'Sand Patterns' seeks submissions

Sand Patterns is a quarterly literary publication which features local talent. It is now facing publication problems due to lack of submissions and lack of funds. Sand Patterns is very important to the Island literary community, many writers having no other opportunity for publication. The loss of this publication would be a severe blow to the development of Island literature and culture. Submissions of short stories, poems, line drawings, and photographs are invited. Subscriptions are available at $4.00 per year, and memberships which include a year's subscription at $5.00. Please write: Sand Patterns, Box 1921 Charlottetown.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF ANNUAL MEETING
Sand Patterns Association will hold its annual meeting on Sunday, February 6, at 8 p.m. in the UPEI Education Building. This meeting is open to the general public. Sand Patterns is a "little magazine" devoted solely to the works of Island writers. It is now facing serious publication problems. Anyone concerned with the fate of this magazine or with Island writing is welcome to attend the annual meeting. Refreshments will be served.
