

Local and Other Items.

THE first snow of the season fell at Yarmouth, N. S., a few days ago.

AQUATIC.—Morris is said to have made the five miles at Pittsburg in 37.04

PERSONAL.—G. J. Brydges, Esq., arrived here last evening. Senator Howlan is in town.

THE "TEMPERANCE REFORM CLUB" Entertainment, last evening, was well rendered, and the Market Hall was overcrowded.

THE steamer Carroll cleared for Boston with a cargo of mackerel and eggs, valued at $14,000. She had also a large number of passengers.

PROF. DANNILL'S, "The Master Teacher" of Dancing and Deportment, is in this city, and opens classes for ladies, gentlemen and children, next week, in the Athenaeum Hall. Full particulars by circular.

KING SQUARE.—We are requested to state that King Square has still a few hundred man traps around it, and to inquire when the post holes are to be filled up—after somebody breaks his leg, and the city is mulet in heavy damages, or before.

ON the evening of Wednesday, the 10th inst., Rev. M. Falgatter, from Charlottetown, delivered a lecture on temperance in the Presbyterian Church of this place. Owing to the unusually unfavorable weather, the attendance was small, but those who made out to be present speak highly of the lecture. We understand that a temple was organized the next evening; and also that the Rev. gentleman expects to visit Alberton again before a great while. —Pioneer.

MONAGHAN, the criminal sentenced at the last June Court for stabbing, received his second whipping—thirty-nine lashes—yesterday. He took his last whipping more calmly than he did the first one. He did not even murmur, but stood without flinching, and received the lashes as they were hurriedly laid upon him by the powerful hand of the Deputy Sheriff, Mr. Clay deserves great credit for the very impartial manner in which he carried out the mandate of the law. —S. Journal.

FARMERS BEWARE!—Last Monday night two rascals, in a carriage, from or near this city, went out to Brackley Point and stole from Mr. James McCallum $20 worth of carriage harness; from Mr. David Shaw, $10 worth; and also harness from Mr. Charles Kennedy; from Mr. Peter Robinson, $5 worth of butter; and from Mr. Neil Shaw, $10 worth of wool. A reward should be offered for the apprehension of the scamps. The next time they go to Brackley Point a warm reception will be waiting them. —Presbyterian.

LARGE YIELD.—Mr. Isaac Gale states that from one grain of seed sown at his farm at Young's Cove, Queen's County, N. B., 500 grains were raised. From one bush and three pecks of seed potatoes, Mr. Andrew Anderson, of St. Andrews, N. B., raised one hundred bushels of sound potatoes. The Frederickton, N. B., Reporter reports that a Mr. Patrick Fitzpatrick has raised, this season, on his farm in Doak settlement, 75 barrels of potatoes from three barrels of seed, the majority of the potatoes weighing 23 ounces each. —Chronicle.

MR. NEWTON LEE, of this town purchased on Monday last, from the Rev. H. W. Murray, of Boston, his celebrated thoroughbred trotting stallion "All Right." We have been told that the sum of $3000 was paid for this horse. Mr. Lee certainly deserves credit for his enterprising spirit in bringing, at a great expense, so valuable a stallion to the island. The farmers of this island, particularly those who take a pride in raising good horses, will have no further complaint of inferior stock breeders. Mr. Lee accompanied by his horse "All Right" will be home on Saturday evening. —S. J.

THE Grand Division of P. E. Island assembled in this city on Wednesday afternoon and evening, the G. W. Patriarch, Councillor Harris, presiding. After the initiation of representatives and the general routine business and reports were disposed of, the following were duly chosen and installed officers of the Grand Division for the current year:—

G. W. P.—J. J. Chappell, Charlottetown
G. W. A.—Wm. Campbell, Graham's Road
G. Scribe.—J. B. Cooper, Charlottetown
G. Treas.—Robert Scott, do.
G. Chap.—Wm. Wood, Alexandria
G. Con.—Henry Smith, Charlottetown
G. Gent.—Wm H. Beer, do.
P. G. W. P.—G. F. Harris, do.

The Quarterly Sessions will be held as follows:—
January—Alexandria.
April—Summerside.
July—Graham's Road.
October—Charlottetown.

Local and Other Items.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday morning, Martin Flynn, who was remanded on Wednesday, got one month for stealing an empty barrel from the yard of Charles McFarlane. Michael Prenty, for the same offence, was discharged. James Murphy, for obstructing the sidewalk and using profane language, was fined $3.20 and costs or twenty days; he took the latter. Francis McKenna, drunk and incapable, was fined $3.00 and costs or fourteen days. John Larter, on complaint of Thomas Morris as a nuisance in his store, was fined $1.60 and costs or ten days. John Kelly, for selling liquor to minors, was fined $16.22 and ordered to suspend for three months.

THE City Fathers deserve every credit for the manner in which they are macadamizing the street near the railway station. If that much-used portion of Water Street will not in future be at all seasons of the year a solid smooth roadway, we are greatly mistaken. It, no doubt, requires a large outlay to convert that bog into substantial road, but we believe that it will be found that to make the job a thoroughly good one will not only be best, but also most economical. It does us good to be able to comment upon an act of the Corporation in terms of unqualified commendation. We hate to be always grumbling. We trust that this Water Street improvement is the beginning of a series of greatly needed civic reforms. —Patriot.

A VICTIM OF MISPLACED CONFIDENCE.—A sailor named Joseph McConnell, hailing from Prince Edward Island, while out in the West Indies in a brigantine hailing from this port, took sick and was sent to hospital there. After spending five weeks in that institution he stowed away in another Halifax vessel, and came back to this port. He was taken care of here by a Mrs. Crowell, keeper of sailors' boarding house in Upper Water Street, who kept him supplied with medical attendance, board, etc., with the understanding that when he recovered his health he was to pay her. On Saturday he said he felt better, and thought he would go out for a short walk. In the meantime Mrs. Crowell left to do some work at another house, and on her return she missed her boarder. In searching the room he had occupied, and in which she kept her hard-earned money, she missed a suit of men's clothes, with a lot of underclothing belonging to another sailor, and also $40 in cash she had put away in the bureau for safe keeping. It is thought that he took passage by one of the schooners which sailed for P. E. Island on Saturday last. —H. Herald.
