

ROSES & THORNS

Let me begin this week by welcoming you all back to good old U.P.E.I. I trust that each and every one of you enjoyed your holidays immensely. Also let me take this opportunity to wish you all the best in the year ahead of us.

The hockey Panthers turned in two very solid efforts over the weekend as they defeated U.N.B. in two very important games. Over the holidays the Panthers made some very impressive additions to their lineup. With the return of Callie MacPhail and the addition of Dave Currie and Darwin McCutcheon the Panthers were able to put it all together as they hadn't done very often first semestre.

Let's see what they can do next Sunday against the defending national champions from U. de M. Why not drop down and see the game. They could use your support.

BOUQUET of THORNS:

Hockey Panther Garth Arsenault for "the" punch he threw Saturday night. It was one hell of a punch but there was really no need for it under the circumstances.

BOUQUET of ROSES:

Hockey Panther John Butler for his two goals Saturday. He may not score that many but he is a very steady and dedicated player.

Have a good 1983 and have an enormous week!

blanchard corner

Welcome back readers for a special edition of Blanchard Corner. Yes, it's the same column that put the National Enquirer to shame.

It was at this very time last year that Blanchard Corner predicted an overthrow of the Macdonald presidency by "Red Scare" Palmer. And, what of our new Vice-pres, does he have a face only a Mutter could love?

Ahh! Blanchard Hall, where 9 out of 10 shoppers would trade their Tide for a 6-pack. Also, our consumer watchdog, J.R. Kelly reports the JimBurger beats both the Big Mac and the Whopper!

As our 3 loyal readers are aware, Blanchard Corner is noted for its realistic-in-depth sports coverage. Well, was Blanchard's Men's Softball team exciting to watch in 1982? Not really, but in truth the team is rebuilding and have already traded veteran righthander Lorne Jolliffe to Mean Machine for a 76th round draft pick in 1994.

Meanwhile, the Ladies team won easily, as was the case in 1881. The ladies are also starting a lawn-bowling society in corridor 3-d beginning January 25th.

Contact Janet Braum for further details. you must supply your own bowling ball.

Now for Hockey, and Blanchard quickly established itself as the door-mat of the league. But as the season went on, it got worse, and by the end it was dismal.

Blanchard Honkers ended up 1-8-1, but rumours have it General Manager Bob Pulford was seen talking to Antoyli Kapustin and the Russian Junior Team may leave behind a couple of defectors on P.E.I. Negotiations continue.

Pulford is trying desperately to make up for a deal that sent George Nelson and Lee Walker EKHL bound for Mike McCarthy. By the way, who was it that said Dwight Mac-Donald was washed up as a goalie, he should be our general manager, not Pulford.

At the last House Party, the awards were presented, and you probably didn't even know it. Anyhow, the Nyle Award goes to Blair Hedden home. The Jim Whelan Memorial Trophy for something or other went to Kerry Allen, and finally the Eric Nesterinko Award for outstanding journalism goes to Blanchard Excrement or Expository either way you read it. And that's the way it is.
