LET'S EAT

Novel Holiday Recipes Sent From "Down Under"

By Ida Bailey Allen

"Our Christmas tables here will be especially festive this season," writes Home Economist Del Cartwright, our brilliant young friend in Australia.

"While you will have a white Christmas in the States, summer will be at its loveliest here.

TABLE DECORATIONS

"My dinner table will be laid with green-and-red Italian woven linen. The centerpiece will be of sculptured-ice—all the rage here—and there will be garlands of green, punctuated with red and white striped carnations. The candles will be pale green.

"I'm going to wear a green and white print silk—it helps make the Christmas dinner even more festive when the hostess' frock carries out the holiday colors, don't you think?"

We not only think, we certainly approve. Merry Christmas, Australia!

Pudding for Christmas: Mix together 2 1/2 c. packed-down fine crumbs from two-day-old bread (no crusts), 3 tsp. pastry spice, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/2 c. (or 3 oz.) mixed fruits and peels, 1 c. (or 6 oz.) raisins and 1/2 c. (or 3 oz.) red currants. Mash 2 ripe bananas thoroughly. Diddle 1 tsp. baking soda in 3-4 c. milk and add to the bananas. Then stir into the bread crumb mixture.

Transfer to a buttered qt. mold or metal bowl. Cover closely or fit a layer of aluminum foil over the top. Steam 2 hrs.

Serve with rum-flavored hard sauce.

Rum-flavored Hard Sauce: Stir 1-3 c. butter until soft. Add 1 beaten egg alternately with 2 c. sifted 10X confectioner's sugar and 1/2 tsp. rum-flavoring. Beat until thoroughly mixed.

Heap in an attractive dish; garnish with mixed fruits and peels; chill.

wire rack on the bottom of 4 qt. kettle. Pour in 2 c. boiling water. Set the mold on the rack. Add enough rapidly boiling water to come to a little more than half way up the mould. Put on the lid; boil rapidly 30 min., then more slowly for the time directed for remaining 90 min. If the water gets low, add more rapidly boiling water.

Buttered Broccoli
Browned Parsnips
Spanish Cream
Whipped Topping

Coffee Tea Milk
No trick at all to taking the required amount of milk a day. At least half can be "eaten" with cereals, in soups, puddings, custards and in cream-top sauces, such as that used in preparing creamed crab in toast cases.

TOMORROW'S DINNER

Manhattan Clam Chowder
Creamed Crab in Toast Cases
Mashed Carrots and Potatoes
Hot Dilled Beets

Fruits-in-Gel Tea Ginger Snaps
Coffee Tea Milk
Del Cartwright's Creamed Crab in Toast Cases: Prepare 8 toast cases. While baking, put together the creamed crab filling. Fill the toast cases with the creamed crab. Serve garnished with slices of stuffed olives and minced parsley or paprika.

Toast Cases: Remove the crusts from 8 slices fresh soft bread. Press the bread into well-buttered shallow muffin pans. Brush the bread with melted butter. Bake 10 min. in a moderate oven, 375 degrees, F., or until golden brown, chill.

To Steam Puddings: Place a

HOUSEHOLD HINT
Thursday, December 8
Check your general housekeeping habits to prevent fires. Clutter can cause fire and can feed it if it starts.

TRICK OF THE CHEF
When heating a (No. 2) can of sliced beets and liquid, add 1/2 c. vinegar drained from jarred dill pickles.

First Wedding Is Solemnized In Kinkora Chapel

The first wedding to be solemnized in the new chapel of the Kinkora Convent took place on November 12, 1955 when Rev. J.H. Croken united in marriage Miss Sadie Arsenault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Arsenault, Middleton, P. E. I., and Mr. Garnet Watson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, Summerside.

The bride chose an ensemble of turquoise-blue with navy accessories. Mrs. Ralph Arsenault, her only attendant was gowned in a costume of navy blue.

Mr. Ralph Arsenault was a groomsman.

A reception for relatives and friends followed at the home of the bride's parents after which the couple left on a short honeymoon trip through the Maritimes.

The couple was honored at several showers and they received many lovely gifts.

MORNING SMILE

Satan—"Hey (to the new arrival) you act as if you owned this dump."
New Arrival—"I do. My wife gave it to me."
