CORPORATE CUP COMES HOME!

The 1983 edition of the West Royalty Fitness Centre's CORPORATE CUP is now history. This annual "running meet" for Island corporations was held throughout the month of February at the Spa. The big winner this year was the U.P.E.I. Student Union Team who walked, jogged and ran away with no less than 9 awards, including the corporate cup itself. The team was made up of eight student union members and was sponsored by the Student Union, with assistance from

The first time trials were held on Saturday, February 12th with the Student Union placing first in the "A" Division of the competition. The second leg of the competition was held February and again the U.P.E.I. team were unchallenged for the overall team points victory. The least number of points was used in determining a winner. The Student Union Team had a mere 3 points, with their next closest competition coming from the Belfast Tobacco Growers with 10 points. Individual members of the Student Union Team tore up the track with their times and captured the following awards:

Steve Polenz-fastest 1/4 mile-57.6 secs. Elaine Foote-fastest 1/4 mile-1 min, 9secs. Marlene Costain-fastest 1/2 mile, 2min, 33 secs. Larry MacAdam fastest 1/2 mile, 2 min, 11 secs.

The team also took top honors in the following relay races; The 1 mile, the 2 mile, and the Medley Relay for the A Division. The ninth award picked up by the Student Union Team was a Hilton International Participation Plaque.

Although team members felt they were not treated all that hospitably by some other teams, they found the competition very worthwhile. Some complaints of a "stacked U.P.F.I. Team"were registered by other competitors, but Spa officials (who invited Student Union to enter a team) felt that the Student Union Team was simply the best entry in the field.

On behalf of all UPEI students, we congratulate all members of the corporate team for their time, effort and achievements.
