THANKS!

The Saint Dunstan's University... Carnival Committee under the chairmanship of Jim Guthrie would like to express their gratitude to the merchants of Charlottetown and Summerside for their help in making our 22nd Annual Carnival such a tremendous success. We would like to thank in particular the following: If by any chance we have forgotten anyone it is not that we do not appreciate their help but that the list was so large we have carelessly overlooked them.

Obituary

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

MRS. ALEEN J. MACDONALD on Tuesday, December 16, 1963, at Belmont Mass., at the home of her son Stewart, there passed suddenly yet peacefully in her 84th year. She was a devoted wife and mother. Mrs. Allen J. MacDonald, was in usual health but was suffering from a stroke and evening sun had sank to rest beyond the western hill she loved. She still small voice of love saying "Come into my life you that labour and are heavy laden and I will give rest!" Her spirit winged its flight to realms beyond that of late life. Eternal day, where the trials of life are ended and God shall give all tears from our eyes and there is no night there. She was a woman of exceptional fine character loved and respected by all who knew her. Strangers and friends alike shared the hospitality of her home.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a mother, four sons and one sister: Stewart, Belmont Mass.; John Drumheller, Alberta; William Stewart, Montreal, Alberta; Montreal 1, Quebec and Mr. Bell Coffin Montreal.

Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Pocklington of the Dundas United Church of which she was a devoted member, assisted by Miss Myrtle Ingersoll, LAC.

Funeral services were held at MacGowan, Sheldon MacGowan, Neil Nicholson Sr., Neil Nicholson Jr., I.L. Hunter and Maurice Burton.
