4 Top Stars Will Miss Ryder Cup Competition

By HUGH FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The biggest international golf competition in the United States this year—Britain versus the United States for the Ryder Cup—will be played next month without the Open champions of either nation participating.

Also missing from this biennial test between the top professional will be the British PGA champion, David Snell, and the top tournament winner on the U.S. pro circuit, Gene Littler.

Littler and U.S. Open champion Bill Casper likely will get an opportunity to test their skill against the Britons, however, as an ambitious program of competitions has been arranged for the visitors between their arrival here Oct. 20 and the cup match at Palm Desert, Calif., Nov. 7.

The U.S. team was selected entirely on the basis of points earned in tournaments between Aug. 1, 1957 and Sept. 7, 1959. Both Casper and Littler became pros in 1954 and haven't been full-fledged FGA members long enough to earn many points.

GARY PLAYER OUT
Gary Player, the South African winner of the British Open, isn't eligible for this competition and Snell, 25-year-old surprise winner of the British PGA match play title, wasn't picked because his record otherwise wasn't impressive.

Seven of the ten Britons were selected under a point system and three by a committee. Eight of them were members of the 1957 team that beat the U.S. 7½-4½ at Lindrick, England.

The American side includes four of the 1957 players, four newcomers and Sam Snead and Cary Middlecoff, who last played in the cup matches in 1955.

Snead, who played in every Ryder Cup match from 1927 through 1955 and only lost once in singles, is captain of the U.S. team. It also includes Jack Burke, Dow Finsterwald, Doug Ford and Art Wall, survivors of the 1957 beating, and newcomers Julius Boros, Jay Herbert, PGA champion Bob Rosburg and Mike Souchak.

The British side, headed by Dai Rees, who has had even more Ryder Cup experience than Snead, includes Peter Alliss, Ken Bousfield, Eric Brown, Norman Drew, Bernard Hunt, Peter Mills, Christy O'Connor, Dave Thomas and Harry Westman.

Young Soccer Player Faces Tough Job On Welsh Field

SPORT FROM BRITAIN
By ROGER STONEBANKS
LONDON (CP)—A young man in a white shirt with No. 5 on the back faces a nerve-wracking experience on a Welsh soccer field soon.

This man's job is to fill the gap in England's international team left by retirement of Billy Wright, the only man to play center half for his country for the last five years.

Departure of Wright, an automatic choice for the halfback line since his debut in 1946, presents the selectors with a new defensive problem at a time when failure to produce an established attacking unit has been widely blamed for England's spotty international record.

TOP CHOICES
Four men are widely named to succeed Wright in the Wales-England clash at Cardiff's Ninian Park Oct. 17. They are Trevor Smith of Birmingham City, Roy Gratrix of Blackpool, Maurice Norman of Tottenham Hotspur and Mel Scott of Chelsea.

The most likely is Smith, a rugged six-footer who was considered heir-apparent to Wright until his form slipped a year ago.

Since then he has come back to the top with outstanding displays last May on a Continental tour by the England Under-23 team. In the annual curtain-raiser to the Football Association Cup Final in May he was center half for the Young England team that came close to beating the full England side.

While Smith was off color, Gratrix and Norman came to the front. Norman was sent to the World Cup championships in Sweden last year in case Wright was injured and Gratrix went to England's South American tour this summer in a similar capacity. The consistency of Wright, however, kept both men out.

Black Hawks Top N.Y. Rangers 5-2

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago Black Hawks opened the National Hockey League season with a brilliant 5-2 victory over New York Rangers Wednesday night in Chicago Stadium.

The Hawks, virtually the same crew which finished third last season, were paced by a newly formed line of rookie center Stan Mikita and veteran wings Bobby Hull and Eric Nesterenko.

Hull and Mikita each scored once and picked up one assist. Other Hawks scorers were defencemen Al Arbour and Elmer Vasko and veteran winger Ron Murphy.

Chicago jumped out to a 1-0 lead on last season's fifth-place finishers midway in the first period.

Goals by Vasko and Hull early in the second period put the Hawks almost out of reach until New York's Red Sullivan poked in a pass by Camille Henry while two Hawks and one Ranger were in the penalty box. Mikita pulled the Hawks out a danger early in the final frame when he deflected a shot by Hull into the Ranger goal. New York's Larry Popein connected for the other Ranger goal in the third period.

3 Leaf Players Face Suspensions For Holding Out

TORONTO (CP)—Three forwards were still holding out for better contracts Wednesday night despite a threatened suspension by general manager Punch Imlach of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Dick Duff, Billy Harris and Larry Regan are the last of seven original holdouts on the National Hockey League club and Imlach says they may be suspended without pay today if they are still unsigned.

Earlier Wednesday Imlach announced he had signed up Ron Stewart, Bob Pulford, Al MacNeil and Tim Horton.

Four players arrived from Rochester Americans, the Leafs' farm club in the American Hockey League. Three of them—MacNeil, Rudy Migay and Bobby Nevin—will be dressed Saturday night for the opening Leaf game.

Indoor Fog Halts Baron-Bear Game

HERSHEY Pa. (AP)—Indoor ice hockey halted the opening game here of the American Hockey League Wednesday night with Cleveland Barons and Hershey Bears tied 1-1 at the end of 30 seconds of play in an overtime period.

George Hicks, Cleveland center, scored at 18:41 of the first period. The Barons held that lead until the second of play remained in the final period.

At this point Dan Fisher came through the dense fog hovering over the ice and fired the tying goal. The final period was marked by five fights during which there was a steady parade of players to the penalty bench.

H & D League May Be Curtailed Next Summer

DARTMOUTH, N.S. (CP)—Mayor I. W. Akerley says he has learned that operations of the Halifax and district baseball league may be "strongly curtailed" next summer.

His comment was made as the town council set up a committee to organize sports and competitions for the town's youth. The program would utilize the town-owned Dartmouth baseball park, home of the 1959 H-D champions, Dartmouth Arrows.

Ottawa Riders Lodge Protest

OTTAWA (CP)—Ottawa Rough Riders don't expect any formal action in this case, but for the record, they have protested to Canadian football commissioner Sydney G. Halter about the way Saskatchewan Roughriders treat after Frank Tripucka as coach.
