IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN CAMERON

On Thursday evening last, after a brief but sudden illness, consequent upon a stroke recently, there entered peacefully into her eternal rest, at the good old age of seventy-five years, Mrs. John Cameron, a well-known and respected resident of New Haven district. The deceased was enjoying comparatively good health until quite recently, when the late attack brought her life to a close, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nell MacFadyen, of Churchill, where she spent the winter.

The deceased was a kindly neighbor, and ever ready to render help in times of trouble or sorrow.
 Predeceased by her husband some years ago, there remain to mourn for her her daughters, Mrs.
 Nell D. MacFadyen, Churchill, Mrs.
 Wm. Gass and Mrs. Mathieson of Somerville, Mass., and one brother, Nell MacNevin of Bonshaw.

She died resignedly in the gospel of God's mercy to sinners, and within the communion of the Church of Scotland, with which she was always connected.

Her burial last Sunday was largely attended, though the weather was very severe. Rev. Ewen Mac-Dougal officiated in suitable religious services, and the body was laid down to rest in Argyle Shore Cemetery. Dr. J. W. S. Lowry was absent owing to his continued affliction, but extended his sympathies to the bereaved family and friends.

MRS. MARY LEARD

On March 23, 1936, there passed peacefully away in Vancouver, B.
 C., Mrs. Mary Leard, widow of the late Elijah Leard.

Mrs. Leard, nee Mary Eliza Tup-lin, was born at Margate, P.E.I., on June 9, 1860 and in the past thirty years has resided in Vancouver, B. C. She leaves to mourn the passing of a devoted and Christian mother two sons, Preston A. and Hollis M. of Vancouver, and four daughters, Mrs. Cyril Hughes of Vancouver with whom she resided; Mrs. Major Sobey and Mrs.
 George Matthe of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. James Durie of Calgary, Alta., also a number of grandchildren.

Five sisters also survive: Mrs. E.
 S. McPhail, Ottawa; Mrs. Moses Woodside, Tryon, P.E.I.; Mrs. Har-tie Wickett, Kensington, P.E.I.; Mrs.
 George Profit, Margate, P.E.I.; and Mrs. James Leard, Victoria, P.E.I.

The funeral service held on Wednesday afternoon was conducted by Dr. A. M. Sanford, a former pastor of Princess Street, Methodist (now United) Church, who paid a fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased.

MRS. JAMES LAMPHIER

The death occurred at her home in Pleasant Grove, on Sunday morning March 11th of Mrs. James Lamphier at the age of 85 years.
 Mrs. Lamphier (nee Anastasia Gro-nor) was born at Pleasant Grove and lived there most of her life except the last four years which were spent in Charlottetown, where her husband was assistant jail-keeper and where she had gained the love and respect of all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was a high-principled woman who walked the straight path through life and those who came in contact with her, realized she was an admirable character.

In November, Mr. and Mrs.
 Lamphier returned to Pleasant Grove and were being warmly welcomed by their many friends and neighbors when she suddenly contracted illness and in spite of loving care and the best medical attention she passed peacefully away fortified by the last solemn rites of the Holy Catholic Church of which she was a constant and devout member.

She leaves to mourn her sorrowing husband, one daughter Mary, two sons Terence and James, four grand children all of Pleasant Grove; one brother Edward, Manitoba and David of Pleasant Grove.

The many Mass offerings and letters of sympathy testify to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The funeral, which was held on Tuesday morning, March 13th at St. Eugene's Church, Covehead, was very largely attended. High Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father McQuaid.

The pall bearers were: Pamela Curran, W. J. Clow, Simon Power, Arthur Wyatt, Daniel Ready and Lester Buell.

May her soul rest in peace.
