Water Safety Programme Featured At Rotary Club

Swimming and Water Safety Week was the theme at Rotary yesterday when, following the regular weekly luncheon at the Charlottetown Hotel, three outstanding repesentatives of the Red Cross Society spoke briefly but very much to the point on the subject.

Rev. Marvel Dunbar, chairman Swimming and Water Safety Division, stressed two reasons for the great need of a liberal education in the practice of water safety First to prevent the all too frequent recurrence of incidents among both children and adults which end in drowning and reach the public as "tragic news."

"I would like to waterproof children and adults in order that they may go to our beautiful beaches and enjoy being entirely carefree, in the matter of risk from drowning" the speaker said. "Such an atmosphere can only be attained by a vigorous and sustained campaign on the part of the Red Cross, supported by parents and children to the very fullest. Ten years ago, 116 persons were given instruction in swimming and water safety while last year 4,041 received instruction."

Lieut. Col. Leo MacDonald, past president of the Red Cross Society and a staunch supporter of the Water Safety program, stressed the financial advantages when parents with children seek and find a vacation area where such protection is practiced. "It is surprising how many children prevail upon their parents to re-visit places where a safety program is recurrent each year. I know from personal experience that Swimming Certificates are coveted and highly prized by the young folk, and their winning heartily endorsed by parents.

"To encourage this type of activity is good business as well as an interesting and worthy addition to our appeal to parents and children alike in boosting this province as an ideal recreational centre," Col. MacDonald said.

In introducing Mrs. Evelyn Cudmore, the final speaker on the panel, Col. MacDonald referred to the high regard in which she is held at National Red Cross meetings. "Her great enthusiasm and experience, commands attention and thoughtful consideration at such meetings."

Mrs. Cudmore reported that 68 swimming classes had been held in as many different places throughout the Island last year with most gratifying results. In each of the localities referred to, the general committee received splendid support from local committees who gladly entered into the spirit of the objective of the classes. At Charlottetown and Summerside, the major areas of activity, the classes were carried on over a period of two weeks.

"If we can influence you in spreading the gospel of water safety, to avoid drowning of fishermen and sportsmen, on which there is no age range, we will have served a good purpose," Mrs. Cudmore said.

The speakers were introduced by the chairman for the day, Gordon Maxwell, and thanked by Gordon Kerr, chairman of the Youth Committee of Rotary. P. E. Moate of Toronto was a guest and George A. O. Breen of Shediac, N. B. was a visiting Rotarian.

Reports Progress In PEI Hospital Campaign

The fourth report meeting of the special gifts committee of the Prince Edward Island Hospital campaign was held yesterday afternoon at the game room of the Armouries with Judge Harold L. Palmer presiding. $9,905 were reported, making a total to date, for this group, of $36,545.

In his summation of the results obtained by his committee, Judge Palmer stated, "Several of our leading citizens have grasped the significance of this campaign to insure the maintenance of high standards of care for the sick and have given generously on a three to five year pledge basis plan."

He stressed "the necessity of pledging over at least a three year period rather than giving in a lump sum or immediate cash gift as it is obvious that the great amount of money needed to insure the going forward with the hospital construction program cannot be financed by cash contributions no matter how generous.

"There have been a few isolated instances where certain companies and individuals have, understandably, been unable to commit themselves beyond a one year contribution, but, he pointed out that, since the Hospital has not had a campaign in ten years, a higher ratio of pledges will be essential to the success of the project and to insure that the Hospital will be able to provide the latest and best in physical facilities and modern apparatus for the care of our sick and injured."

"Everyone of us, I am sure," Judge Palmer said, "is both fortunate and grateful about the high type of physicians, surgeons, nurses and technicians we have been able to attract to or hold in the community to serve us when needed."

REVIEWS CAMPAIGN

The overall situation concerning the campaign was reviewed by the general chairman, Mayor J. David Stewart. He reported that 'the total Contributions in the campaign to date amount to $154,515 and that this total is made up of 162 gifts, which includes contributions by the active, medical and associate staffs, the Senior Ladies' Aid, the Junior Ladies' Aid, and a limited number of leading merchants and citizens of the immediate Charlottetown area."

He further stated that "To date, while solicitation has been going on for a few weeks, it has been confined to a limited number of companies and individuals under the advance gifts and special gifts classifications. Several leading merchants and industries in this category have still to be heard from, and there have been no contributions received yet from the oil companies, chain stores, banks and many other national firms whch make up a high ratio of the business and industrial activity of the community."

"The business and professional, and the more general phase of the Campaign, under the Chairmanship of Brig. Reid, for the Charlottetown area, will open next Monday, June 18th.

Satisfactory progress has been made in the area wide organization of the campaign, under the chairmanship of Mr. Robert C. Parent, involving 15 separate committees who have undertaken, or will undertake, to solicit every farm family and local business in the wide area served by the Hospital, principally in Queens County. Nine of these committees are already fully organized and we are confident that, beginning next week, the campaign will be in full progress and the organization 100 per cent completed.

The campaign goal, $250,000. is necessarily large, but has been found to be the minimum requirement if the needed program of expansion and modernization estimated to cost $700,000. is to go forward.

As has been said before, there is no available resource for obtaining the money apart from the voluntary contributions on a three year pledge plan of business and industry, groups and societies, and every Protestant family in the service area of the Hospital who have looked and will continue to look to the Prince Edward Island Hospital for the care of their sick.

If every family and individual concerned could fully appreciate what this forward movement will mean to all of us in better service for our sick and thoughtfully decide to budget a fair amount of their income during the next three years, we can look forward, with great confidence to the final and complete success of this major community effort to insure that we are not falling behind in our obligations to our own familis and everyone who may urgently need hospital facilities.

CITY COUNCIL

Among the correspondence read was a letter from the Hon.. J. George MacKay, Minister of Highways, requesting that the City remove the asphalt plant from the government site at the east end of Grafton Street as the land was now needed by the Highways Department.

TAX COLLECTIONS

Coun. Gaudet, reporting for the finance committee, said that the department was well pleased with the work of Cst. Bishop in the collection of taxes from transient workers and that he would soon be shifted over to work on the back tax defaulters. He also reported that the cheques for the two Welfare Bureaus would be going out within the next few days.

Coun. MacCormac reported that the street patching program was expected to be completed within about seven days. The permanent works to be carried out by his department are the widening of the North River Road, taking in about five feet on each side and relaying new pavement on the full width of the road. This project, he said, would cost the City close to $18,000. In the vicinity of the new Federal Building both Richmond and Pownal Streets are to be widened; the light and telephone poles on the south side of Richmond Street have been removed and the lines to the new building run under the street.

Coun. MacDonald reported that the roof of the Public Library was badly in need of re-covering and requested that the Provincial Government be contacted as to the extent of financial assistance that could be expected from that source.

Reporting for the light committee Coun. Haslam said that a number of new mercury vapour lights had been installed in various sections of the City and that requests for improved lighting had been received from a number of other areas.

PLAYGROUNDS

The matter of the use of City squares as playgrounds came in for a large amount of discussion, with several of the Councillors objecting to their use as such. It was felt that after the amount of work that has been done in the squares during the past two years, turning them back into playgrounds would soon lead to the destruction of their beauty. At the suggestion of His Worship a final ruling on the matter will be deferred until another meeting with the Playground Commission was held and reported upon.

On the subject of the condition of the City streets Mayor Stewart said he had been approached by a number of Boy Scouts, with the suggestion that if the City would place a sufficient number of garbage containers throughout the City, the Scouts would volunteer to make an initial clean-up drive and then assist in any campaign to educate the public in maintaining a clean City.

TOWN PLANNING BOARD

Among the resolutions a Town Planning Board for Charlottetown was set up, with F. W. Curtis being appointed chairman and Coun. P. R. MacCormac, Chief C. W. MacArthur, James Toombs and G. Keith Pickard. In other resolutions, due to the increase of work in the Harris Memorial Library, with the installation of new press room the salary of Mrs. Alice DeCoste was increased, retroactive to February 1st. The tender by the K. and R. Store for the supplying of boots to the Police Department was approved. The Public Property Committee was given the go-ahead to carry out repairs to the sea-wall at Victoria Park at a cost not exceeding $1,500.

A resolution was introduced by the Tourist and Industrial Development Committee that the City forward a request to the Provincial Department of Industry and Natural Resources (Town Planning Division) to have an overall plan prepared of the area along North River, including that area within the City west of North River Road and north of Brighton Road, the City to share one half of the expense.

The City also accepted from the Peake Estate the land necessary to give all roads bordering the said estate west of Goodwill Ave. a width of thirty feet from the present road running east and west parallel to Crestwood Drive, to Goodwill Ave., the City to convey back to the Peake estate the short street running north and south joining Admiral Street with aforementioned road running east and west.

Dr. W. R. Carson, whose term has expired on the Charlottetown Board of School Trustees, was replaced by Mr. Arthur L. Wright, the appointment taking effect immediately.

The City Clerk was authorized to call for tenders for the supplying of 500 feet of 2½ inch double jacket fire hose and 200 feet 1½ inch fire hose.

A sum not exceeding $500 was voted for a reception of delegates attending the annual convention of the Canadian Tourist Association, which is to be held during September.

FIRST AID FOR CARRIERS

Rail Freight Rate Boost Is Effective On July 1

By JOHN LeBLANC
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's railways, seeking an immediate general freight rate increase of 15 per cent, will get a temporary one-of considerably less than that starting July 1.

The board of transport commissioners, as hearings on the railway application opened, said it will authorize an unspecified increase as a "first aid" measure between July 1 and Oct. 31 to help take care of rising labor costs during that period.

The interim increase, it was learned, will not be more than 10 per cent and probably will be somewhat less. The announcement of its size may be made this week.

Mr. Justice J. D. Kearney, cheif commissioner, told the hearing Monday that calculations on the scale of the temporary rate raise will be completed almost immediately. He made the general announcement of the inerim increase—in a departure from board practice—before either the railways or opponents of the increase had made submissions.

PROVINCES PROTEST

Promptly, spokesmen for eight provinces—all except Ontario and Quebec—indicated displeasure with any kind of increase.

Alberta counsel J. J. Frawley, speaking for eight governments present at the session, said they do not believe the railways made a case "for any increase, interim or otherwise."

CPR counsel J. L. O'Brien, also representing the Railway Association, retorted that the railway case is "well supported."

Protests against the increase also came today from the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, the also came Monday from the Canada Lignite Coal Producers of southeast Saskatchewan, British Columbia Tree Fruits, Ltd., and the Manitoba Hydro-Electric Board, which uses much lignite.

The railways' proposed increase on coal, rather than the 15 per cent, would be 25 cents per ton, the only commodity specifically placed on a cents-per-ton basis The Manitoba board suggested the year.

DOSCO OBJECTION

Qualified objections came from the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation, the latter for both its steel and coal shipments from the Maritimes.

Frank D. Smith of Halifax, counsel for the four seaboard provinces and the Maritimes Transportation Commission, said he will bring in evidence against a percentage increase later.

He added any "horizontal" percentage increase would be unjustified and inequitable to the Martimes because of their position at the end of long hauls which multiplid the dollar costs of percentage rate increases as against the short-haul area of central Canada.

MR. R. S. SHEPPARD

Annual Visit To Province

Mr. R. S. Sheppard of Aylmer, Ontario, president of the Canadian Restaurant Association and Mrs. Shepherd along with Mrs. Florence G. Montgomery, managing director of the Can. Restaurant Association are visiting Prince Edward Island.

They arrived in the Province on Sunday evening and will leave again today on the first part of a presidential tour which will take them across the Dominion during the next several months.

Mr. Sheppard stated in an interview yesterday evening that there are 1,500 members in the Association in the 23 organized branches throughout Canada. The principal objective of the Association is to improve standards and he feels that the restaurants across Canada have improved in the past few years due partly to the fact that the Association has insisted upon very high sanitation and health standards.

Mr. Sheppard operates a coffee shop in Aylmer whose slogan is "Canada's Largest Small Restaurant, seating capacity 10,000, 44 at a time."

"I am very definitely interested in the small operators and in their problems," he stated. Size is no obstacle when it comes to gaining membership. We have restaurants with nine stools and others with 700 seats in the Association. However we do insist on high standards."

Among the services provided by the Association are a bulletin service to members giving as many suggestions as possible; the showing of films; and the holding of monthly meetings.

Island restaurants in the Association include: Johnny's Mayfair, Rendezvous, Old Spain, Woolworth's and Ment's in Charlottetown; The Bison in Montague and Chan's in Summerside.

Mr. William Beer, Charlottetown is the National Director representing Island members.

Farewell Party For Minister At Nine Mile Creek

On Friday evening May 25th the adherents of Nine Mile Creek Church assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. MacDonald to tender a "farewell" party for Rev. and Mrs. Donald Nicholson who are moving to Belfast.

When the guests were all assembled Mr. James MacPhail as chairman, after many complimentary remarks called on Mrs.Donald MacLaine to read an address to Rev. and Mrs. Nicholson expressing the regret on losing their minister, who had spent six years as their spiritual leader and wishing them the best of luck in their new pastorate. Tangible expressions of their good wishes were given by the presentation by Mrs. John B. MacDonald of small gifts.

Rev. and Mrs. Nicholson acknowledged the gifts and good wishes and spoke feelingly of the pleasant associations enjoyed by them during the six years in this church.

The singing of "God Be With You" brought this portion of the program to a close. This was followed by a sing song and a delectable lunch served by the ladies.

The following is the address:, To Rev. and Mrs. Nicholson,

Dear Pastor and Mrs. Nicholson

The gathering of your friends within this home tonight is a symbol of the severance of the "tie" binding us together as Pastor and people.

Realizing this fact we feel that words cannot pen the sentiments of regret. Another page has been written! Another chapter in the history of our Church has been completed! You have been called to another part of His Vineyard to work for Him - hence our happy relationship is soon to terminate.

During the six years, we were blessed to have you with us - you have worked earnestly and faithfully for the people committed to your care. You have pointed us to a "Loving Saviour" preached without fear or favor, lent dignity to your calling, served faithfully, and gladly - thereby earning that well deserved name "Beloved Pastor". No doubt in your work among us—you were oft times discouraged by our carelessness, and indifference but we wish you to know we are conscious of our debt of gratitude and wish to express our deepest thanks. to you and Mrs. Nicholson your pleasing personality has won the love and admiration of all - and you both have endeared yourselves to all, so closely- that we shall experience a great void on your departure.

The years have brought "Joys" and of course "sorrows" but in every case you, as a faithful minister and wife have shared these things with us. We trust that the "Scriptures" you have unfolded to us - will still live on - and like the "Star of the East" inspire and guide us to "Go Forward in Faith" and may the example you set and the high ideals you upheld be an inducement for us:

To hold very lightly
Things of this earth
Transient treasures
What are they worth?

Now we as a congregation must say "Farewell". Our hope for you is - that your new congregation may early learn that our "loss" has been their great "Gain" and may your new field of service bring you great rewards.

We ask that God's richest blessings be bestowed on you both. In parting may we also show our deep appreciation of your good work here in an intrinsic way by presenting you both with this small gift.

Signed on behalf of adherents of Nine Mile Creek Church.

love to these insecure and bewildered people".

HALF HOSPITAL BEDS

Recalling that mental illness now occupies one half of all hospital beds and that it strikes men and women in the prime of life, Dr. Beck said mental illness was the greatest single health drain on the economy of the country — greater than all the others combined.

Dr. Beck told the nurses he realized that their duty was often times a lonely task which incurred great personal strain on the nurse, on her vitality and on her personal resources. He said her job involved many tensions producing many situations. "It is difficult", he said, "to remain calm and serene in the face of insults and open hostility on the part of the patient. This however must be, if the patient's welfare is to be taken in consideration."

In spite of the fact that mental patients have lost to a degree their sanity, it must be realized that they still have a certain amount of it and they become very sensitive to the manner in which the nurse reacts to them. Dr. Beck suggested that nurses try to keep themselves strong and they might be surprised to see how the patient can actually help them.

INCREASE EFFICIENCY

The Doctor told the graduates they could increase their efficiency if they honestly faced themselves accepting the things that are within them. "If you do this you will be left with much more for the patient", he said.

"In spite of all the aids that you may have at hand, you will find that none of these or all of them combined are not enough. You will find that you will have draw on other resources for that needed strength", said Dr. Beck "You will need to pray; you will need to mediatate on and worship your Creator; you will need to drink from God's word, the Bible. We need the peace which God alone can give. We need the strength to help others, which only his love can supply. We often need to realize we are mere human beings involved in a spiritual reality much bigger than ourselves. We need to realize that we are never alone.

"May you discharge this responsibility to the full of your capacity and may you be able to enlarge your capacity by drawing on these resources within the outside of yourself."
