By Order HUGH McNEILL, R. S. P. E. Division.

Little Sande, Oct. 27, 1852.

THE Rev. W. SEWARM lately settled at Georgetown, having rented the very commodious dwelling-house formerly occupied by the Rev. Mr. PANTER, is desirous to have a select number of gentlemen to be interested in the Classics and Mathematics.

As he expects his former pupils to reside with him, who is content to assist in teaching, he hopes that he may be able to do ample justice to Pupils entrusted to his care.

Persons who are desirous to be members of his own family, who will take an interest in his affairs, he hopes that no attention will be wanting to render young ladies boarding with him comfortable and happy.

Should persons at Charlottetown, desirous to have their sons interested in the Classics, kindly patronize his undertaking, he hopes that he may be able to give ample satisfaction in their studies, by reasonably cheap private habits to which any of them might be admitted, also, both by precept and example, to recommend the virtues and piety as the best course to secure peace and comfort in this world; and happiness in that which is to come.

Persons who are desirous to be members of his own family, who will take an interest in his affairs, he hopes that no attention will be wanting to render young ladies boarding with him comfortable and happy.
