Seven True Bills Found By the Grand Jury

Unsatisfactory Conditions in Jail. Jurors Condemn Sample of Meat as Unfit for Human Food. The Prisoners Furze and Jas. McDonald Released and Other Prisoners Arraigned.

At the Supreme Court yesterday, the Grand Jury brought down true bills against Henry McLeod and K. W. McKinnon for forgery and perjury and James McDonald for shop breaking and larceny.

In the afternoon the Grand Jury returned from inspecting the Falconwood Hospital, Infirmary and Queen's County Jail and were discharged from their duties by His Lordship. The report of the Grand Jury appears below.

The prisoners were arraigned before the Court. Henry McLeod, on forgery charge, John McDonald, on larceny and Hennessey, Essoy and O'Brien for larceny, pleaded not guilty. A plea of guilty was made by Ivan McInnis and Francis Bradley. Edward McIsaac's arrangement stands over until today.

The Court ordered that a bench warrant be issued to apprehend K. W. McKinnon on forgery charge, the accused having been released on bail.

On motion of Mr. Bentley, K. C., the Court ordered that the prisoners Furze and McDonald be found guilty of the charges against them. No bill be returned against them and they were accordingly released.

Following is the Report of the Grand Jury:

To the Chief Justice and Associate Judges of the Supreme Court.

The Grand Jury for Queen's County visited the Falconwood Hospital and found therein 301 patients, 155 men and 146 women. The wards were clean and well ventilated, the building throughout in good condition. The food shown to us was clean and wholesome. The patients all seemed contented and satisfied with their surroundings. With the increasing number of patients it will be necessary to have greater accommodation and

U. S. Government Will Uphold Railway Board

In Threatened Strike of 1,000,000 Workers and Will Take Drastic Measures Against Strikers.

(Special to The Guardian.)
MONTREAL, June 28.—The strike called for by 400,000 railway shompen in the United States on the question of wage reduction, will have an undoubted influence on railway shompen in Canada in their attitude toward the proposed wage cuts of which they have been notified by the Railway Association of Canada. Leading officials in shop unions declared this morning that there will be no dictation of policy from executives of International Unions in the United States, they affirm if reductions are pushed to a head here, I have no doubt the men will take similar action to that taken in the United States. J. A. McClelland, Vice-President in Canada of the International Association of machinists said this morning.

WASHINGTON, June 28.— Immediate drastic action by the Federal Government in the event of strike of one million workers on July 1, is probable it was learned from high authority here today.

President Harding is determined to uphold the railroad labor board in whatever action it takes against the Railroad workers or the Railroads and its decisions are to be enforced with all the power at the federal Government's command.

United Farmers Met In City Yesterday

Session Concluded With An Address Last Night by Mr. J. J. Morrison of Ontario.

The United Farmers of P. E. Island met at the Board of Trade Rooms with good representation from all parts of the province. The President Horace Wright was in the chair.

The action of the United Farmers in backing the Progressive Party at the last Federal Election was endorsed unanimously and it was also decided to endorse the movement to contest the provincial elections when they are announced. The constitution was read clause by clause and adopted as reported with amendments and a committee was advised to print it.

The political platform as drafted by the committee of the Progressive party was read and commented on. As the press was excluded only a draft of the platform was obtainable, but it is understood to be a quite complete program. It includes a decrease in the number of members in the legislature and consequently a decrease in expense. There is a provision for a road and public works organization, for education better training, for teachers and an equality of payment of teachers by the government.

That the fisheries be assisted similarly to agriculture.

That the Fish and Game Act be revised and also the Migratory Birds Act to allow geese and brant to be shot in spring and that rural electrification be established to provide cheaper money for productive enterprises and higher interest for savings. Prohibition of law enforcement and the Tourist Trade receive much attention.

The election of officers was presided over by Gordon McLeod, Hunt, secretary, Preston Ellis, would not permit his name to be balloted for.

A public meeting of the U. F. O. was held last night in the Board of Trade rooms with Mr. J. J. Morrison, Ontario, as president, Mr. Horace Wright, in the chair.

His Worship Mayor Jenkins, on behalf of the city welcomed the delegates of the United Farmers and also Mr. J. J. Morrison, Ontario, Secretary of the U. F. O. Ontario, whose address was advertised as the chief feature of the meeting.

Mayor Jenkins, in the course of his brief address, emphasized the possibilities of developing the tourist traffic in this province. He also suggested the putting on of a real "milk campaign" by dairymen of the province as a business proposition.

Mr. J. J. Morrison, Secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario, was greeted with applause. He said he had no desire to make a set speech, but wished merely to put before the meeting a few practical suggestions. As Mayor Jenkins had said it was necessary to have co-operation between city and country; but this should be on a "fifty-fifty" basis. If farmers do not see that they get an equal "deal" then they are not loyal citizens nor are they doing the best for their families. He did not believe that a great country can be built up by the travelling trade, because a tourist if he spends 50 cents takes 50 cents' worth of goods away with him. The operation of town clubs with the help of the U. F. O. has been successful in Ontario and he advised the local organizations to hold club meetings in their own communities.

Farming is hard trying work, and takes the best out of a man. The speaker knew from experience, as he had farmed the greater part of his life and had raised nine children on 100 acres of land without going into debt. Women are the farm must give a better chance; they nowadays don't want to marry farmers because this has not in the past been done; and this is one of the reasons of rural depopulation.

Mr. Morrison, who is on his second visit here, expressed himself pleased with the Island and remarked particularly upon the productivity of the land. The bread day should be routed out in this province, he said; and if he were Commissioner of Agriculture he would put on a campaign with this end in view. Two things we are deficient in here are cattle and silos, continued Mr. Morrison and corn ought to grow well here, and sweet clover also. The depopulation of the country invariably results when the towns and cities are allowed to depopulate the population of its farms, it will undoubtedly suffer. Today farms

Fierce Battle Fought At Four Courts, Dublin

Position Held by Republican Troops Under Rory O'Connor Bombarded by Free State Troops on Orders from Michael Collins. Several Casualties Occurred. Fight Still Unfinished.

(Special to The Guardian.)
DUBLIN, June 28.—Irish republican insurgents were driven from parts of the Four Courts this afternoon by Free State troops, who stormed the rebel stronghold. Under cover of heavy artillery fire, the insurgents under Rory O'Connor, were reported clinging desperately to the position in the interior of the Courts Building. The irregular Irish Republican Army troops, who were defending Fowler Hall, evacuated that place this afternoon. They proceeded to a larger hotel, belonging to Alderman Moran, where they began erecting defenses.

The rebel fire from the Four Courts, slackened this afternoon, leading to hope they might be prepared to evacuate.

British troops quartered in Dublin, took no part in the fighting, but were held in readiness to assist the Free State troops if Collins should call for them.

A British light cruiser, and several destroyers cruised about off Dublin and Cork ready if needed. Several civilians were killed and a number wounded by rifle fire late this afternoon.

The Free State artillery opened fire on the Four Courts with field guns; a quantity of gelignite was known to have been stored in the rebel stronghold and a disastrous explosion was feared.

The battle started at dawn when Free State troops on orders from Michael Collins, opened fire on the Four Courts building stronghold of insurgents and many casualties were reported.

Free State troops brought trench mortars and machine guns into play against the insurgents, hurling a rain of steel upon them. The insurgents spent most of the night frantically digging trenches around the platform.

H. L. Taggart, M. L. A., President, was in the chair. Other Farmers members were D. G. McKenzie, of Cumberland, leader of the opposition, John A. McDonald of Iltant, and A. Richardson of Cape Breton. The feature of yesterday's session was an address on organization by J. J. Morrison, Secretary of the United Farmers of Ontario. Mr. Morrison urged the farmers to assert themselves. He deplored the fact that it is impossible for the Great Budget to be carried out. There must be a change in the Parliament machine in his opinion. Not one of the seven progressives who voted for the budget did so because he wanted to but to avoid an election.
