IS THE BEST. TAKE NO OTHER.

Let her meet him with a kiss—not a frown. Let each realize the fact that they are one. Let the husband frequent his home—not the club. Let him assist her in beautifying the home. Let her not narrate Mrs. Next Door's gossip. Let her not worry him with petty troubles. Let him speak to his wife—not yell "say" at her. Let her make home more pleasant than the club. Let her sympathize with him in business cares. Let him be as courteous after marriage as before. Let his latch key gather unto itself rust from disuse. Let her dress as tastefully for him as for strangers. Let him confide in his wife; their interests are equal. Let her not fret because Mrs. Neighbor has a rich dress. Let her home mean love and rest—not strife and noise.

A BRILLIANT CAREER.
And Its True Frequent Sequel.

Few men in his native city had brighter prospects than Frank L. Young. Young, intelligent, educated, a keen business man, socially popular, and well settled in life, he gave promise of a useful and highly successful career. His business ventures were almost invariably crowned with success, and money flowed into his coffers. Other men in business envied him. But his very success proved the cause of his downfall. He soon became completely engrossed in his business operations, to the exclusion of social pleasure, recreation and even the pleasure of home. But presently his friends began to note a singular change in the man. He grew irritable, uneasy, often morose and morose. His appearance also changed. From an erect and stalwart man he became gaunt and hollow-eyed. The constant mental strain was too much, and in a comparatively short time the man was a complete physical wreck. This was no fancy sketch. The case is a real one, and one of thousands similar. But there is a remedy within the reach of all who are physical systems but have broken down by overwork. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is a perfect nerve restorer and invigorator, and blood and flesh builder, as well as a valuable stomach tonic to aid digestion. It weakens or impairs digestion, or an impoverished or impure condition of the blood, such as nervousness, weakness, nervous headache, sleeplessness, neuralgia, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, hysteria, and the prostrating effects of a gripe, or any nerve weakness of the heart or brain arising from worry, overstrain of mind or body or excesses of any nature. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic has been obtained from all druggists and dealers. Price fifty cents a bottle or six bottles for $2.50.

A Sure Cure for Billoness.

Mr. M. Rooney, a well-known Halifax Merchant, writes: "I am using Hawker's Liver Pills and can recommend them as a sure cure for Billoness." What Mr. Rooney says is endorsed by thousands who have tried these pills. Once tried they are always sought for when the trouble recurs. They are easy to take, exceedingly mild in their action and effective in a marked degree.

How to Get a Sunlight Picture.

This is an easy way to decorate your home. The soap is the best in the market and it will only cost 1c postage to send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends open. Write your address carefully.

The most palatable preparation of Cod Liver Oil in the world is Miller's Emulsion, and it is sold by all druggists and dealers with astonishing success. Miller's is the kind that cures coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Every bottle warranted. No oily taste like other fish livers. 50c. and $1.00, at druggists.

JOHN BURROUGHS, C. F. HOLDER, DR. C. ABBOTT and other writers anxious for their work in this field, will contribute to the Magazine.

Of interest to both Young and Old will be PROF. R. L. GARNER'S AFRICAN EXPEDITION TO THE GOBILAS. Arrangements have been made, in connection with leading English review, to publish Professor Garner's letters descriptive of his recent expedition to Africa. Professor Garner is noted the world over for his curious and interesting investigations he is making in the speech of monkeys. He sailed for Africa last September for the purpose of further pursuing his studies in the native haunts of the gorilla. The illustrations of these articles will be from photographs taken by Prof. Garner in Africa.

McCLURE'S MAGAZINE also contains most interesting articles under the heads "The Edge of the Future," "Newspaper Knowledge of Immediate Value," "The Present Hour," "A Stranger than Fiction," etc.
