and serve hot from a punch bowl. For Christmases garnish cut orange into slices. Place a halved candied cherry in center of each slice. Place pieces of angelica cut to resemble "holly" on both sides of cherry. Float slices on top of punch. YIELD: 2 1/2 cup servings.
