OBITUARY

PARNELL McCARVILLE

The death of Parnell McCarville occurred on April 4, 1963 at his home in Maple Plains after a lengthy illness. He was born in Kinkora in 1885, son of Bridget Murphy and Owen G. McCarville.

Early in life he went to Vancouver where he became a member of the fire department in 1907. He held the position of lieutenant for seven years, during which time he married Lavinia Sheenan who died in 1918 along with their older daughter, Frances, leaving their daughter, Edna who returned to Prince Edward Island with her father in 1919 to farm.

All the care that could be bestowed by loving hands was given to Parnell by his devoted wife and family. They were ever rewarded by his spirit of christian resignation in the midst of suffering.

During his illness he was frequently visited by his pastor, Reverend Harold Croken who administered to him the last rites of the catholic church. He leaves to mourn his wife, Mary M. Gallant, five sons, and three daughters: Edna Mrs. Louis Hagan, Kelly's Cross; Leo, Ottawa, Ontario; Raymond, Cobourg, Ontario; Lorne, Kinkora, P.E.I.; Emmett, Frances and Mary, Toronto; George at home.

He is also survived by one brother Dominic, Meriden, Conn., and fifteen grandchildren.

His funeral took place on Monday morning April 8, from his home to St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora, where requiem high mass was celebrated by Father Harold Croken. Reverend J. James Smith was present in the sanctuary. Services at the grave were conducted by Father Croken.

His pall bearers were his four sons, Raymond, Lorne, Emmett, and George, son-in-law, Louis Hagan, and brother-in-law, Damien Shreenan.
