

Arbor Day.

Horrah! horrah! for the Arbor day, The one we have placed in the month of May, With hopeful hearts let us haste away...

Plant trees and guard our unbragging bowers, Let the magnates noted in Senate and Church, Plant trees of hope, oak, maple and birch...

And every year on our Arbor day, We'll deck our trees with ribbons so gay, Each jealously guarding his own loved tree...

And every year on our Arbor day, We'll seek a young tree on our Arbor morn, And plant baby's tree in the family grove...
