—ENTERTAINS WOMEN'S GUILD.—Mrs. Charles Clark entertained the members of the Young Women's Guild of the Summerside Presbyterian Church on Monday evening at the November meeting. The president, Mrs. Emmett Ranagan opened the meeting with the repeating of The Lord's Prayer in unison. During the business period final plans were made for the Charlottetown Male Chorus to be heard on Tuesday evening, December 5th, in the Baptist Hall. The Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close.—S.

—Y. P. S. MEETING.—Mr. Marshall presided over the Y. P. S. of the Summerside Church of Christ at the regular meeting on Tuesday evening in the hall. The devotions were in charge of Miss Edwina Delaney, opening with the hymn "I am resolved" with Miss Sylvia Rayner at the piano. The minister conducted the study period on "Old Testament Prophecies and their Fulfillment in Christ." During the business session plans were made for the Christmas Y. P. S. activities. Following the meeting the members enjoyed a sing-song of Christmas hymns.—S.

—SHOWER FOR BRIDE AND GROOM.—The Kensington Post Office staff and rural mail carriers arrived in a body on Monday evening October 30th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howard, to bestow upon their son, Bruce and his bride, their heartiest felicitations, accompanied by the gift of a handsome chenille bed spread, and other articles. The party was informal and the evening passed pleasantly with cards and conversation. Refreshments were served by the hostess.—Bur.

—ENTERTAINS CHURCH CLUB.—Mrs. R. W. Wood entertained the members of the Ladies Club of the Summerside Presbyterian Church on Tuesday evening at her home. The president, Miss Clara Mountain, opened the meeting with the singing of a hymn, with Mrs. Cleve Whalen at the piano, followed by The Lord's Prayer in unison. Collectors for the Children's Aid Society were appointed. A social hour followed when the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Hilbert Johnston and Miss Jean MacFadyen.—S.

—TELEPHONE FROM WELL-AND.—At the festivities of the wedding of Dr. James Ira Higgins, V.S., V.D., and Joan of Arc Bernard, daughter of Hon. J. A. Bernard, at Welland, Ont., someone called the happy inspiration to call the home folks by telephone. Pronto four of the Higgins family living in different parts of Ontario who were present, spoke to their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Higgins of Summerside, P.E.I. Such an occurrence is a rapid demonstration of the rapid advance of science and the consequent boon to the social services. Nowdays the modest, unassuming citizen may enjoy privileges and perquisites that kings and queens couldn't command even fifty years ago.—K.

—BAPTIST CHURCH YOUNG MARRIED GROUP.—Mrs. Edward Poole conducted the worship service of the Young Married Group of the Summerside Baptist Church on Tuesday evening in the hall. Opening with the hymn "Come let us sing of a wonderful love" with Mrs. Colin Waugh at the piano and responsive reading was read after which Rev. W. A. Harper offered prayer. The closing hymn was "What a friend we have in Jesus." During the business session over which Mr. Edward Poole presided, a pleasing report of the recent musicale from Charlottetown was submitted. Plans were made for starting a Badminton Club in the near future.—S.

—PANTRY SALE FRIDAY, November 24th. Holman's grocery department, auspices Catholic Women's League, Summerside.

—PAINFULLY BITTEN.—A lady canvassing for the Children's Aid Society drive in Summerside yesterday afternoon was painfully bitten by a dog at a home on Fitzroy Street. The dog was in the porch and when she opened the door from the walk he attacked her. There was no one at home at the time.—S —CONDUCTS CHURCH SERVICE.—Rev. W. J. Phillips, Alberton, conducted the services in New London, Parish, on Sunday, November 19th. Taking for his text, the 21st verse of the 17th chapter of St. Luke, he brought to his hearers in clear accents the fact that we make our own Heaven or Hell. We either accept God and the Kingdom, and the peace and contentment it brings, or we reject it to our sorrow, and "end in a muddle of jumbled thinking or worse." God holds out his hands to us at all times. It is up to us to face up to our responsibilities in life. Too many fail to accept the responsibilities of church and community, and so fail others who would find the Kingdom of Heaven.—Bur.

—POST NUPTIAL SHOWER.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Paynter, Clinton, was the scene of a gaiety and cheer on Friday evening, November 17th, when the people of Clinton and surrounding areas, to the number of approximately 120, gathered to "shower" their son, Roy and his bride, the former Grace Nicholson, in honor of their recent marriage. A number of individual gifts were presented to the popular couple by Mrs. William Gill. Bruce expressed thanks and appreciation on behalf of his bride, in a few suitable words, and all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". A happy social evening followed, during which a sing-song was enjoyed with Mrs. Ernest MacEwen at the piano. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies.—Bur.

Piusville W.I. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Piusville Women's Institute was held on Thursday, at the home of Mrs. William Gallant. The meeting was opened by prayer, and the roll was called. The secretary then read the minutes of the last regular meeting, and the financial report for the beginning and end of the year. The committee gave their reports and it was voted that a chair be bought for the school, as requested. The new committees for the following month are: Sick—Mrs. Cyrus Gallant, School—Mrs. Anthony Gallant.

Mrs. Peter F. Gallant then kindly invited the members to her home for the next meeting, where the roll call will be answered by an exchange of Christmas gifts, valued at fifty cents each, to be wrapped in Christmas wrappings and not opened until Christmas Day. The following are to make sandwiches for the next meeting—Mrs. William Gallant, Mrs. Nelson Gallant, Mrs. Phillip Gallant, Miss Noella Gallant; to make cake—Mrs. Anthony Gallant, Mrs. Joseph H. Gallant. Bingo will be played to raise funds, and two members were asked to prepare a mystery man. The correspondence was read, and it was decided to send two dollars to the Cancer Fund and two dollars for a Mass for the Souls in Purgatory. Miss. William Gallant, Mrs. Nelson Gallant, Mrs. Cyrus Gallant, and Mrs. John P. Gallant volunteered to scrub the school for the month of November.

The following resolutions were moved, seconded and adopted:

1. That each member must scrub the school once during the school year or send someone in their place.
 2. That a twenty-five cent treat be given to all sick members and any serious cases in the district.
 3. That the meetings be held in the first Thursday of each month.
 4. That five cents be charged for lunch to visitors at the meetings.
 5. That a door prize be given at each meeting.
 6. That two members be sent to Ste. Anne de Beaupre. To be eligible for drawing, members must attend six meetings from November to June (both inclusive).
 7. That shower and anniversary gifts be brought for members only. An entertainment was discussed for the members, and they decided to have a bingo and dance in the hall for the members and their partners, bingo prizes are all expenses to be paid out of Institute funds.
- The new officers then elected for the coming year are as follows:—
President—Mrs. Peter F. Gallant.
Vice-President—Mrs. Joseph H. Gallant.
Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Clara

Honored On 35th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Arsenault, Sheen Street, Summerside, were the guests of honor of a social evening on Friday when fellow workers and other friends gathered to honor them on their 35th wedding anniversary.

Mr. Donald Baker assumed the role of master of ceremonies for the evening. The outside staff of Holmans Ltd. gave the couple a beautiful lamp and chair. Mr. H. T. Holman presented the couple with a substantial and gratefully received cheque. Many other gifts were presented to the honored couple.

As the evening progressed a clever display of step dancing was witnessed by friends. The couple thanked their host of friends for their gifts and kindness extended to them.

Mr. Arsenault is a long and faithful servant of R.T. Holman Ltd., serving the company for the past 30 years.—S.

Murray - Sherry Wedding

—The 830 Nuptial Mass Wednesday morning, November 15, which united in marriage Mary Helen Sherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sherry of Fernwood, and Joseph Arnold Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Murray of Augustus Cove, was solemnized in St. Peter's Catholic Church, Seven Mile Bay, by Rev. Reginald MacDonald.

Fall flowers and potted plants graced the altar for the rites. Miss Florence Green was organist and the choir rendered beautiful hymns under the direction of Mr. Arnold McGrath, as soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in rhone wine Chantilly lace over moire taffeta with a pink feathered hat and a corsage of cream roses. Her only ornament was a gold locket, gift of the groom.

Miss Betty Murray, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and was attired in a dress of two-tone brocade metallic top with a black taffeta skirt. She wore an off-the-face hat in black velvet and a corsage of pink roses. L. A. C. Stanley Richard of the R. C. A. F. Station, Summerside, was groomsmen.

The bride's mother was dressed in a black pin-striped suit with black accessories and the groom's mother wore a suit of grey gabardine with blue accessories. Both wore corsages of roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast for the immediate relatives and friends was held at Birch Hill Tourist Home. The bride's table was attractive with autumn flowers and lighted candles in silver holders. The three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom was draped with a small veil carrying out the bride's sorority colors. A toast to the bride was proposed by Father MacDonald and was responded to by the bridegroom. Congratulatory remarks were made by a number present.

The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a turquoise rhinestone necklace with earrings to match and the bridegroom's gift to the best man was a wallet.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray left on a honeymoon trip throughout the Maritimes, the bride travelling in a dress of bronze iridescent with dark brown accessories and a coat of taupe. Her corsage was of mixed roses. On return they will reside at Carleton Siding, where the groom is engaged in agriculture.—S.

THREAT FOR FUTURE

BRANDON, Man. — (CP)—Now that the mosquito season is past, Dominion entomologist R. D. Bird thought it safe to announce that at least 12 varieties of mosquitoes are found in the Brandon area. He supervises Brandon's annual anti-mosquito campaign.

Directors—Mrs. William Gallant; Miss Anita Gallant.

Auditor—Mrs. John F. Gallant. Twenty-three members enrolled for the coming year. After a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the retiring officers, the meeting was adjourned.
