Scoring

350 + You are as black as the coal Santa left in your stocking. I can't believe people like you attend UPEI.

251-346 Guess Friday night at the local bars took away that innocent you act. You never had us fooled.

126-250 Your mother doesn't realize how "good" you are doing at university. She would be ashamed of your behaviour. Frankly, so are we.

26-125 Try though you may, things keep happening that "force" you to act on impulse. You are so close to being a pure and good child. So close, too bad this isn't horse shoes.

0-25 Congratulations! You are in that group of people that respect themselves enough to not have to regret the morning after. Many people try to attain your virtues but sadly they always seem to fall short.
